

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Frank Davis was in town the other day.

E. Gardner of Narrows was brought to the King hospital on last Wednesday seriously ill.

D. R. Thorne, one of the old time ranchers of the Silver Creek country was in town this week on business.

J. J. Smith expects to leave today for Idaho after a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. Solomon. It is his intention to return here about next February.

James Brandon and Ed Moore are home from the Round-Up. They have some good pictures of several of the big events there. Jim says Abe Hoster should be alive today and take part in this big show, as none of the riders have anything over this old time buckaroo of the big Harney country.

Paul Krueger has been in town for the past week or more getting his mother and little brother properly located for the winter, they having moved in from the farm in order that the boy may attend school. Paul has been getting the house in order, hauling wood and providing for her comfort.

NUMBER 5

of Seven in This Issue, No. Counting 'The Green Ribbon,' Which Also Says a Little.

If a commercial club is worth anything to a town it is worth support. Not alone money, but active support of the real business element. How many of the business men take an active part in the Commercial Club of Burns? We may take a notion to name some of the business men who pay their dues, but never come to the meetings in an early issue. Then people can see who works for the advancement of the community.

Frank Sheehan took his departure Wednesday for Portland where he will enter Columbia university to take up the study of electrical engineering. Frank is a returned soldier and will be assisted in his school work by the recent legislation in the interest of returned service men who desire further schooling.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williams returned last Saturday from an extended visit to Malheur county points. While absent they took in a part of the Malheur county fair at Ontario. Their son Bill, who accompanied them over, went on to Idaho points for a short visit.

The Lame Lizzies

BRING THEM TO US AND HAVE THEM HEALED

No use limping along on a lame Lizzie, when a little attention at the right time will send it over the ground as smooth as velvet.

We are physicians to lame cars. We diagnose every case and apply the needed remedy.

It doesn't matter the make of your car, or what is wrong, we can cure the trouble.

Make traveling a pleasure instead of an annoyance by having us put your car in first-class condition.
