

Local and Personal

Mrs. Ed. Stallard is visiting with her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cawfield, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Dibble were over from their Silver Creek home during the week.

J. W. Biggs left Thursday for his stock farm in the Denio country to be absent for a few days.

Frank Dunn has been in town this week looking after some business and receiving treatment from his physician.

Rev. B. S. Hughes of the Presbyterian church has been absent this week attending Presbytery at La Grande.

Perk Nutter is over from the Diamond country, having come in to receive treatment from his physician. He is better.

Mrs. I. Foster and her son Frank came over from Silver Creek yesterday. The latter is leaving at once for Arizona for the winter.

Mrs. Lester Williams is residing in this city during the school year in order that her little son may have the advantages of the excellent public school.

A. Cote is in town today from his ranch home. He told a representative of this paper that he had found no further evidence of injury done to his stock by the rabid coyote mentioned in the last issue of this paper.

Taylor Huston, who has been absent for most of the summer in the vicinity of Portland, arrived home Sunday night on the Wray stage and has resumed his studies in the Harney County High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Geer, Miss Lella Egli and William Carroll made a trip to the OO ranch last Sunday. Billy tells us they came home with some geese and ducks, but no tangible evidence of the fact has been discernible around the office.

John H. Lewis, former state engineer, was registered with his family at the Hotel Levens last night. Mr. Lewis resigned his position with the state to accept the chief engineer job on the Warm Springs irrigation project in Malheur county. We are informed the big dam has just been completed on this project.

Mrs. J. C. Sevek and her two children were over from Diamond during the week. They now have charge of the Diamond ranch for the Eastern Oregon Live Stock Co. She came in to have her little son's eyes examined as he was having trouble with his studies at school. Mrs. Sevek was at the home of her mother, Mrs. Olive Robinson, during her stay in town.

E. H. Connor has been made treasurer of the Roosevelt Memorial Association for Harney county. The quota for this county is $245; which should be raised without any effort at all. Every citizen wants to contribute to this fund. The campaign will be held between Oct. 29 and 27. Every contributor to the fund receives a membership fee regardless of the size of the contribution, one penny or $100.

Judge Dalton Biggs, Dist. Atty. M. A. Biggs, Atty. C. A. Sweek, Sheriff Goodman and "Dad" Swain scared all the deer out of the lower part of Silvie valley recently. It was the second trip for some of these "mighty hunters" and from reports they sustained their reputations as being merely "hunters" as none of them have ever done a deer any harm that any one knows of, outside of the sheriff and we notice that when he's successful his wife is along with him—don't know who uses the gun on those occasions, but the newspaper man generally gets a piece of deer meat then.

WARRANT CALL.

Notice is hereby given that there are sufficient funds on hand to pay off all General Fund warrants issued and registered up to and including October 11, 1919. Interest ceases October 16, 1919.

W. Y. KING, County Treasurer.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Italy.

Arriving at one of the most critical stages of the war, when the Teutons were forcing the Italian army back to the Piave, the American Red Cross rushed emergency relief from Paris and revived the drooping spirits of the whole country. In addition to furnishing rations and comforts and medical attention to the fighting men, the American Red Cross instituted 42 soup kitchens, 36 children's hospitals, 10 children's dispensaries, 14 artificial limb factories, five homes for refugee children, 10 rest stations for refugees. This photograph shows a group of Italian refugee children being fed by the American Red Cross at one of the numerous relief stations.

Plant a tree or two out in the pasture or around the farm yard. It will not only add to the beauty of the place but also add to the comfort of some farm animal, or perhaps a hunter who is trespassing on your place looking for "Chinas" or other game bird. At any rate some one or thing will be grateful for it and you'll not be sorry, for it might come in handy some day.

We have men in this town who know just how to settle differences of every kind and who would be competent (in their own minds) to tell the president and the U. S. senate just how to dispose of the league of nations question. We admit we might give some valuable advice in that connection but are going to keep it quiet.

Water fowl do not seem so plentiful this season in this community. Fact is, the weather has become quite chilly of nights and the birds have not tarried long here on their flight south. The hunters of this district should have had the open season from Sept. 16 as intended by the federal laws. When ice begins to form on the ponds the ducks generally decide to vacate.

