

LINCOLN

Abraham Lincoln Said:
 "TEACH ECONOMY.
 "THAT IS ONE OF THE FIRST VIRTUES.
 "IT BEGINS WITH SAVING MONEY."

When Abe Lincoln was a poor country lad the world did not recognize in him the GREAT ABRAHAM LINCOLN, future president of the United States.

But Abe was HONEST, INDUSTRI-OUS and FRUGAL and these rugged qualities of character soon bore fruit in improving his estate.

Lincoln said: "Teach economy."
 That's the purpose of this message.
BE FRUGAL, SAVING, THRIFTY! It isn't so much the dollar you waste, but the fact that you're CULTIVATING a bad habit in wasting it that has a FAR REACH-ING EFFECT on your character, happiness, success.

Save some of your earnings each week.
 You can't make headway until you do save.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

E. N. Nelson was up from his Dog Mountain farm during the week.

Stone masons Wiseman and Shepard are again at work on the Rouseville building.

Orin Thompson was in town during the week looking after some legal business in connection with an estate which he had been made administrator of.

Robt. Drinkwater was up from Crane on Tuesday afternoon, having brought over Dr. Fanning. Bob reports his wife improving in health.

Mrs. James Weston is over from her home in Idaho helping her some folks during the influenza epidemic. She is nursing her brother Dole and family.

F. G. Kelly came over from Catlow during the week, bringing in Jess Bradeen and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millering. Mr. Kelley said the roads needed some repairing before one could break the speed record even with a Ford. They found it better to take the high sage brush rather than try to navigate the roads.

Dr. G. J. Fanning, formerly practicing medicine in Eugene, was in the city during the week looking over the field with a view of locating and following his profession in this territory. The doctor spent a couple of days in this city and has gone out to make a report to his wife and daughter before deciding definitely upon the move. At least, that is what we were given to understand.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Allen have returned from Portland where they had been visiting and looking after business affairs. They went out by way of Bend a couple of weeks ago leaving their car at Bend. On their return they shipped a Stutz roadster to Bend and came on over in the big red car. It gets over the roads regardless of conditions, and Mr. Allen is envied by his less fortunate friends.

Archie Cross was in town for a few days during this week visiting with his mother and looking after some business affairs.

Information has been received here by friends that Miss Nettie Stirling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stirling, has been very ill at Portland but is now improving.

Next week the vote comes for the irrigation district. It is sure to be favorable. We must not let the matter lag in any way but push it on to full realization of what we expect. The people are united in this and let us keep them working thus to the end, as we will then all be better off.

Clarence McKinnon left this week for his ranch in Wyoming. He came here during the Christmas holidays to visit his little children and other relatives and had expected to go to Wyoming sooner but after the influenza epidemic broke out he waited to see whether his little ones were going to take it or not. Clarence owns a big ranch in Wyoming and he is going back to take active charge of it. He had put a part of it in alfalfa before the war but volunteered his services to Uncle Sam and served his time until the close of hostilities. He will now resume his development work on the big ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis and Mrs. R. J. Williams arrived home last Sunday from Washington where they had been to visit the mother of the ladies, Mrs. J. C. Garrett. Mrs. Lewis reports the aged lady much better, and that she was able to move on up to her home at Twisp before they returned. She had five daughters to see her at one time, the two from here, also Mrs. R. N. Miller of Twisp, and Mrs. P. M. Cheney from San Francisco. Mrs. Garrett was at the home of another daughter, Mrs. A. L. Vanderpool, at the time. Mr. Lewis took influenza upon his arrival home and has since been confined to the house, but Mrs. Lewis says she is hurrying his recovery as rapidly as possible as he's so mean she wants to get him out of the house. Simon knows where to go when she is in that humor, so he is perfectly safe, since they have lived together for a good many years without anyone getting hurt.

is nearly always the well-dressed one.

A man, young or old, with intelligence looks out for the appearance of his person. It is the first introduction to a stranger.

Clothes do not always make the man—but they can help a whole lot.

FLU HOSPITAL TO BE CLOSED EARLY IN WEEK

on the way in, and another stopped off at Crane to care for Mrs. Drinkwater. The last one to arrive was a practical nurse who reached here on Wednesday. She was allowed to immediately return as owing to the abatement of the epidemic her services were not needed. Mrs. White Elk, a graduate nurse, who came in with her husband Dr. White Elk, left Tuesday to take up nursing work in Idaho. The others, Mrs. Myrtle Kelzer, an overseas nurse who last year at this time was nursing in Coblenz, Germany, and Misses Rena Myrtle Decker Helen Baird and Bertha Lovins, will remain on duty at the hospital till its close.

