Country Town Champion

WELL - I GOTTA PROF LUCAS IS WAI

FIDDLE AT MA'S NEW

Senator A. A. Jones of New Mexico, is championing the country-town newspaper reader in the print paper bill he is fostering, which would limit the number of pages big city dailies might use. The print paper shortage is due to the big publishers having hogged the market, buying up all supplies possible as a result of their great resources. It is pointed out that 2000 to 5000 rural publications in the United States face suspension-if not extinction, unless the present shortage is relieved.

SHE WARS ON ROUGE AND TIGHT SKIRTS

Mrs. Martha May Rogers of Brooklyn. N. Y., has for 10 years devoted her time to the uplift of young women. Mostly she has worked through the M. E. church organizations, and it is expected special legislation in the spring will permit her to prefix her name Rev. She says rouge and tight skirts are women's curse to-

We all admire the fellow who has the courage of his convictions, provided those convictions coincide with our own views.

COUNTS OUR BUSHELS AND POUNDS FOR US

It may be the task of most of us to produce the bushels and pounds which is the world's sup-ply annually, but it is this man's job to count them and he does it all through a maze of figures which few laymen could under-stand. He is Leon M. Estbrook. chief of the Bureau of Crop Estimates in the Department of Agriculture e at Washington-and himself a farmer-over in Mary-
