Oats, barley and wheat for sale at Perry's Barn.

The Welcome Pharmacy is your store. Make use of it.

Piano for sale. Inquire at Mrs. Paul Locher's residence in Burns.

A. K. Richardson went out on the Wray stage Sunday en route to Portland to get another car.

Grant Reynolds will grease your windmill for you during the summer. Call phone No. G147.

Born—Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mace, a daughter. Dr. Geary, the attending physician, reports all doing well.

Be on hand at the Hard Time Ball given in the Tonowama on July 26th. Best of music. Good time assured.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $ $ $ $ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christenson and daughter Evelyn were up from Lawen Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Elbert George. One of the Weinstein boys drove them up.

Rev. B. S. Hughes of the First Presbyterian church of this city took his departure Wednesday to attend Synod, which meets at Eugene next Tuesday. Mrs. Hughes and daughter Constance went out with Mr. Hughes as far as Baker where they will visit until his return.

Dr. W. C. Brown was a passenger out on the Wray stage Sunday morning en route to Portland where he attended the dental convention and later continued his journey to Willamette Valley points to visit old scenes where he spent the earlier part of his life and where he began to practice as a dentist.

Lloyd Johnson was among our business visitors during the week. He was accompanied by his son, Leroy. His daughter Eda, came up later in the week and was accompanied upon her return by Hattie Goodman, who will visit with the Johnson family for a few days.

Alex C. Juss, the expert accountant of Portland, who has been auditing and looking over the affairs of the William Hauley Company at this place, left for Crane yesterday to spend a short time going over business affairs of the Eastern Oregon Live Stock Co. Mr. Juss seems to enjoy his annual visits to this section where he has many friends. He will miss the weather forecasts at Crane, since he has had the advantage of them here through his friend William Stirling.

Geo. Buchanan was in from the station during the week.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

J. W. Buchanan was a business visitor the other day.

New line of rompers and house dresses this week—Mrs. E. F. Schwartz.

Sam Timrell of the Vale Trading Co., at Crane, was in the city the fore part of this week.

Come in and see the bakery goods. We don't keep it on display in the window because the sun dries it out rapidly.—Page's Sweet Shop.

Mrs. Embree was up from Sunset Thursday and reports her sons busy with their harvesting. There are some very good crops in that neighborhood this season.

Prompt service and courteous treatment will always be accorded patrons of the Burns Hotel Barber Shop. Baths at any hour of the day. G. W. Simmons, Prop.

The Weinstein Mercantile Co., of Lawen, has an advertisement on page six which it might pay to read if you are interested in laying in a stock of goods for laying or harvest. They quote some good prices and furnish gas and oil for those who buy in quantities.

J. L. Stitz spent a few days in this city during the week. He was accompanied over from the Drewsey country by his little son and his mother-in-law, Mrs. J. R. Holladay. Mr. Stitz contemplates an auto tour through the Yellowstone Park with his family during the summer and will likely go to Ashland or California for the winter.

Lieut. F. A. Fessler of this shop took his departure Sunday morning for a visit to San Francisco and other coast points, to be absent some two weeks. Upon his return he will make a short visit with relatives and friends in Portland before resuming his place as foreman of the mechanical department of this great religious weekly. Fess is rather a handy fellow to have around, his shop the boss hand since he is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cook arrived home Saturday evening from an extended auto trip which took them to Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Hollaburn, Salem, Eugene, Springfield and other Willamette Valley points. They left on their part of June in company with their son Joe for the tour and at 10:30 their son, Joe for the tour and at Seattle were joined by Miss Jeanne Cook, who has been a student of the University of Washington for the past two years. The young lady returned with them for the vacation period, but Joe stayed down at his uncle's farm near Salem where he found a big strawberry patch with plenty of real cream. Joe showed good judgment in that move and will remain there during the berry season as the Loganberries and black berries are coming on.

Try our banana cream pies. They are delicious. Page's Sweet Shop. If Alfred West was up from the Lawen neighborhood during this week.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Charley Culp, July 9, a son.

Battery and electrical repair work, oxy-acetylene welding. Jack McGuire.

Pat Connelly was over from the Drewsey country during this week on business.

Four registered jennets for sale—registered Jack at stand, Withers Ranch, Harney, Oregon.

New White Sewing Machine for sale cheap if taken at once—C. A. Sweek.

Two new cottages for rent. New Ford truck for sale. Drive party to buy a ranch. J. E. Rounseville, Burns.

W. R. Bryant, "Daddy," was in from Catlow last Saturday, having brought in a boy who was ill, for medical aid.

For Sale—$25 Victrola and 24 double records. Perfect condition. Price $25. Phone B66 or address Box 245, Burns.

W. E. Tyson is helping in this office during the absence of "Fess." Mr. Tyson is an old time printer and while this shop is new to him he's turning out a pile of work.

For Rent—500 acres of good pasture 11 miles from Burns. Fine grass, plenty of running water and shade and all under fence. R. L. Hass, Burns Oregon.

C. A. Haselina, Harold Ladd, David A. Williams and L. E. Porter were all in from the Stein's Mountain country the fore part of this week on some land business.

A Major operation was performed at the Haines hospital Wednesday by Dr. Smith upon Mrs. Cavander, mother of Joe Cavander and Mrs. Daryl Potter. The patient is reported improving satisfactorily.

A. H. Critchfield, who has been at the Haines hospital for a period suffering from an attack of rheumatism, is able to be on the streets again, but is not ready to enter the hay field just yet.

The Liptman, Wolfe & Co. of Portland makes special prices and terms on pianos. Page four contains an ad which explains their plans for those desiring to purchase instruments. They pay the car fare in some instances.

The weather man is having a hard-time these days, but if he would call on William Stirling he would have a competent assistant in reading the barometer and giving advance information. Mr. Rao states that Mr. Stirling shows marked ability in that line.

A delicate operation was performed upon Mrs. James Dalton Thursday by Dr. Smith at the Haines hospital. Mrs. Dalton's health has been delicate for some time and she went to the operating table with some misgiving, but we are glad to learn she is recovering quite satisfactorily.

Leon M. Brown of the Harney County National Bank is absent on his annual vacation. He and his family have gone to California where Mrs. Brown formerly resided. Mr. Brown has been identified with this big country for so many years that it is a part of him. His connection with the business of the community dates from the time he was a mere boy, coming here with his father in 1854. Mr. Brown has faith in the final outcome and advancement of this part of Harney Valley and is one of the men who will be found on the firing line until its development is accomplished.
