

NATION-WIDE DRIVE TO IMPROVE ALL LIVE STOCK

United States Department of Agriculture Announces Campaign to Eliminate Scrub Sires

"Better Sires—Better Stock." This is the slogan of a national better live-stock crusade, to get actively in motion October 1, that is announced by the United States Department of Agriculture, working in cooperation with the State agricultural colleges and other agencies interested in live-stock improvement. The campaign looks forward to the future food needs of this country's increasing population and results from long and careful observation of the live-stock industry in this country, and was planned after extensive consultation with specialists and breeders. The plan is to hasten the replacement of the multitude of scrub domestic animals in the United States with pure-bred or high-bred stock, and also to improve the quality of pure breeds themselves. The goal in view is greater efficiency in production.

The campaign will be the first organized crusade in a large country to improve all live stock simultaneously. It will interfere in no way with any work in live-stock improvement now being conducted, but makes all the work more definite and effective by providing official recognition for progressive breeders.

The campaign will be supervised from the Department of Agriculture in Washington, and in each State by the State agricultural college. County agents and other field workers of the Department of Agriculture and of the State colleges will handle the campaign locally. Every live-stock owner actively cooperating and keeping and using none but pure-bred sires of good quality will be given an emblem as an official recognition of meritorious effort.

"SPORTING LIFE"

Showing a phase of English life that under the stress of the war may never be seen again, "Sporting Life," Maurice Tourneur's splendid picturization of the famous Drury Lane melodrama which scored so heavily two decades or more ago, is one of the greatest motion picture spectacles produced in this country in many years. "Sporting Life" will be shown at the Liberty Theatre next Sunday, Aug. 10.

The scenario by Winthrop Kelley departs from the original play mainly in the elaboration of detail. The general outline is not disturbed, the plot concerning itself with Lord Woodstock's winning of the Derby with his mare Lady Love, and his stepping into the ring to take the place of an "unknown" pugilist whom he had backed heavily and who had been dragged through the agency of Olive

HE'S NOW A MAD, BAD INJUN WAR CHIEF

Meet Tris Speaker, new manager of the Cleveland Indian American League team. He will be known as the $55,000 pilot, for that is the sum owner Jim Dunn paid for him in cash and players to the Boston Red Sox three years ago. Tris is one of the big stars of the game. For 12 years he has battled over $300. He succeeds Lee Fohl who has resigned. Speaker is every inch a fighter and other American league managers know a real battle is to be waged every time the Indians trot onto the field now.

de Carteret, the vamp, at the instigation of her husband, who is Lord Woodstock's deadly enemy. The story has to do with the attempt of de Carteret to ruin Lord Woodstock. The romantic element is provided by the Earl who is in love with the daughter of his chief trainer. Her sister loves Joe Lee, a prize fighter, "unknown" pugilist whom he had backed heavily and who had been dragged through the agency of Olive

SHE'D SUFFERED FOR MANY LONG YEARS

Mrs. Clarkson Had Rheumatism So Bad She Often Cried All Night Has Gained Thirty Pounds

"My gain of thirty pounds during the past few weeks speaks volumes for Tanlac," said Mrs. Catherine Clarkson, of 2440 College St., Kansas City, Mo. recently.

"I had rheumatism for twenty-nine years, and during damp and unsettled weather sharp pains would shoot all through my body; my right knee has been so swollen, stiff and painful during the past two years that I couldn't bend it, and had to use a steel brace so I could walk, and many a time I have cried in pain the whole night through. I was badly constipated, lost weight and my general health became very poor.

"One day I read of a lady who had been relieved of rheumatism by taking Tanlac, so I began taking it myself. I am now on my fifth bottle and the rheumatism has almost entirely disappeared, I can bend my knee already and the pain is entirely gone. I have been relieved of constipation, my appetite is fine and I am feeling better in every way than I have in many years."

Tanlac is sold in Burns by Reed Bros. and in Crane by Vale Trading Co. —Adv.

The real question is not how much you spend for advertising but how you spend the money. There is such a thing as a thousand dollars worth of ham and eggs.

Delicate Mechanism

Despite its scope Swift & Company is a business of infinite details, requiring infinite attention.

Experienced men must know livestock buying with a knowledge of weight, price, the amount and quality of meat the live animals will yield.

Each manufacturing operation must be done with expert skill and scientific precision. A highly perishable product must be handled with speed and care to avoid loss.

Chemists, engineers, accountants, and other specialists are required to take care of our intricate problems.

Alert wisdom and judgment must be used in getting stocks of goods into the open channels of demand through our four hundred branch houses. Branch house organizations must show activity and energy to sell at the market in the face of acute competition from other large packers, and hundreds of small ones.

All these requirements of intelligence, loyalty, devotion to the task, are met in the personnel of Swift & Company. Yet the profit is only a fraction of a cent per pound with costs at minimum.

How can the workings of this delicate human mechanism be improved upon?

Do you believe that Government direction would add to our efficiency or improve the service rendered the producer and consumer?