Mrs. Kelzer when interviewed by a representative of this paper commented on the remarkably fine cooperation of the townspeople with the Red Cross. "As most of the hospital orderlies are service men," she said, "it has seemed here much like the 'good old days' of 1918 and 19 in Base 46 in France. Forty-six was in charge of an Oregon hospital unit and more than one Harney county boy has spent some of his overseas time convalescing there."

The writer is one of those and he recalls 46 as the one pleasant stop on his blissful tour de luxe, of American hospitals in France.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A change in the weather this morning indicate that we are still going to have some winter.

The roads at this time are mighty tough on people who have anything to haul over them. It takes the mail all night to come up from Crane.

Worthy Matron May V. Eggleston, of Burns Chapter, No. 46, O. E. S., announces that regular meetings will be resumed on next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. She hopes to see a full attendance.

Dr. Buerki is expected to arrive here from Boise today with a view of locating in this city to practice. He has been associated with Dr. French at Boise in the past and comes well recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Culver Page entertained a few of their friends at dinner Wednesday evening, the occasion being the fourth anniversary of their marriage. After dinner, guests enjoyed themselves with the excellent musical facilities afforded at the Page home.

Good roads boosters are becoming more numerous every day. The proposed increase in the tax levy which will be voted on at the special election called for May will more than likely carry as people are disposed to stand for anything in reason to get better roads. Harney county has been negligent in this respect in the past but it is time we took hold and got our share.

Nathan Brown left for Narrows Sunday, where he will take an active part in the management of the Narrows store. He expects to spend the year in Harney county, or at least until next fall before returning to school. Joe Morris has been urging his need for a long vacation, and it is possible that Nathan will have entire charge of the mercantile establishment most of the spring and summer.

Dr. G. G. Carl, who so generously gave his professional attention to the afflicted of this city during the recent influenza epidemic, has returned to his home at John Day. He was accompanied on his return by Mr. and Mrs. Guernsey and her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Dustin. Dr. Carl devoted himself wholly to his profession while in this vicinity, not even taking time to visit with his old time friends, as he found much to do.

Dr. and Mrs. White Elk left early in the week, the epidemic having so far abated that their service could be spared. Dr. Elk seemed to be very favorably impressed with Burns and Harney county, and expressed a desire to remain and practice his profession here. However, his connections with the government may make this impossible, as he would have to give up a considerable income.

Chas. Miller, cattle foreman for the P. L. S. Co. in Oregon, was in town yesterday in company with James Brandon, in charge of the cattle at the Island Ranch. Mr. Miller reports cattle doing fine this winter as the weather has been mild since the extreme cold early in December. They are watching the stock closely and will not turn them from the feed grounds until they are sure spring is here and the range ready.

C. J. Darst was in this office the other day and displayed some fine lead ore which he had taken at his Trout creek mines. He took some down to the Commercial club for display with other specimens of Harney county minerals. Mr. Darst said he some ore from the Pueblo section near Denton on display at the club rooms and decided we should have some of the product from right close to Burns.

E. N. Mathews has announced his candidacy for sheriff subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primary election. Mr. Mathews is one of the young men of Harney county who served during the World War. He has resided in this vicinity for several years and has a number of friends who consider his chances for the nomination are good.

The car will be sold to the highest bidder provided that the court reserves the right to reject any and all bids if in its opinion the amount is not sufficient.

The car has been practically overhauled since it was used and is equipped with good tires. It may be seen at the Universal Garage, Burns, Oregon. Sealed bids may be left at the County Clerk's office.

REWARD

$1 per head reward for return of about 250 stolen sheep and $500 reward for evidence leading to arrest and conviction of the party or parties who stole the sheep. My recorded ear mark is an upper bit in each ear close to the head and the ewes have an age mark besides. Age mark on ewe lambs is a crop off the right ear; yearling ewes, under slope on right ear; two-year-old ewes, an under slope on left ear; three-year-old ewes, an upper slope on right ear; five-year-old ewes, an upper slope on left ear; six-year-old ewes, a crop off both ears; seven-year-old ewes, a crop off left ear. At sheering time my ewes were branded with horse shoe bar on wool. My sheep are grade Merinos, not much wrinkled and have light colored wool, being different from most sheep. I am very certain that about 250 ewes two-year-old and up were stolen in April, 1918. The ewes were bred late the bucks being turned in Dec. 13. I offer the same reward for these and also for any sheep which may be stolen in the future.—Wm. W. Brown, Pife, Oregon.
