

TRIBUTES FROM THE WORLD'S LEADERS

Work of the American Red Cross is Praised by Noted Men.

"It is on membership more than money contributions that the stress of the present campaign is laid, for the Red Cross seeks to associate the people in welfare work throughout the land, especially in those communities where neither official nor unofficial provision has been made for adequate health and social service."—President Wilson.

"The American Red Cross is the mobilized heart and spirit of the whole American people."—Henry P. Davison.

"A magnificent spirit breathes in the American Red Cross."—Marshal Foch.

In giving prompt and efficient relief the Red Cross has won the eternal gratitude of millions of people."—General Pershing.

"It requires no organization to allow one of us as an individual to buy a dinner for a hungry man. It requires the greatest degree of organization to deal with the foes of a world. The Red Cross seems to be essentially demanded. . . . Without the Red Cross I do not know whether the world would have been able to bear the horrors and devastation of this fearful war."—Newton B. Baker.

"The Red Cross is the great Neighbor. . . . If the world is made a little more comfortable, a little happier, a little stronger for the struggle of life through its effort, the Red Cross is content."—The Secretary of the Navy.

"The Red Cross is not going to turn its back on its responsibilities."—Livingston Farrand, Chairman, Executive Committee, National Red Cross.

"I don't know what we would have done without the help of the Americans. I thank you from the bottom of my heart."—Ignace Paderewski, Premier of Poland.

"Mr. Davison has spoken to me of how the Red Cross hopes to continue work even in peace time. This is a noble enterprise. . . . Wonderful results could be obtained if all countries would join hands, especially in all questions concerning small children, tuberculosis, and sanitation in general."—Queen Marie of Rumania.

"We surely can do no better than to emulate the human and social work of our sister organization, the American Red Cross."—Signor Cirasolo, newly elected President of Italian Red Cross.

"Our heartiest thanks go out to our American friends."—Union des Femmes de France.

"The help given by the Red Cross is but another proof of the great heart and sympathy of the American people."—Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia.

"The Polish people look upon the American Red Cross as their salvation. It holds in its hands the destinies of nations. This world war has been fought in vain if there is no early restoration of normal physical and moral conditions in the newly born Republic of Poland. Poland is the keystone of the world's permanent peace."—Lieut. Col. Francis E. Franczak.

"I wish to express to the millions of Americans, who have made the work of the American Red Cross possible, the deep gratitude of my people."—The young King Alexander of Greece.

"I have confident hope that the American Red Cross' world-wide plans for charity and mercy will be largely realized, bringing the grateful appreciation of suffering millions as a partial recompense, and a greater reward, the richest blessings of God."—Cardinal Gibbons.

"One is honored by the privilege of membership in the Red Cross, and blessed in being permitted to make any kind of contribution to its work."—William Fraser McDowell, Presiding Bishop, Methodist Episcopal Church.

"The Red Cross is America at her best. . . . Money given to the Red Cross is not an investment, nor is it a charity. It is a sacrament."—Charles A. Eaton, Pastor Fifth Ave. Baptist Church, N. Y.

"It is extraordinary what can be accomplished when a free people all unite and work together for their common good and for the good of humanity."—Cardinal Mercier.

The Red Cross—a work of the heart on a sound business basis. Membership in the Red Cross is insurance against regret. The Red Cross never intrudes—but she has a mother's sensitive hearing. Red Cross is not a responsibility—it's an opportunity. JOIN.

Recreation in Hospitals.

The American Red Cross conducts its recreational work in hospitals through trained men and women, introducing a multitude of recreations suited to the handicaps of the men. The accompanying view of a hospital ward shows in operation a moving picture projecting machine, developed by a Red Cross recreational director, which throws the pictures on the wall so that the men do not have to stir from their cots.

NEVER EXPECTS TO BE WITHOUT IT

"There's Nothing As Good As Tanlac" Says Portland Man—Gains Twenty Five Pounds.

"In all my long experience I have never found anything as good as Tanlac when it comes to relieving suffering," said J. A. Neisz, a well known employee of the Pacific Car and Foundry Co., and who lives at 14 East 54th st., North Portland, Ore., the other day.

"My troubles began about three years ago," continued Mr. Neisz, "and I have been having a tough time of it ever since that is, until I commenced taking Tanlac. I had rheumatism in my arms and back, and I suffered almost constantly during all that time. Of course there were times when this trouble was worse than at others, but I can truthfully say that there was hardly ever a time when I was not conscious of pain to some extent. My arms were so stiff and sore at times that I couldn't raise my hands to my head. Besides what I spent for treatment and medicine, the time I lost from my work on account of this rheumatism amounted to over four hundred dollars in salary. I couldn't sleep much, and just gradually went down hill until I had lost in weight from one hundred and thirty-five to one hundred and ten pounds, and was so weak and run down that I could hardly get about at all.

"A friend of mine who had been suffering from this same kind of trouble, told me that Tanlac was the only thing that had ever done him any good, and advised me to give it a trial. Well, to make a long story short, I have just finished my sixth bottle of Tanlac, and I am as free from suffering in every way, and am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. I weigh one hundred and thirty-five pounds now, which means that I have gotten back all I lost in weight. I have regained all my strength and can do as much work as I could fifteen years ago. All that soreness and stiffness has gone from my arms and I can raise my hands above my head without the least trouble. Yes, sir, Tanlac has been a godsend to me, and I never lose an opportunity to recommend it to others. I am buying another bottle to take home with me today, for I never expect to be without it."

Tanlac is sold in Burns by Reed Bros. and in Crane by Vale Trading Co. Adv.

NEW VICTORY BLUE TAILLEUR SPORTS FUR

The tailleur is what American women have always looked for. It means "that one best suit"—suitable for most any occasion. This one in the new victory blue duvetyu is trimmed with bands of fur. The skirt contrives pockets in a yoke effect to be different, while a smart turban with crown of many colored flowers adds a touch of gayety, says Fashion Art.

Henry P. Fletcher, ambassador to Mexico since 1916, will likely be sent to Italy. In diplomatic ranks he is considered the "logical" man to handle the situation there.

Everything for Everybody Anything for Anybody

BUY IT FROM US IT PAYS

This is a general store and we are supposed to sell everything, and we live up to the general supposition.

You can buy anything you want here, from hardware to groceries, from needles to a good smoke.

It pays to buy from us, because we sell for cash, and an enormous amount of goods, and we can therefore sell at a closer margin of profit.

You CAN'T lose, and you WILL gain. Now doesn't this line of argument appeal straight to your good common sense?
