

1920 and You

The man who systematically saves his money invariably commands the respect of other men.

There is a stability about him which appeals to the man of affairs.

1920 is before you, and it will be for you only what you yourself make it.

We invite you to open the New Year with an account at this bank, and take your proper place among the men who are making this splendid community what it is.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

P. S. Weittenhiller was registered at a local hotel yesterday.

Mrs. Starr Buckland and one of her sons were over from Crane this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cary were over from their home on Crane creek during the week, guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hamilton were over from Crane the fore part of this week on business and to visit with relatives and friends.

W. H. Newton and family were up from Narrows this week, having taken advantage of the holiday vacation to have some dental work done. They returned home today and Mr. Newton will open school again on next Monday.

Mrs. A. W. Gowan, one of the industrious Red Cross workers of this city, the wife of Capt. A. W. Gowan, a civil war veteran, and the mother and grandmother of boys who aided in the recent world war, received this week a letter from a U. S. soldier boy who is stationed in Siberia, stating he had received in his equipment a pair of wristlets that had been knit by her for the Harney County Chapter A. R. C. The soldier's name is Fred Cool and he is an Idaho boy.

E. S. Harrison, the Izee stock man, is over, having brought a herd of his cattle over to feed during the winter. He bought hay from Chas. McPheeters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams are over from their Silver creek home on a visit with relatives and friends. They are guests at the home of Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. W. A. Bardwell.

O. F. Savage was in town for a short period during the holidays to pass Christmas cheer with friends. He is now located at the Swan Lake ranch looking after the interests of the P. L. S. Co.

R. C. Ballantyne, W. A. Spangler and Joe Prime, are registered at the Levens from Bend. Mr. Prime is a Canadian and follows wrestling as a profession. He is looking for a match here and may scare one up during the coming week.

Mrs. E. E. Furlington and her daughter, Miss Helen, left last Sunday for Portland where they spent the week visiting with relatives and friends. They are expected back this evening in order that Miss Helen be ready for the opening of high school next Monday.

J. E. Peterson, R. M. Lewis and R. S. (alias Shimmy) Hayward, all of whom are employed with the highway contractors on the Burns-Lawen highway, have returned from Portland where they went for the holidays. Mr. Lewis was accompanied on his return by his wife.

L. L. Nooncheester is back from the Lakeview country where he has been making some investments.

Rev. J. F. Mobley took his departure yesterday for Idaho where he is now located as pastor of a church.

Cashier E. H. Conser of the First National Bank returned the fore part of this week from a business trip to outside points and is again at his post in the bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Obil Shattuck were guests of Rev. Hughes and family at a four course New Year's dinner on Thursday. One of the Hanley company turkeys, was thoroughly discussed, and voted an excellent bird.

Mrs. Mary Vincent was over from Hunting ton to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Oweley. She was accompanied out as far as Crane on her return by her mother.

W. H. Hoskins, one of the extensive woolgrowers of the interior section of this state, was here from his ranch home in Barren valley during the week looking after some business affairs and renewing acquaintances.

Dr. J. Shelley Saurman left yesterday afternoon for a trip to Portland, to be gone a short time. It is probable that Dr. Saurman may be persuaded to resume his practice on his return, as many of his patients are urging him to do so.

Dr. Walter Brunet and family took their departure last Monday for New York where they will again take up their residence. Dr. Brunet came out last summer to associate himself with Dr. Saurman in the practice of medicine. During their residence in this city the Brunets made some lasting friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Klein, of Spokane, Washington, are guests of their niece, Mrs. C. Culver Page, over the holidays. They will leave the first of next week for Florida where they expect to remain until spring. The Kleins visited here a year ago and are favorably remembered by many of our citizens.

Van Embree was in yesterday and stated he was appointed census enumerator for the district comprising Sunset, Lake and Warm Springs precincts. He had just received his appointment and it was necessary that he come here to take an oath before proceeding upon his duties, therefore he was unable to begin his enumeration on the first day.

Joe and George Buchanan were in during the week renewing acquaintances and visiting with Leo Buchanan, who is residing in town this winter. The Buchanans came to this section of the state away back in the early 80's and therefore recall former winters. They remember such another cold spell as visited us just before Christmas.

Principal Sutton received two new flags for the public school during the week, one for the flag pole in the yard and the other to display inside the building. During the fall the board had considerable work done on the grounds and upon the opening of spring it is hoped to further improve the surroundings and thus add to the attractiveness and efficiency of the school.

Clarence McKinnon arrived here on Christmas Eve and has since been visiting with relatives and friends. He was among those to volunteer his services to the government at the beginning of the war and saw considerable service. He is spending his time with his little children at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith.

The Times-Herald this week received a clipping from the Okanogan (Wash.) Independent, dated Dec. 27, which contained an item of interest to many of the citizens of this community, as it stated that among the marriage licenses issued during week was one to Chester G. Hibbard of Granger and Mary Fay Walker of Okanogan. Ches is well known to the people of this community where he resided for years during his boyhood. He is a member of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and is highly esteemed by his brethren and the entire neighborhood as well. He is an upright, industrious young man and deserves to have a wife that is of the same material which no doubt he has chosen. Mrs. Frank Short of this city is a sister to Mr. Hibbard.

"Rack" Newell is back from a visit to his mother over in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Best are over from their Silver Creek home for a short time.

Dennis Cooper was over from his farm on Silver Creek during the week.

Geo. S. Sizemore has been appointed district attorney to succeed M. A. Biggs, who resigned, and has taken over the office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith took their departure Wednesday evening for Winlock, Washington, having been called there on receiving the news of the serious illness of Mrs. Smith's mother.

Little Miss Della Melvin was the successful candidate for the big doll given away Christmas by the Rexall Drug Store. She is a delighted little lady and desires The Times-Herald to express her thanks to the many friends who made it possible for her to have this desirable Christmas gift.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Welcome took their departure yesterday for outside points to be absent for the month. They were accompanied by their nephews, Alfred and Wesley Welcome, who are returning to their school work in Portland following the holiday vacation. The Welcomes will visit for a short time in Portland and then go on to San Francisco and Southern California where they will spend a part of the time of their absence.

WANTED TO STAY

Despite all the things she has said about our government, Mrs. Goldman, anarchist, fought "immediate deportation" to the ditch. This is the last picture of her, taken as she was on her way to Ellis Island before she and Alexander Berkman were scheduled to be shipped.
