LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Kemp Hardisty was in town for a short visit during the week.

Ed Southworth is over from Pear Valley looking after some business interests in this vicinity.

Roy Moulten has leased the Clay Clemens residence on his acreage adjoining town on the north and will move out there. Roy says he has wanted to be a farmer in a small way for a long time and now has the chance. He bought Clay's cow and is going into the dairy business with just his own family as customers.

Roy Bunyard came over from Austin the fore part of this week. He is now employed over in the saw-mill town and is kept quite busy at his task. Roy came over in response to a telegram that his brother's wife, Mrs. James Bunyard, was dangerously ill. He was glad to find the patient better on his arrival. She is at the Firewood hospital.

Biologist Horn took his departure this week for Jordan Valley over in Malheur county, where he goes to mix some poison and aid in a campaign against the sage rats. He has a quantity of poison prepared in this section for the eradication of the pests and expects to be back some time later to give further assistance if necessary. He will also be here in May to attend the convention of stock men.

J. L. Gault, formerly cashier of the First National Bank in this city but now general manager of the Spokane Cattle Loan Co., spent a few days in this city during the week visiting with his many old time friends and looking after some business affairs. Mr. Gault had been in southern Idaho on business and took advantage of the opportunity to come in here. He reports his business in flourishing condition. Mrs. Gault and the boys are reported enjoying good health.

Local stock men and those in charge of the convention for the stock men to be held in this city during May are anxious to get a definite date set. The local men have asked for May 26 and 27 but this has not been decided upon as yet by the officers of the organization as at the time Mr. A. R. Olsen put the matter before them Mr. Pollman, the president was ill. He has recovered since but nothing has been received as to the action of the officers on the proposed date. As soon as this is settled the local committee will get busy on arrangements and entertainment.

Bert Bower was down from his Cow Creek ranch Wednesday.

James Fellows left Wednesday for Crane on his way to Portland and other points after looking after business in this vicinity for a short time.

Readers of The Times-Herald will find the announcement of Charles W. Ellis as a candidate for the office of joint senator in this issue. Mr. Ellis has been a resident of the district for several years and is well known to the people, having practiced law during his residence. He is a capable, aggressive and deserving young man who will do his duty without favor. Mr. Ellis was an active worker during the war period as a member of the Red Cross, being chairman of the Harney County Chapter for a part of the time, also as one of the active executive committee in charge of liberty loan and other war drives. He should have the support of every voter of his party in this county and we have no hesitancy in recommending him to the voters of the other two counties of the district, Grant and Malheur. Should Mr. Ellis be the representative of the district in the next session of the legislature we feel confident his constituents, as well as the state at large would have no complaint to make.

J. C. Beatty and his son John are up from their home near Denio. Mr. Beatty said they had quite a siege of influenza at his home this year but all have recovered.

Capt. A. W. Gowan underwent an operation the other day for bladder trouble. Although he is rather advanced in years he stood the ordeal well and is recovering satisfactorily.

"Daddy" Keech was up from Lawen in company with H. Weinstein last Saturday. "Daddy" came up to take in the wrestling match with the other boys.

M. T. Ash was down from his mountain home for a short time during the week. He has been keeping pretty close to his job getting out wood for the past several months and does not come to town very often.

Ed Laughlin was over from his home in the Buck Creek country during the week visiting with his family who are living here during the school year, and looking after some business affairs.

F. G. Kelly was in from Catlow during the week but we did not get a chance to talk with him. He evidently was in some hurry as the news paper man got one sight of him at a distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bennett and their little children were guests of Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. R. A. Miller, for a few days this week. The Bennetts reside in Silvies valley and are well known to the people of this city where both attended school.

The post office was moved this week into the new building being erected by J. M. Rounneville. The quarters are not yet entirely completed but when finally arranged they will be convenient, especially in being lighter for the employee of the office.

Geo. W. Young has announced his candidacy for county assessor in this issue of the paper. Mr. Young is one of the pioneer men of this county where he came as a young man back in the early 30's. He is qualified to fill the office to which he aspires and has many friends throughout the county who desire his election.

Mrs. John Darsey has a hen that lays one of the biggest eggs one can imagine for a fowl of her size. She lays every other day and from the size of the egg they are evidently double yolked. We suggested that Mrs. Darsey save some of them and set them with the notion of hatching out twin chickens.

Rev. B. S. Hughes has returned from attending the big conference at Portland in which it is hoped to bring together more closely the protestant churches of the world. He states the Inter-Church World Movement is one of the biggest things ever undertaken by the religious bodies and that he is confident it will bring good results. He is going to tell his congregation something about it in his sermon tomorrow morning at the Presbyterian church.

Nice rain last night.

John Graves was in town today.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery are visiting at the home of Mrs. Montgomery's mother, Mrs. Carlo Parker.

County Clerk Chester Dalton made a flying trip to Bend this week where he took the degree in the Elk's lodge. He was evidently treated well, at any rate he shows no scars from his encounter with the goat.

Mrs. James Mahon is in town, having come over from the ranch for medical treatment, she having stepped on a nail recently causing a painful wound. She was accompanied over by her daughter, Mrs. Claud Smyth.

Last week in mentioning that F. A. Fessler had left us to take up work in Prineville we stated he had been with this office ever since he was "dismissed" from the army. We owe "Fess" an apology. He was never "dismissed" from the army but received an honorable discharge just like the other fellows.

Victor Cleveland came over from the family home above Drewsey yesterday bringing his grandfather, "Uncle Rob" McKinnon. The latter had been over there for several weeks visiting but wanted to come home and get busy with his spring work. "Uncle Rob" is still quite active in spite of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pavey, who came over from Boise with the remains of their little daughter for interment here, left immediately for their home again following the service. Miss Ethel McGee also came over from Nampa in company with them but has remained for a short visit with home folks before returning.

Don M. Taylor, secretary of Harney County Chapter, American Red Cross, left Thursday morning for Portland where he goes to look after some private affairs and also to confer with Red Cross people connected with the Portland Chapter from which place the nurses came who aided in the influenza epidemic in this city.
