LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Cashier Wallace of the Crane State Bank was in the city Tuesday.

Oscar Kosar and family were in from their home near Sunter during the week.

E. J. "Dad" Shipman, showed up here the other day and remarked he was like the bad penny, but it's all right for everybody is glad to see Dad. He's been over in Idaho for some time but is back to stay with us a while at least.

Fred Taylor, another of the Harney county boys who went when Uncle Sam called for volunteers to help win the war, arrived home this week. Fred was in the navy. He made many trips across during the period of the war. Fred formerly worked in the Ira Davis barber shop but is not sure whether he will resume his place there or not.

Ira Mahon was a business visitor during the fore part of the week.

Ralph Rimer was in on land business the other day.

J. A. Oard was in to see us the other day.

Mrs. James is reported quite ill at the home of her daughter in Crane.

A telegram received last night from California stated that Ellsworth Egli was quite ill.

W. T. Palmer came over from Catlow the fore part of this week in company with F. G. Kelly. He has gone to outside points for a short time to work but expects to return to his Catlow valley homestead in the near future.

Burns Lodge No. 97 A. F. & A. M. conferred a first degree at its meeting and following the ceremony those present were served with "Hot Dog" coffee, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and doughnuts. The Stewarts announced that refreshments of some character are to be served each meeting during the winter season.

Wear your Red Cross button.

B. B. Clark was among those in from a distance to attend the big Halloween dance last Saturday night.

Mrs. Nellie Reed took her departure this morning for Portland to consult a specialist in regard to her health.

Mrs. Chas. Dunton, who has been at the King hospital for some time following an operation, was able to return home this week.

Thos. Hutton was a business visitor to our city the other day. He has recently disposed of his cattle and is taking a rest for the present.

Jap Temple had one lung punctured and two or three ribs broken in a run-away last Sunday. He was brought to the King hospital where he is being cared for.

Henry Vulgamore went over to Crane last night where he met his niece, Miss Arty Mettleton, who arrived from Corvallis. The young lady will visit here with relatives for a time.

Joe Thompson, Ed. Egli, and Dr. B. F. Smith are among the victims who journey to Canyon City today to take the Royal Arch Degrees of Masonry. Some of their brethren are going over to give first aid in case their services are needed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bower were down from Harney yesterday on business. They are at present occupying their ranch home on Cow Creek and are kept closely at home because they can't find much help and have to do the work themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hutton were in town for a short time during the week. Link said he had disposed of quite a few of his cattle and found he had sufficient feed for more so was looking around in this vicinity for two or three hundred cows.

Mrs. Arthur Turner and Mrs. Clarence Luckey gave a shower in honor of Miss Ethel Whiting at the Turner home last Saturday afternoon. Some twenty or more friends were in and the young lady was the recipient of many useful presents that will add to the pleasure and convenience of housekeeping following the honeymoon trip to outside points, the young lady having been married the following day to Donald Hotchkiss.

The Odd Fellows have become quite an active organization of late and have been taking in many new members the novitiates being among the younger men of this community. The boys are organizing a team for putting on the several degrees and much interest is being shown. The Encampment is to receive many of the boys from this time forth and it is expected by the time the Grand Lodge meets at Baker next May the membership will have increased even beyond the hopes of the Grand Master who is urging the biggest membership ever put over in one year because of it being the centennial of the Order. Local Odd Fellows contemplate going to Baker about fifty per cent strong for the Grand Lodge and to boost for the meeting of the Oregon State Cattle & Horse Growers convention which meets in Burns just following.

Mrs. Schwartz is receiving new goods for ladies every day.

Grover Hudspeath was over from Crane on business during the week.

Born—Wednesday, Nov. 5, to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bennett, a daughter.

Carroll Cecil was over from his Silver Creek home for a few days during this week.

John Kirk was in from his home near Wagontire during the week assisting some neighbors in making proof on their land.

Joe Thompson of the Burns Cash Store, went to Crane Thursday on business connected with the wholesale business of the firm down there.

Mrs. Elbert George underwent an operation by Dr. Smith at the King hospital last Saturday. She is recovering nicely according to reports.

Rev. B. S. Hughes spent a few days in the vicinity of Narrows and Volgate the fore part of the week. He preached at the Sod House while in that vicinity.

Smith Crane is over from Nampa on business. We have not learned what he expects to do during the winter months, but he is always busy with stock and no doubt is here to engage in some such work that will bring money to the local stock man.

Clara J. Upton and Elnora Fowler, two representatives of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society with headquarters in Portland, were working this city during the week in the interest of the baby home. They met with ready and cheerful response for contributions for this work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Blott arrived home from Ontario the middle of the week and were agreeably surprised to find the home occupied by Mrs. Blott's mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, also her uncle. The Blotts had been out for special treatment for Bill and we are pleased to report he returns feeling fine.

Mrs. W. C. McKinney and her sons took their departure yesterday afternoon for Pendleton where they go to join her husband, Mr. McKinney went over several weeks ago to take charge of his business affairs but at that time he could not find suitable living quarters for the family and they remained here with her parents until this time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Horton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Jameson, took their departure yesterday for Bend. After arranging business matters in Bend the entire party will then depart for San Diego, California, where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Horton have been in the habit of spending their winters in that country for some time but this is the first time Mrs. Horton's parents, the Jamesons, have gone down. The latter are getting on in years and the change to the warmer climate will be very beneficial to them.

SMALL ACCOUNTS

THE rancher, the stockman, the clerk, the man on small salary and the woman dependent on her earnings for her income are each just as welcome to open a small checking account in this bank as the largest corporation. And their business will be cared for scrupulously.

This institution while old and strong enough to be conservative and safe is neither too old or too large to give individual service to the depositor with a small account. If you appreciate this kind of service we will be glad to have your "small account" on our books.

The Biggest and Most Interesting Livestock Show Ever Held in the West

Staged in the New $300,000 Pavilion
at North Portland, Oregon

Week of November
17 to 22

Open All Day and Evenings

The Pacific International Livestock Exposition was inaugurated and is supported by leading bankers, business men and breeders of the Pacific Coast—men of vision who see in the Pacific Coast the livestock center of the World.

The staging of this exposition on so huge a scale is a long step toward the accomplishment of this aim and the benefits of its success will be widespread.

Thousands of entries of pure bred stock, many coming from the Middle Western States, necessitated addition to the immense $300,000 Pavilion.

Hundreds of educational exhibits claim your attention, including the large Western Dairy Products Show with 250 entries and daily lectures by Mr. O. E. Reed of Purdue University and Mr. Mortenson of the Iowa State College.

Plan to Attend the Entire Week.

- Pure Bred Stock
- Dairy Products
- Horse Show
- Cups, Trophies and $75,000 in Premiums to be awarded