Every public spirited citizen, especially if he is a property owner, should take an active part in the affairs of his town and community. It don't pay to sit back and not take any credit given your community you share it. Likewise should there be criticism, you are blamed equally with those responsible for the action or neglect as the case may be. We should be alive to the best interests of our community. If every individual would take his proper part in team work there would be less friction and more good accomplished. Try it. Get out and rub against your neighbor and exchange views and see if you are very far apart on the things that would help.

"Th' frost am on the punkin," these mornings, you bet.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

No person ever really profits from a gift unless he makes an effort to deserve it. To accept and forget is but to forge another link in the fetters which chain you to a future without hope and without reward.

The world today is upside down, and America is not the least of the countries floundering in the throes of internal disturbances.

Each day sees an increase in the discord and unrest which prevails, but we of this community should not be drawn into the maelstrom.

We should take no step in this direction without due and careful consideration. Above all, we should never permit a boisterous minority to stampede the sane and sensible majority. We should preserve our American institutions in the true American manner.

We want production and prosperity, but we can expect neither unless right and justice prevail. And this we will have only when opposing interests come together in a calm and dispassionate manner for a fair and reasonable discussion of their differences.

The Lord gave us brains with the expectation that we would use them in the proper manner. He gave us understanding, that we might employ it in determining the good from the bad, the wise from the foolish.

The most fortunate man in all the world is he who has achieved the greatest success through his own honorable and unaided efforts.

The man who wouldn't plant alfalfa in Harney valley when he knows his land is suitable for it, ought to be licked. Gosh! It's the surest thing ever invented in this country and a cinch on the road to riches.

Let's use the brains God gave us.

Good resolutions are all right, provided the resolute resolves as he resolves.

Be of good cheer, sister. Never allow the other girl's disposition to be sweeter than your own.

Speak gently, think sweetly, and your home town will rejoice in your presence.

The young man who learns to depend first upon himself will seldom have to appeal to others.

When you want a thing and haven't got it, the obvious thing is to go out and get it. It will not come to you.

Truly great persons are often insignificant in their own estimation. But not so with the peewee who apes the giant.

The idle and the feeble appeal to fortune for succor. The man of resolution carves it out for himself.

Editors and preachers are presumed to be the most holy men on earth. And, incidentally, their pay is the most unholy.

With the prices of women's gowns prowling around in the skies, the old fashioned sewing circle should become again an aristocratic feature of feminine life.

Fortune has deserted many a man because he left it to its own device.

Marriage is a lottery only when one or both of the contracting parties insist on making it such. One must not expect perfection in his or her mate unless willing to accord the same in return.

Every one denies any responsibility for the high cost of living. Of course. No one is guilty. Prices just naturally jumped of their own accord.

The preacher ties the knot, the judge unties it, and between the two it's a continuous merry-go-round performance from one act to the other.

Let me get you MORE MONEY FOR FURS I know that the average trapper does not get as much as he should for his furs. I know that there is a way to give the trapper all that he is entitled to, and I'm going to do business that way. My way of selling your furs for you by competitive bid will get you the highest possible prices. Write and I'll tell you about my method of getting you more money for your furs. FRED CRUMP Gen. Mgr. Talk about adventures!

Men in the Navy come home with the kind of experiences that most chaps read of only in the books.

Here's your chance!

Uncle Sam has, as you know, a big Navy and gives red-blooded young fellows like you an opportunity to step aboard and "shove off".

What will you get out of it? Just this:

A chance to rub elbows with foreign folks in strange parts of the world.

The chance for good honest work on shipboard—the kind of work that teaches you something real; the kind of work that puts beef on your shoulders and hair on your chest.

You will get 30 care-free vacation days a year, not counting shore leave in home or foreign ports.

You will have the kind of comradeship in travel that sailors know.

You will have regular pay, over and above your meals, lodging and your first uniform outfit—good stuff all of it.

You can join for two years. When you get through you'll be physically and mentally "tuned up" for the rest of your life. You'll be ready through and through for SUCCESS.

There's a Recruiting Station right near you. If you don't know where it is, your Postmaster will be glad to tell you.

To any Father and Mother:— In the Navy your boy's food, health, work and after, and social welfare are looked after by responsible experts.
