Farm Loan Association Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Stock-growers Farm Loan Association, was held on January 24. The following officers were elected: J. C. Foley, president; Glen Clemens, vice President; V. G. Cozad, secretary-treasurer.

The directors are: J. C. Foley, Glen Clemens, H. B. Mace, W. M. Stewart, O. L. Shingledecker. Loan committee: Jap McKinnon, John H. Culp, Frank Swearingen and V. G. Cozad alternate.

The federal government has loaned to farmers of Harney county approximately $300,000.

The organization offers special inducements to worthy farmers desiring financial assistance to improve their farms, pay off their indebtedness and purchase additional stock and blue expense incident to greater production.

MEAL COOKING IN SECRET OF DELICIOUS CEREALS

Corn meal and oat meal are among the cheapest of cereals, and when well cooked make delicious breakfast porridges. The dislike which many people have for them is because they are too often served half cooked and insufficiently salted.

To make a delicious cornmeal mush for five people use 1 1/2 cups of cornmeal, 2 level teaspoons of salt, and 5 or 6 cups of water. Bring the salt water to a boil and stir in the cornmeal very slowly.

The oatmeal porridge, use 2 1/2 cups of rolled oats, 2 1/2 level teaspoons of salt, and 5 or 6 cups of water. When the water is boiling, stir the rolled oats slowly into it and cook the porridge for one hour, or still better, over night.

GOOD DESERT FOR COLD DAY.

Some day, after a light meal, try eating a Brown Betty with cheese for dessert. It is sure to make a hit with the family if they have hearty appetites. The following recipe for it has been tried out in the home economics kitchen of the United States Department of Agriculture:

Brown Betty with cheese—Arrange alternate layers of bread crumbs and thinly sliced apples in a deep earthenware baking dish. Season with cinnamon, also a little clove, if desired, and brown sugar. Scatter some finely shaven mild full cream cheese over each layer of apple.

When the dish is full, scatter bread crumbs over the top and bake 30 to 45 minutes, placing the dish in a pan of water so that the pudding will not burn.

If preferred, this may be sweetened with molasses mixed with an equal amount of hot water and poured over the top, a half cupful of molasses being sufficient for a quart dish of pudding.

WISER AND OTHERWISE A paragraph tells us that most women would rather be loved than trusted. Ours, however, insists on both. And still, if the reds overturn the government, we can use the other side.

But in all of this mad rush for the presidency, we note that the proud movie actor is not to be deflected from the glory of his career.

Speaking of modern discoveries, how long is it since you re-discovered the Ten Commandments? And how many in this community—except the preachers—would really like to give a truthful answer to that question? We wouldn't.

Remember, young man, if you can't break into print any other way you can take a last desperate chance and become a candidate for president.

San Diego Man Gains 25 Pounds

Was In Poor Health For Twelve Years Six of Which He Couldn't Work.

"I have gained twenty-five pounds in weight and am just as full of energy and as strong as I ever was since I began taking Tanlac," said G. I. Bickell, who resides at 4458 Louisa Street, San Diego, Cal., recently. Mr. Bickell is the father of the publisher of the Faulkton Advocate, Faulkton, S. Dak., in which state he resided before coming to California.

Continuing, he said: "Twelve years ago while in Mitchell, S. Dak., I suffered a general breakdown. It just seemed that my whole physical machinery went wrong all at once. I lost in weight very rapidly, and, of course, my strength went also; I had scarcely any appetite and became so nervous I could get but little sleep. I was also bad-me any good, and I went to Denver, of medicines, but none of them did me any good.

"I had tried lots of different kinds of medicines, but none of them did me any good, and I went to Denver, Colo., in search of health, and while there I began to read of the good Tanlac is doing, and one case I read of was so similar to mine I determined to try it, and shortly after I began taking it I began to feel better, and to pick up in weight, and my appetite began to improve. In all I took eight bottles of Tanlac while in Denver, and the way it built me up was remarkable. I was soon able to go to work again, and I worked steadily for sixteen months, and then came here to San Diego, and am working every day, and feel fine and strong and am not a bit nervous, and am never troubled with constipation any more. It is a pleasure to recommend Tanlac, when it did so much for me, and I advise every one to take it who is in the same condition I was."

Tanlac is sold in Burns by Reed Brothers and at Crane by the Vale Trading Co. Ad.

HOW MANY MEALS A DAY?

