LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Otus Sizemore was in town Wednesday.

Virgil Moon and Taft Miller were in town during the week from the J. E. Sizemore ranch.

N. P. Patterson was in town this week calling upon the business men. He is representing the Hortthrop Hardware Co. of Boise.

Joe Garake was brought to the King hospital the fore part of this week suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. He came from the Gap Ranch.

Mrs. T. J. McDonald was operated on by Dr. Smith Wednesday for chronic appendicitis. The operation was performed at the St. Joseph hospital where the patient is recovering nicely.

No, there isn't any Green Ribbon this week as the fellow who wrote that column has departed for pastures new. We'll have to substitute some other color affair at some future time to take the place of the vacancy.

Mellie Parker took his departure last Saturday for Canada where he goes to look around. Several years ago Mr. Parker made a trip into the Alberta country and was most favorably impressed. He has gone back to make a further inspection with an idea that he may go there to make his home.

D. C. C. Griffith is recovering from an attack of influenza according to a telegram received by friends in this city during the week. Dr. and Mrs. Griffith are spending the winter in California for the benefit of his health and the many friends in this city expressed some concern when it was learned he had contracted influenza. His brother, who is a physician, went down from Salem to attend him and it is certainly good news to learn of his recovery.

Fred Lunaberg of the pioneer mercantile firm of Lunaberg & Dalton, arrived home Tuesday night from a visit to Los Angeles and other points of interest in southern California. He reports having had a fine time, but glad to be back on the job and do his part toward the development of this big country which he as well as many other old time residents have seen lying for so many years awaiting the organization that would bring it into its own.

Dr. B. F. Smith made a professional trip to Drewsey Thursday.

R. J. Williams was over from Silver Creek yesterday looking after some business matters.

Brad Moss, one of the substantial stock men of the Drewsey country, was over Wednesday looking after some business affairs.

Mrs. E. K. Kirk, who has been residing in the Mrs. Volmer house since last fall, is making preparations to take her departure soon. Mrs. Kirk has a fine farm near Corvallis where she raises pure bred stock.

Ed. Morgan was in town the other day having come in from doing some special work for the census enumerator in the interior part of this county. He is going back to the southern part of the county at once to do some work in the same line.

Cashier E. L. Wallace of the Crane State Bank, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Wallace doesn't get up to see us very often as he has quite a job on his hands looking after the growing business of the institution he is in charge of. He is one of the progressive young men of the county and is always on the firing line toward development.

A. E. Brown was in town yesterday.

Leo Buchanan has disposed of most of his household goods and is making preparations to go to Hood River where he contemplates locating.

Miss Eugenia Hibbard arrived home last night from her visit to Portland, Salem and other Willamette points. She reports having had a delightful visit.

Supt. O. L. Babcock of the Warm Springs Indian reservation is over looking after some land business for Platte in this vicinity. He is accompanied by his stenographer.

Clay Clemens has purchased an acreage near Boise and expects to go over in a short time to make that his home. He is much pleased with his purchase as it is close to the city and comprises five acres in a high state of cultivation with fruit-berries and hay.

Sam Timbrell, the efficient and accommodating manager of the Vale Trading Co. at Crane, was in town Thursday viewing the improvements going forward in our city and congratulating the citizens of this community on the spirit shown in the way of progression, especially in the irrigation project.

Rev. E. Buchanan and Nora G. Martin, both of Burns, Oregon, were married at the Vernon hotel Tuesday at noon by the Rev. W. W. Van Dusen.—Boise Statesman of March 4. Both these young people are well known in this vicinity. Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Buchanan and his bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Obil Shattuck arrived home last Saturday from Washington D. C., where they had been for several weeks. Mr. Shattuck spent his time in the Agricultural Department making up his reports and conferring with officials in connection with his work as superintendent of the experiment station in this section. Mrs. Shattuck spent her time sight-seeing. Among the interesting places she visited was the public offices of the government, the congressional halls, museums, etc. She had a delightful time. Mrs. Shattuck met William Hanley in the congressional building during their stay in Washington.

O. E. Thompson was in the city Thursday looking after some business affairs.

G. M. Rydet of Ryder Brothers, printers, at Baker, was in town this week looking after business affairs.

Robt. Drinkwater is a frequent visitor from Crane, as he conducts a passenger car between that town and Burns. He was up Thursday with a load of passengers.

Harold Cawfield is holding down a chair in the Burns Hotel barber shop, working with G. W. Simmons. His several friends and army cronies are glad to welcome him as a part of the business life of Burns.

James Fellows, field representative of the Wiley B. Allen Music Co. is in this vicinity looking after the interests of his concern. He came in last Saturday and has since been out in the Diamond country. He will remain for a few days longer before returning to headquarters.

Rhae Luper, Assistant State Engineer, in charge of the Water Masters, was in this city for a short time during the week. Mr. Luper came up to make an investigation of water conditions in this vicinity and to look after certain matters which had been taken up at the fall term of circuit court, but upon finding the irrigation district formed and everything working harmoniously toward the settlement of any disputes, he was advised by attorneys interested that it would likely be unnecessary. After conferring with Water Master Foley Mr. Luper left Thursday afternoon on his return to Salem.
