

Music with a KICK in it

For Singing and Dancing there is one Player Piano which has earned supremacy over all others. It plays the latest music with all the haunting melodies of a full Jazz Band. Saxophone, Ukelele and Banjo are imitated with startling truthfulness.

The Euphona Player Piano

is all that any Piano can be. To those who prefer the classics or old time ballads, it gives a faithful reproduction.

A GOOD PIANO forms the keystone of family life. To both young and old it is an unfailing center of enjoyment. No matter how luxurious, how well equipped your home may be there is an incompleteness, a chink unfilled, until this versatile instrument be installed.

A GOOD PIANO is a life long-companion. With moderate care it should last a life time. THE EUPHONA PLAYER PIANO has twenty enthusiastic owners in Harney County—MODERATELY PRICED—REASONABLE TERMS

The Wiley B. Allen Company

J. FELLOWS, Eastern Oregon Representative at Burns

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

S. Abernethy was in town for a few days during this week.

Dudley Campbell was down from Emigrant Creek yesterday.

Bessie Hansen had her tonsils and adenoids removed by Drs. Saurman and Brunet last week.

Mrs. Andrew Irwin writes her husband that she has purchased a nice house in Baker where she and the children intend making their home.

J. W. Buchanan was in town this week having come in when he found his son Roe had to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Lee Johnson, son of A. J. Johnson, of Sautex, underwent an operation at the hands of Drs. Saurman and Brunet yesterday morning.

Miss Ratha Miller came in from the ranch near Egli the other day and is visiting with friends in this city for a short time.

Mrs. John Fay was in from her home between this city and Lawen during this week to have Dr. Smith remove her tonsils.

Mrs. B. F. Campbell and daughter Ruby have moved down from the Emigrant Creek dairy farm and will occupy their town residence during the school year.

Henry Blackwell was here during the week. He came in on other business but upon finding some very fat cattle he is considering the advisability of buying some of them.

Archie Gibson was in to see us the other day. He is now one of the government trappers and his work calls him all over the country. At present he is in the Van section.

Mrs. H. J. Jokisch was in town Thursday doing some shopping and calling on friends. She informed a reporter of this paper that it is her intention to teach in Crane this year.

The "Hungry" Smyth was over for a few days this week. He stated they had just completed haying on the lake. They had a very good crop and the quality this year is above the average.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reed and their little daughter Roselle arrived home Wednesday from their vacation trip which took them to Portland, the seashore and other points of interest. The little daughter came home feeling rather sick but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cross and their son Albert were down from their Trout Creek home Wednesday looking for suitable quarters for Mrs. Cross and the Misses Cora and Jessie Shepard to occupy for the coming school year.

Miss Edith Stauber, stenographer for Dist. Atty. Biggs, arrived home this week from a short visit to her home folks at Caldwell. She was accompanied on her return by her sister Miss Charlie Stauber, who will visit with her here for a time.

James Fellows of the Wiley B. Allen Co., arrived in town Tuesday after being absent for a couple of weeks during which time he visited the southern part of this county, Wisconsin, Nevada and went as far south as San Francisco.

W. G. McInnes has resigned his position as an assistant cashier of the Harney County National Bank and will leave his departure in the near future for Pendleton where he will associate himself in the garage business with friends. Mr. McInnes formerly resided in Pendleton, retaining a place in a bank there to come to this city. He has always had a desire to return to Pendleton and now he has this opportunity of going into business for himself believe it offers better opportunities than the bank. His many friends in this community wish him well in his new business venture. Mrs. McKinney and the boys will remain here for a while before joining him.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Spare the ad and spoil the business.

Charley Miller of the P. L. S. Co., was a business visitor Thursday.

E. F. Towaley was down from his mountain ranch Thursday.

Little Marie McKinals had her tonsils and adenoids removed Thursday by Drs. Saurman and Brunet.

Walter Cross was down from Trout Creek Sunday, accompanied by his grand-daughters, Misses Cora and Jessie Shepard.

J. R. Jenkins and his son and Thos. Jenkins were in from the Stein's Mountain sheep ranch Monday. Mr. Jenkins reports better hay crops in his neighborhood but stated the range was becoming very dry and that fall rains were necessary to keep stock in right condition to enter the winter.

Word was received the other day that Frank P. Gowen is again in private life, having received his discharge from the army on the 20th he entered the employ of the Bureau of Public Roads the following day and is now stationed at Ogden. He had previously taken the civil service examination and fitted himself for such a position.