The theory is advanced from time to time that one or two meals a day would be preferable to the three commonly served in this country. If the same amount of food is to be eaten, United States Department of Agriculture food specialists state it is hard to see the advantage of two very hearty meals over three ordinary ones.

The best physiological evidence implies that moderate quantities of food taken at moderate intervals are more easily and completely digested by ordinary people than larger quantities taken at long intervals. If the food ordinarily eaten is considered excessive and the aim is simply to reduce the amount it would seem more rational to make all the meals lighter than to omit one. The very fact that the custom of eating a number of meals a day has so long been almost universal, indicates that it must have some advantages which instinct, based upon experience, approves and justifies.

TO THE VOTERS.

While I do not assume that I might be generally desired as a candidate for Clerk at the coming election, I have, however, been encouraged by my particular friends to make the race for another term to such an extent that I feel justified in saying for the benefit of those, and others who may be interested in making up the coming ticket, that I shall not be a candidate, since certain competent "service boys" have been proposed and in view of the fact that our country successfully relied upon their protection in the time of war, I feel that no one is quite so desirous of public positions such as this, as are the service men if competent and some who have been mentioned are beyond any doubt well qualified.

I wish to take this means of thanking the people of Harney county for all they have done for me by electing me to this office which has been all that I expected, both educational and profitable, and made pleasant by the splendid co-operation of the public. CHESTER DALTON.

G.O.P. and Dems Women Leaders

Women leaders in the two big political parties are now busy lining up their forces for the big presidential struggle this year. On the left is Mrs. John G. South of Kentucky, chairman of the National Republican Women's Party. On the right, Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, chairman of the women's division of the Democratic party, and one of the two women made a member of the national executive committee on arrangements. Miss Mary Foy of Los Angeles, was the other Mrs. Bass has always been one of the staunch suffrage leaders of America.

Mrs. Edna Fine-Seaward

Doing fine at the home of Mrs. I. H. Holland. Died—Mrs. Edna Fine-Seaward, wife of Ben Seaward, died at the King hospital last Sunday. The immediate cause of her death was blood poisoning. Mrs. Seaward had been ill for several weeks but her condition was not considered serious until a short time before she died. She was the daughter of Mrs. Ella Martin of this city and was but twenty-five years old. Mrs. Seaward came over from her home at Ontario last fall to spend the winter months here with relatives while her husband was absent from home because of his health. Mr. Seaward was summoned to her bedside before she died. Mrs. Seaward was born in Burns and was married to Ben Seaward on June 8, 1911. She leaves a young son besides her husband to mourn her untimely death. She is also survived by her mother, two sisters and one brother. The funeral was conducted Monday afternoon at the Burns cemetery, Rev. Geo. Ward of the Nazarene church.

Born—Wednesday, Jan. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Newman, a daughter. The mother and child are reported.

For Spring

Here is the newest in first showing of real spring millinery. It is right back to the transparent models so popular for the last few seasons. With it's double brim of tulle—one pointing up, the other down, and it's crown of checked ribbon in dull tones—it pleases the miss who must have that touch of spring first.

Pat Crow's Kidnaped Baby Weds

Edward A. Cudahy, Jr., Omaha and Chicago, famous kidnaped baby of 20 years ago, was married recently to Miss Margaret Carry of Chicago. And with this social note came a news item which will interest thousands of newspaper readers of the land, because the famous Pat Crow, who kidnaped Eddie Cudahy from his home in Omaha, and held the young baby for $25,000 ransom, wired his congratulations to young bridegroom. The latter prizes that message. Crow is now reformed and is working with the Salvation Army in New York. Photo shows Cudahy and his bride and (lower), Pat Crow as he is today.

Everything for Everybody Anything for Anybody Two of the largest commercial houses in the United States some years ago adopted for their policy the slogan, "The customer is right," and have held squarely to it. In every case, unless the customer was plainly endeavoring to put over a crooked deal, his view of a controversy was taken as right. These houses announce a loss of less than one-half of one per cent as a result. To old customers of ours, it is useless for us to announce that this has always been our policy in business. To prospective customers, the only thing we ask is that if they have a complaint they bring it direct to us, with the full knowledge that correction in each case will be promptly and cheerfully made, regardless of any loss that may result to us. A pleased customer leaving this store means still other new customers coming to us later. You can reason it out yourself. The above is again our policy for the year 1920.
