Words of Cheer

In these days of high prices, words of cheer are the ones you want to hear. We have them for you.

During the coming year we will use our utmost endeavor to discharge our deep obligation to our customers by effecting a substantial reduction on the price of every article we sell, where it is humanly possible to do so.

We can not control the prices in the wholesale markets, but we can and will continue to regulate our own profits in such a manner that customers will not only be amply protected, but will be actually favored in every sale we make.

We have no well rounded and glowing effulgence of thanks to hand you in a choice exhibition or rhetoric, but we do offer you our sincere gratitude for your patronage of the past year. It will be our pleasure to serve you even more acceptably in the year to come.

"I'll Tell the World" says the Good Judge

The man who doesn't chew this class of tobacco is not getting real satisfaction out of his chewing.

A small chew. It holds its rich taste. You don't have to take so many fresh chews. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put Up In Two Styles

RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco

Everything for Everybody

Anything for Anybody

Two of the largest commercial houses in the United States some years ago adopted for their policy the slogan, "The customer is right," and have held square to it.

In every case, unless the customer was plainly endeavoring to put over a crooked deal, his view of a controversy was taken as right. These houses announce a loss of less than one-half of one per cent as a result.

To old customers of ours, it is useless for us to announce that this has always been our policy in business.

To prospective customers, the only thing we ask is that if they have a complaint they bring it direct to us, with the full knowledge that correction in each case will be promptly and cheerfully made, regardless of any loss that may result to us.

A pleased customer leaving this store means still other new customers coming to us later. You can reason it out yourself.

The above is again our policy for the year 1920.
