

Music with a KICK in it

For Singing and Dancing there is one Player Piano which has earned supremacy over all others. It plays the latest music with all the haunting melodies of a full Jazz Band. Saxophone, Ukelele and Banjo are imitated with startling truthfulness.

The Euphona Player Piano

is all that any Piano can be. To those who prefer the classics or old time ballads, it gives a faithful reproduction.

A GOOD PIANO forms the keystone of family life. To both young and old it is an unflinching center of enjoyment. No matter how luxurious, how well equipped your home may be there is an incompleteness, a chink unfilled, until this versatile instrument be installed.

A GOOD PIANO is a life long-companion. With moderate care it should last a life time. THE EUPHONA PLAYER PIANO has twenty enthusiastic owners in Harney County—MODERATELY PRICED—REASONABLE TERMS

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Good advertising is the health of big business; silence, its poison.

Albert Johnson was over from his Silver Creek home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Brenton have returned from their camping trip in the Steins Mountain country.

F. T. Hunt has leased the Sayer photo studio and will open up a gallery at once.

Frank Heinz and wife were among our out of town visitors during the week.

Lee Caldwell left Monday evening for Crane where he took the train the following morning for Ontario on business.

The family of the late Henry Caldwell desire to express through the columns of this paper their sincere gratitude for the many kindnesses shown them by their old time friends in this vicinity during their sad hours.

A. H. Critchfield and family came over from Catlow the fore part of this week on their way out to Baker where they will make their home for a while. Al has been having considerable trouble from rheumatism but is improving.

Mrs. Roy Vincent was here from Huntington for a few days this week letting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Owsley. She is going to make her home in Huntington as she has a good position there with the railroad with an opportunity for promotion.

E. H. Conser, cashier of the First National Bank, took his departure on Friday of last week for outside points to be absent most of this month. He went from here to Boise and intended to go from that place to Spokane, visiting in Seattle, Portland and other coast points later.

Lewis Hugget, one of the high school boys who responded to the call of his country in the war, arrived home Sunday evening after being discharged. Lewis did not get across, as he took the "flu" just before his company was to sail. He was on the eastern coast for a considerable time and saw much of his own country during his period of enlistment. He has gone out to the ranch to aid in the harvest.

P. S. Weittenhiller was in town Monday for a short time. Mr. Weittenhiller put in a crop out on the farm east of town this season but continued drouth has discouraged him and he says he is going to quit trying to raise crops on the dry farm process and urges we hasten the irrigation. "Thems our sentiments" and we are ready to aid in any way possible. We'd suggest that about the first thing along that line would be thorough organization and co-operation among the people favorable to such a move.

Married—Last Saturday afternoon, Aug. 2, at the Nazarene parsonage, Miss Ailetta Smith and Melvin A. Clay were married by Rev. George Ward, the only witnesses being Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Drinkwater, Jr. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, pioneers of this section. She has resided here all her life and is well known and held in high esteem by her many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Clay is a resident of Crane where the young couple will make their home. We join many friends in extending best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Willis Barber was in from his home in Catlow Valley during the week.

Ed. Egli was over from the ranch during this week.

F. E. Swope took his departure yesterday for Portland where he goes for a vacation of a few weeks.

D. R. Thorn was among our visitors from the Silver Creek country during this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Smyth, Jr., are up from their home at Andrews on a visit with relatives and friends.

Born—Friday, Aug. 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, a daughter, Dr. J. Shelley Saurman was the attending physician.

Clyde Gibbons, of the Silvies valley country, was a visitor in town during the week. Clyde recently had the misfortune to break his leg in three places, and the visit was mainly to consult his physicians, Drs. Saurman and Brunet, as to its progress. He was quite pleased to learn that he has a straight and useful limb again.

Harry Withers and family were in town Tuesday for a short time, having brought his mother down from the home near Harney in order that she might take the stage out Wednesday morning on her way to Hood River.

Paul Finke was down from his mountain place the other day and made a short call at this office. Mr. Finke stated that it would be necessary for him to buy some hay to feed his stock during this winter unless he gets them.

C. T. Miller was in town Monday. His daughter, Miss Ruth, arrived home Sunday evening from Monmouth where she had been attending the summer normal school, and Mr. Miller came up from the ranch to meet her and accompany her home.

"Daddy" Byram came in the fore part of the week from Catlow. He was accompanied by his little grandson who came over to see his dad, Roy Kiphart. The latter has been sojourning in this city for several weeks because of an accident in which he lost a finger.

James Johnson was here Monday night on his way to Prineville where he goes to visit with home folks for a few days. This is his first visit to this city since he enlisted and his friends were pleased to greet him and find him looking so well. Jim says on his return in a few days he will stay over and see more of his friends in this vicinity.

Old time friends of the Caldwells had the pleasure of a short visit with the family last Saturday. While they came to the old home on a sad mission, (to bury the husband and father) yet it was not void of its compensation in renewing acquaintances and finding the same warm hearted people still here to give them a word of cheer and encouragement.

The funeral of John Arthur Page, little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Page, who met his death in a run-away accident at Diamond on Sunday evening, was held from the Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. B. S. Hughes. Interment was made in the Masonic cemetery. The little fellow was born on September 19, 1917 and died on August 4, 1919. He was a bright little boy much loved by all with whom he came in contact. His parents and grandparents are highly respected citizens who have the sympathy of the entire country.

James J. Donegan is rustivating at the P Ranch.

James Cary was in town for a short visit during the week.

F. E. Towsley was down from his mountain home Thursday and stated he was in the midst of haying.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams were over from their Silver Creek home Thursday.

Charley Frazier came in from his farm home at Diamond on Monday in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Page, assisting them in bringing in Mrs. Beckley and the little boy after the unfortunate accident of Sunday evening.

Rev. Wm. Beard, of Baker, the Sunday School Missionary who makes regular trips into the interior part of this country, was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday afternoon. He had been visiting some of the field in Harney county in company with Rev. Hughes of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Beard is a welcome visitor in many Harney county homes.

Mrs. J. P. Withers took her departure Wednesday morning by way of Bend for Hood River after spending a few weeks in this vicinity visiting her children and looking after business affairs. Mrs. Withers is one of the pioneer women of this county but is at present making her home with her daughter in Hood River where she finds the climate more agreeable to her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bevins were passengers in on Wray's Stage last Wednesday evening. George recently received his discharge from the army and they have returned here for a short visit and to look after some business affairs. They contemplate returning to California for the present to make their home but will retain their interests here with the intention of returning at some future time.
