THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BURNS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000. "THE BANK THAT MAKES YOUR $$$ SAFE." ACCOUNTS INVITED.

Born—Thursday, July 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Gibbs, a son. The new boy and his mother are at the Fireweed hospital while "Dad" is out at the farm putting up the hay crop.

C. W. Drinkwater and wife were over from Drewsey Thursday. Clarence reports things prospering in his neighborhood. They returned home the same day as he stated he was very busy.

Dr. W. C. Brown arrived home Wednesday from his trip to Portland and other points to the west. During his absence he visited with his brother Ralph at Fall's City. Ralph is well known to many old time people of this community who are glad to learn he is doing well.

Herman Ruh was up the other day and tried to get the manager of this great religious weekly and Lon Richardson to go home with him as a part of his haying crew, but after consulting with others he decided it would hardly do to have two such energetic (?) workers and as he didn't want to show any partiality left both in town.

Mrs. J. W. Shown was down from her home at Harney Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Davies were in the city yesterday afternoon.

Batteries repaired properly. Jack McGuire.

J. G. Nicholson, county surveyor, was in town Thursday making proof on his desert.

Born—At the Fireweed hospital Sunday, July 13, to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frazier, a daughter.

Albert Cross and his niece, Miss Cora Shepard, were down from their home on Trout Creek Tuesday.

Come in and see the bakery goods. We don't keep it on display in the window because the sun dries it out rapidly.—Page's Sweet Shop.

Seth Dixon was over from Crook county Wednesday. He has recently disposed of his stock and also the lease of a big ranch over in that country.

Prompt service and courteous treatment will always be accorded patrons of the Burns Hotel Barber Shop. Baths at any hour of the day. G. W. Simmons, Prop.

James Weston and family are again residents of this city, being domiciled in one of his cottages in the southern part of town. He has disposed of his garage business at Crane.

Miss Rotha Miller was the guest of friends in this city during the week. The young lady is a graduate of the high school and since that time has attended a business college in Portland. She recently returned from California.

Ira Mahon was over from the ranch Thursday. Mrs. Mahon and the little daughter had been visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity for several days and Ira had to come in to see the baby.

Did it ever occur to you that advertisements are good reading? Do you read the ads, if not why don't you? They are placed in the paper for your benefit and you are the one who loses if you don't read them.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid will hold another cooked food sale in the Reed building, adjoining L. E. Reed's grocery store, on next Saturday, July 26.

Jack Craddock was in town Thursday.

Mrs. W. F. Shields, wife of the former pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, is here from Nyassa on a vacation visit. She is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Geary at present. Mrs. Shields will remain in this vicinity for two or three weeks.

Born—Tuesday, July 15, to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gould, a son. Bill continues his duties at the post office while the wife and boy are at the Fireweed hospital but expects soon to resign his position and both parents retire as the boy will no doubt take full charge of affairs in the immediate future.

Try our banana cream pies. They are delicious. Page's Sweet Shop, 11 Ellsworth Bldg is in from the ranch this week.

Rad Howser was in town Wednesday.

J. R. Jenkins and his brother Thos. were in town Tuesday from the Stein's Mountain country.

Battery and electrical repair work, oxy-acetylene welding. Jack McGuire.

New White Sewing Machine for sale cheap if taken at once.—C. A. Sweek.

Joe Loyd was in town Wednesday. He says he has been on the "bum" lately with an injured leg.

Four registered jennets for sale—registered Jack at stand. Withers Ranch, Harney, Oregon.

H. Hoskins, the Barton Valley sheep man is confined at the King hospital with an attack of rheumatism.

C. D. Pugsley and family were registered at the Levens during the week.

Two new cottages for rent. New Ford truck for sale. Horse party to buy a ranch. J. E. Roushville, Burns.

A. A. Traugott announces the sale of the Ross Spry 89 acres on the bench 4 miles northeast of this city. We did not learn the purchaser.

For Sale—225 Victoria and 24 double records. Perfect condition. Price $25. Phone B60 or address Box 249, Burns.

Herman Thels was down from his Emigrant Creek mill the other day and reports things progressing fine. He has a nice lot of logs in the yard and material for most any order.

For Rent—500 acres of good pasture 11 miles from Burns. Fine grass, plenty of running water and shade and all under fence. R. L. Hass, Burns Oregon.

Joe Morris was up from Narrows Wednesday to look after some business affairs and greet his many old time friends. He reports his neighborhood in a prosperous condition with prospects for good hay crops. In fact there will be several thousand tons of hay for sale around the lake.

Misses Jessie and Edna Cawfield were up from Narrows Wednesday.

Chas. McPheters and family have recently returned from an extended trip to Willamette Valley points. They made the journey in their Ford car going down over the Columbia highway and after visiting in Eugene and other points returned by way of the McKenzie pass. They spent a short time in Prineville visiting with relatives and friends before coming home. They report a delightful trip.

Mrs. Frank Nutley was down from her mountain home Wednesday. She reminded the manager of this great religious weekly that he was missing some good things by remaining in the office these warm days instead of coming up there where it is cool and the fish are biting. He is going to take advantage of such places as soon as Fess gets back and the office in shape to permit the boss getting away a little.

Mr. M. R. Smith and family, Mrs. Mary Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Ada Teller and her son, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rohn make up a party who will leave here the first of next week for a tour of Yellowstone Park. The journey will be made in autos and they are preparing for a fine time with trailers to carry the excess baggage and camp equipment in order that the occupants of the cars may not be crowded. The party plan on being absent about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, were down from their mountain home, the fore part of this week.

Fay Comegys was in town for a few days this week under the care of his physician, but has recovered sufficiently to return home.

Wm. Stewart, a brother to Mrs. A. J. Jones, is here from Dayville and has accepted a position in the repair department of the Lampshire Garage under Roy Moulten.

E. V. Dalton and wife and daughter have been visiting with his brother, J. M. Dalton, and family for the past few days. Mr. Dalton resides in Dallas where he conducts a furniture store. This is not his first trip to Burns as he has visited here in the past. The party left yesterday for a continuation of their tour into Cambridge, Idaho, where he has a sister with whom he will visit and return over the Blue Mountains by way of Pendleton to his home later.
