

Young Evans Challenges Dutchman to Early Bout

(By the Sports Editor)

Young Evans, a clever 125-pound rapper from the outside, challenged Dutch Karpenter to a bout after a decision over Kid Carpenter last Saturday night.

Evans is handing the Dutchman an advantage of 50 pounds in his challenge. Friends of the latter are no fear that he is talking on too high, however, for they can't see that Dutch showed anything so marvellous in his last go.

Dutch is boasting around the pool-rooms that he has made a "reputation" now, and that anyone who goes to go up against him will have to furnish a guarantee. No one else can see his argument, and there may be some difficulty in finding a manager for the fight.

American Legion members are willing to take on the event, but want Han sewed up in a way that he can't kick if he gets by on another day.

It is hoped that the council will grant a boxing commission to take care of future matches.

BIDDIE WAXES FAT IN TRANSIENT HOME

New York farmers have hit upon a thrifty idea which puts to use "the very last grain" of $2.26 per bushel wheat. It is a henhouse on wheels which totes Biddy about the place to pastures now. The chicken knows its henhouse and its roost. When the chickens have gone to roost, the door is closed and next morning the henhouse hauled to some distant field where grain fallen in the harvest handling covers the ground. The chickens can be moved all over the place, being well fed and without any cost.

MOTHERS CLUB MEETS, ARRANGES DETAILS FOR DANCE

The Mothers club met at the home of Mrs. Julian Byrd last Thursday. Mrs. Albert Swain was joint hostess on the occasion. During the afternoon arrangements were completed for the annual Thanksgiving dance where the club will again show its progressiveness in the manner of conducting the supper, the latter is one of the particular attractions of this annual affair as turkey, pumpkin pie and all the trimmings usual on Thanksgiving are in evidence. Further details in connection with the annual Christmas sale, which will be held at the Commercial club rooms on December 13, were also discussed. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Peter Clemens.

COUNTY PROVIDES FOR EXTENSION WORK

At the present term of county court provision has been made to meet the requirements to establish permanent man in this county to do after extension work of agriculture. This has been the desire of the progressive farmers of the county for some time, but custom and circumstances were against them. Recently representatives of the government visited this county and discussed the matter with members of the court with the result that provision was made. This means that a man will be in charge of the work in this county continually; the campaign against rodent pests, grasshoppers, etc., will be under his supervision and when these do not demand his attention he can be visiting the several neighborhoods and helping the producer in working out his problems. It means much to the county.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

The war, they tell us, is responsible for the decrease in the birth rate. Now that the war is over we are hoping.

Attorney General Palmer warns of impending industrial disaster in the United States. Quite superfluous, Mr. Palmer. The whole country understands the situation and apparently doesn't care a rap. A collapsed stomach will wake a nation up.

Incessant sorrow comes unbidden to the few. To the many it is sought upon themselves.

Luck with most people is but an exhibition of good judgement energetically employed.

The wise man keeps his troubles to himself. The fool has none to keep.

Brooding over grief simply intensifies the trouble by adding others to keep it company.

Character is a negligible asset only to the person who does not possess it. To others it is without price.

A new sealskin coat can now be had for $1,000.00—but our better half declares she does not want one. Here's a wife for you!

In his golden dreams the optimist chases fortunes which never materialize, while the pessimist converts a shadow of gloom to the brightest part of the sun. The wise man walks between.

Selfishness, thoughtlessness and lack of self control are three of the worst enemies of our social fabric. The danger of each is seen and appreciated by all except those who offend them.

The man who has the will to do it generally look back and discover that he has done it.

Good judgment, energy and perseverance are the secret of what many people call luck. Opportunity finds those who seek it.

The battle of life becomes a rout only to the person who admits his own impotency. There is no such thing as defeat for the man who believes in "I will."

The British government is looking for a wife for the Prince of Wales. If this does good healthy blood and if hereditary imbecility is desired, any girl in this town want the job?

Don't refuse the glad hand of fellowship when it is offered to you. The next time it is extended it may be a fist.