A marriage license was issued Wednesday by County Clerk Dalton to Lloyd L. Sherburn and Miss Daisy Doney. These young people reside in the Denio country, the bride being a daughter of Mrs. Dell Defenbaugh, who has resided in that neighborhood for years. The Times-Herald is not informed as to when the important event is to take place but wishes to extend best wishes.

Save Your Eyes

Eye strain causes headaches, nervousness and other troubles. I fit glasses accurately and scientifically.

All Work Guaranteed.
MAURICE SCHWARTZ
Optometrist
Office with Dr. B. F. Smith

BE A LEADER

An immense problem in reconstruction confronts the present generation. Are you doing your utmost to prepare to lead in its solution?

Oregon Agricultural College

Trains for leadership in the industries and professions as follows: HOME ECONOMICS, AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, FORESTRY, PHARMACY, MUSIC, VOCATIONAL EDUCATION, CIVIL ENGINEERING, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING, MECHANICAL ENGINEERING, CHEMICAL ENGINEERING, INDUSTRIAL ARTS, MINING ENGINEERING, LOGGING ENGINEERING, MILITARY SCIENCE.

The College training includes courses in English, Economics, Art, Mathematics, Modern Languages, Physical Education, Industrial Journalism, Natural Sciences, and all essentials of an education.

Three regular terms—Fall term begins September 22, 1919

For College Catalog, Illustrated Booklet and other information address THE REGISTRAR, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis

Mrs. A. C. Welcome arrived home Sunday from Portland in company with the Richardsons, after a short vacation visit in the metropolis.

Miss Pearl Ellis goes over to Silver Creek this week to be in readiness to begin teaching the school there next Monday.

C. A. Brittingham and family arrived home Sunday evening from an extended visit to Willamette Valley points, visiting at Mr. Brittingham's former home near Lebanon, and other places of interest. The journey was made in their car and at easy stages, stopping frequently at places of interest. Mr. Brittingham stated that he had never seen the Willamette Valley look better as the grain, fruit, and all crops, in fact were the best for years. They returned by way of Portland and over the Columbia Highway, giving them an opportunity of viewing the magnificent scenery of that route, as they went down over the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Parker, accompanied by their niece, Misses Alberta Parker and Lydia Tyler, left Tuesday for Paisley where they will visit with W. B. Parker and family and other relatives for a short time.

Juanita Slocum, daughter of Ben Slocum, formerly a blacksmith associated with W. W. Drinkwater in this city is again in town, having returned from Washington where they had been residing. Mr. Slocum died last fall from an attack of influenza.

When the history of the vanished frontier, so pregnant of perils and picturesque characters which confronted the pioneers in their march toward the sunset land in the days of gold, finally is written it will be inevitable that the virile Western characterizations of William S. Hart shall exercise a powerful influence upon the historian. For keenness of conception, and fidelity to truth, these impersonations are unrivalled, and they are rapidly becoming a standard upon which the popular estimate of these characters may be truthfully based.

Here Comes the Pride

of Bakery Goods from the best bakery in town. Our pastries are always delicate dainties of the oven which cannot be surpassed anywhere. Fresh bread daily with that home like material in the dough and the right bake on the inside and out. Leave your order for cakes or other specialties. And do not forget to remember that it is cheaper and much more convenient to buy your bakery goods in this warm weather than to cook them yourself.

Page's
SWEET SHOP

DON'T BELIEVE IT!

If you are told that the Tenth Annual Malheur County Fair will be "THE BEST YET," but come and see for yourself.

WE CAN PROVE IT

LIBERAL PREMIUMS assure a generous display of exhibits

LARGE PURSES guarantee the pick of sports

AND OPEN HOUSE warrants the largest attendance ever.

YOU WILL SEE	YOU WILL WITNESS
The best collection of horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry	Flying by one of America's greatest pilots
The best variety and grade of fruits, grains and vegetables	Bulldogging and roping by the country's best cowboys
The finest assortment of Fine Arts, breads, canned goods and fancywork	Running races by horses within half a second of the World's record.

THE FAIR OF FAIRS

SEPTEMBER 9-10-11-12

MALHEUR COUNTY FAIR

Ontario, Oregon

H. H. Tunny, President F. Leslie Body, Secretary