LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. E. B. Hill was a guest at the J. W. Biggs home recently.

John Burrows is again home after being absent for some time at Pendleton and other outside points.

Chas. Owen was down from Silvies during the week. He has just returned from Pendleton where he took in the Round-Up.

James Shepard and Bart Siler were among our local people to attend the Round-Up at Pendleton and to come home full of enthusiasm for the big show.

A. E. Allen, one of the young men from the Denio country to go at the call of his country in the late war, has been discharged from the service and is again on his ranch near Denio. The young man was up Thursday looking after some business in this city.

Billie Bennett was down from his Silvies valley home during the week.

James Pirie was down from his home on Cow creek Wednesday.

Ralph and Dr. Catterson were in town Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Dan Harkey arrived home Wednesday from a visit to her daughter in Portland. She also visited at other points while outside.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Wise and Pat Donegan of the P ranch were in town Tuesday on their way home from the Round-Up at Pendleton.

Mrs. E. C. Eggleston has been designated as a representative to aid discharged soldiers and sailors to be reinstated in their insurance or convert it into old line insurance in case they desire.

James Fellows, the piano man representing Wiley B. Allen & Co., took his departure Thursday for Portland. He expects to remain but a short time in the metropolis, however, returning to the Prineville country until after the fair, then he will work in the vicinity of The Dalles until the holidays.

"Here's a Friendly Tip" says the Good Judge

Men who know tobacco, chew the best without its costing them any more. They take a little chew and it's amazing how the good taste stays in a rich, high grade chewing tobacco. For lasting tobacco satisfaction, there's nothing like a small chew of that rich-tasting tobacco.

THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW

put up in two styles

RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco

We now excel where we use to imitate—

Said the lady as she finished her first green turtle soup—

"It's almost as good as mock."

From imitation of Eastern made goods, Oregon manufacturers have advanced until they now surpass their models.

C. B. Anemus and his son were up from the Lawen country Wednesday.

Brad Moss was among the business visitors from the Drewsey country during the week.

Rye "Hungry" Smyth and Fred Smyth were over from the Diamond country the first of the week.

D. P. Jordan has been busy during this week placing additional shelving and otherwise making improvements in the interior of the Farmers Exchange.

Thomas Douglas was over from the Diamond country the for part of this week, on a business visit. He states that the range is much improved in that territory since the recent rains.

Mrs. Cary Thornberg and her son Arthur and Mrs. Wm. Campbell left last Sunday for Bend where they will visit for a short time. Each of the ladies have a daughter living in that vicinity.

Price Pentick and Ray Barron have taken charge of the garage recently vacated by J. P. McGuire and will make a specialty of auto repair work. The boys have an advertisement in this issue of the paper.

Chas. Bohm and James Hicks are home from a hunting trip that took them to Logan valley. They did not stay long at that camp, but came back on Bear creek where they succeeded in bagging a deer.

The Harney County National bank has recently installed an additional safe in their place of business. It contains a number of safe deposit boxes and other conveniences necessary to the growing business of the institution.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mace, Mr. and Mrs. Lute Mace, Mrs. W. M. Brunet, and Captain Morse, of the highway contractors, made up a party of hunters to leave for the mountains Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Sizemore and her two children have moved in from the ranch to the home in this city to remain for the school year. Mrs. Sizemore is enjoying a visit from Miss Ida Lewis, a former school mate who resides in Leon, Iowa.

Misses Jean Cook and Agnes Foley took their departure last Monday morning for Seattle to resume their studies in school. Miss Cook begins her junior year in the university and Miss Foley returns to Holy Names Academy to take up the normal course.

Register Vic Cozad of the land office is taking a short vacation from the office. He spent a few days in the hills looking for deer last week and is now visiting in Canyon City, having been accompanied over by his daughter, Mrs. Curtis Smith, the fore part of the week.

Miss Alice Turner spent a few days with friends in this city during the fore part of the week. She stated that her sister, Miss Ethel, had resigned her position in the bank at Crane and had gone to Pendleton to attend the Round-Up, in company with Miss Ethel Brown. Miss Alice left for Boise later, to resume her studies in the schools of that city.

J. Dorman Leonard and Miss Annette Leonard left Wednesday to resume their studies in the University of Oregon. Dorman will again take up his course in medicine, which was interrupted by his enlistment in the army. He will attend the school of medicine in Portland, and promised Jake Welcome, Dr. Saurman and Fess that he would let them know someone is in school.

Mrs. Gertrude Balding and little children are visiting at present at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ella Martin. Mrs. Balding was formerly Gertrude Barnes and is a graduate of the Harney county high school. She has been residing in Montana where she has a large farm. Her husband died of influenza last fall and Mrs. Balding has leased her farm. She will spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnes.

NUMBER 7

of Seven in This Issue, Not Counting 'The Green Ribbon,' Which Also Says a Little.

It's fine to let the other fellow do all the work and you reap the benefit of his efforts, but suppose he quits and asks you to do it a while—will you be a good sport? The fellow who does his part in community team work is the kind of citizen who deserves to succeed, and if he hasn't given active support by his fellows they should have some one prod them into action.
