LOCAL HAPPENINGS

J. H. Anderson is in town.

Frank and McKinley Thompson were in the city during the week on business.

James Raycraft and John Hodder have recently returned from a visit to the former's ranch on Steins mountain.

Mrs. Frank Dibble, Mrs. Lester Williams and her children were among our visitors from Silver Creek during the week.

P. J. Gallagher made a hurried trip to Portland the fore part of this week returning Tuesday evening to look after his law business before the circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Houser are over from Ontario visiting with relatives and friends in this section. At present they are in the Steins mountain hunting for deer.

J. R. Lewis and his daughter Anna, are here from Wapautia, on a visit to James Pearson and other relatives. Mr. Lewis formerly resided in this vicinity, his wife being a sister to Mr. Pearson.

V. Cawfield was over from his home at Van yesterday. He was accompanied by his son Harold, who has just returned from over seas service in the army. Harold was on the line of occupation since the armistice was signed, and had the distinction of coming home with Gen. Pershing and marching with him in the big parades at New York and Washington.

Mrs. Anna Haines and her son Wilbur were in from the Diamond valley ranch during the week.

Reports are encouraging as to the condition of the late fall range. Recent rains have saved many dollars to the stock men of this county.

Ray Smith and family have gone to Boise where they will make their home. Mr. Smith has bought a residence in Boise.

Your neighbors are interested in your visitors. Let The Times-Herald know when you have relatives or friends stopping with you. Phone 13.

Grover Goodlow and family were in town during the week, guests of relatives and friends. They are now residing on the Bert Bower place on Cow creek.

G. W. Clevenger has gone to Vale where he hopes to find relief from rheumatism by bathing in the hot springs at that place. If these do not benefit him he will go to Hot Lake in Union county.

Mrs. Clarence Young is at present a guest of relatives in this city. She and her children came up from Portland some time ago and have been visiting with her parents. She is home to stay, as Clarence is expected home in a short time.

Frank, Ira, Will and Alva Smead, four brothers of Mrs. H. C. Smith, arrived here the latter part of last week from their homes in Washougal and White Salmon, Washington, to visit with Mrs. Smith and family and to do a little shooting at water fowl. Some of these gentlemen have been here before and have met many of our town people. Will and Alva brought their wives with them on this trip.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP

Management, etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912. Of The Times-Herald published weekly at Burns, Oregon, for October 1, 1919.

State of Oregon, County of Harney, ss.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Julian Byrd, who having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of The Times-Herald and the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown above, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, to-wit:

1. That the name and address of the publisher, editor, managing editor and business manager is Julian Byrd, Burns, Oregon.
2. That the owner is Julian Byrd, Burns, Oregon.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent of more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: The Mergenthaler Linotype company.

JULIAN BYRD,
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of October, 1919.

WM. FARRE,
Notary Public for Oregon.
My commission expires May 27, 1921.

Many a small ad has prevented a large deficit.

Ed Stallard was over from his home on Otis creek Wednesday.

E. D. Towsley was down from his mountain home today.

Charley Foley has returned to Notre Dame, Indiana, to resume his studies in the law school.

Born—Friday, October 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moulten, a son. Both mother and son are reported doing fine at the Fireweed hospital.

H. Thels is back in town after being up at the saw mill and also doing some carpenter work for people in that neighborhood.

Born—Wednesday, October 1, at the Fireweed hospital in this city, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, a daughter.

Walter Sullivan came in yesterday He is travelling representative for a wholesale house out of Boise and is making this territory at regular intervals. His old time chums and former friends always give him a big welcome.

Hans Nelson arrived here Tuesday night from Portland to visit for a short time with old time friends. Hans has been employed in Portland for the past two years and holds a good position. His friends in this section are glad to see him and to find he is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. James took their departure recently for Springfield, Ill., after a delightful visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krumholz. Mr. and Mrs. James will visit in Illinois for a time before retracing their steps to the west and taking up their Imperial Valley home in California. Their son Harry is still here, but expects to leave the first of the week for the California home, making the journey in his car.

Mrs. Dan Varlen arrived home last Friday from San Jose, California, where she had been for several months for the benefit of her health. She returns looking fine and says she feels just as good as she looks. Mrs. Varlen told a representative of this paper that there was much unrest among the working people of lower California, one particular reason being the invasion of the section by so many Japanese, who dominate things in the fruit packing plants and similar industries.

C. E. Dillman, one of the first of the Harney county boys to volunteer his services at the beginning of the war, arrived home last week. He served in the navy and was on the Pacific coast all during the war, going over to Honolulu during the time. Mr. Dillman resigned his position as deputy county clerk to enlist, and upon his return he resumed his old place the morning following his arrival. He has been kept busy greeting his many friends since his return.
