

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING

War Council Tells How Millions Contributed by Public Were Used For Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED

In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000 in the United States.

Washington, (Special).—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Thirtieth Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows:

"The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the period in which the war council was in control of its affairs. The war council was appointed May 19, 1919, and went out of existence February 28, 1919.

"It was the practice of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this summarized form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success.

"A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control will be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that this report covers the period only until March 1, should be carefully noted."

Following are certain round figures covering American Red Cross participation in the war, as revealed by the war council's report:

motion picture offering, one that cannot fail of its appeal because of the vital theme and the masterly manner in which it has been handled. Briefly, it takes up the lives of a man and woman who marry young in the heat of youthful passion and who rue it later when the woman becomes slovenly and obese, while the man

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Thousands of American families who planted gardens as a war measure have now acquired what is known as the "garden habit," and are growing gardens as a peace measure. It is a good habit to cultivate.

There has been a lack of berries on the market during the past two years. Harney county used to have many straw berry and raspberry patches, as well as currants. Develop these. Let's have good eats.

Every day brings its payroll robbery and bank robbery in our large cities. The public has become so familiarized with the features which are standard in all the exploits that it hardly gives any recognition to the news. It merely compares the amount of the loot with that obtained yesterday, and forgets about it. Why get excited? There'll be another tomorrow.

The cooties, however, are not yet out on strike.

Come on—let's strike!

We might, of course, all get busy and outprofit the profiteer.

"It is a wonderful treaty," and "It is a conglomeration of treason." All according to the way you look at it.

Strange, isn't it, that foreigners always tell us that our language is very hard to learn? We haven't found it a bit difficult.

No, Samuel, you should never judge the quality of the rouge by the blush on a woman's face. You can never tell how much of it is genuine.

The trouble with most of these wars with capital and labor is that everybody wants to be a general.

he takes up with another woman for whom he feels no love.

In the end she finds him and compels him to accept her, despite that, in his desire to save her reputation, he tries to resist the love that will not be denied. The lives of others enter into the story, which searches the very soul of the characters involved, keenly, incisively, and betrays the unrest that gnaws at the heart of American social conditions, like a worm at the bud.

Wonderful work has been done in the direction and the scenario, while the acting of the characters is splendidly accurate, and to save whom

Couldn't Leave House in 4 Months

Delany Takes Taniac And Is Now Back At Work Again.

"Not in years have I enjoyed such good health or felt so well generally as I do since taking Taniac," said William Delany, a well known employe of the city Street Department, and who lives at 427 Fairview Ave., North, Seattle, Wash., while talking to a Taniac representative the other day.

"Yes, sir, Taniac will do the work all right," continued Mr. Delany, "and it is the only medicine I have ever run across that will do just what they say it will do. I was in a mighty bad shape when I commenced taking it, in fact, I had been confined to my house for about four months, and Taniac put me on my feet, and to where I can put in full time at my work every day in the week. I had stomach trouble and indigestion in the worst way, and everything I ate disagreed with me. Gas would form after meals, and I would have the worst sort of cramping spells. I actually suffered so much that I had gotten to the point where I dreaded to eat at all, and I never thought of such a thing as eating meats or anything heavy. In addition to this stomach trouble, I had rheumatism all over my body. This was worse in my arms and legs than anywhere else, and I finally got to where I was hardly able to get about at all. Then my nerves went back on me and I never got a good night's sleep.

"Then I heard about Taniac, and as it seemed to be helping so many people who suffered as I did I thought I would give it a trial. Well, sir, it just seemed that this medicine was made especially for my cause, for I commenced to improve right away, and now my troubles are all gone and I am enjoying better health than I have in years. I have a fine appetite and can eat just anything I want and as much as I want, and I never suffer a particle afterwards, and am not bothered at all with gas forming on my stomach after meals. I have gained in weight and I sleep like a log every night. The rheumatism has left me, too, and I can get about as well as I ever could, and put in full time at my work. In fact, I feel like a different man in every way, and I give Taniac credit for it all."

Taniac is sold in Burns by Reed Bros. and in Crane by Vale Trading Co. Adv.
