F. A. Fessler, editor of the Central Oregon Enterprise whose connection with The Times-Herald will be remembered, still shows an interest in his old home of Burns.

At the weekly luncheon of the Prineville Commercial club last Friday, Mr. Fessler introduced the proposition of telephone connection between Prineville and Burns.

"Both cities have telephones at the home of Joe Street, at Five," said Mr. Fessler. "All that is needed is about six feet of wire outside of Mr. Street's home."

Jay H. Upton, republican candidate for state senator from the central Oregon district, moved that a committee be appointed to see if the Pacific Telephone company would not furnish that six feet of wire."

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, chairman of the luncheon, pledged the assistance of the Prineville club in co-operating with the Burns body for this improvement.

AWAKENING OF THE GIANT

Our great American giant has been sleeping the early days of the republic, but now he is beginning to stir.

This giant is the American farmer. A committee of seven prominent farm organization leaders has been appointed to quiz all presidential aspirants as to their attitude toward matters which the farmer considers of paramount importance.

Their reports, as to the attitude of these candidates will go out to the millions of farmers all over the United States, and will have much to do with the tiller of the soil when he goes to the polls to vote.

We fear there are some uncomfortable hours ahead of our friends the candidates. They are reasonably expert at attacking big business and organized labor, for both get the gray when they make a roar.

But just how the candidates are going to satisfy big business and organized labor on one hand and the farmer on the other is a mystery difficult to solve at this stage of the game.

And the farmers, hanging together can relegate any candidate to the scrap pile in the bat of an eye.

The wise man never objects to adverse criticism which is free from malice, for it is the source from which much of his wisdom comes.

GOOD COMES FROM CULLING

As a result of 25 poultry demonstration meetings conducted in Cass County, Nebr., under the direction of the county agent, 800 nonlayers have been culled from 2,500 hens, 1,000 standard-breed eggs have been brought in and hatched, and 200 cockerels have been changed, bought or traded.

TOO MUCH LUXURY

American people are suffering from a peculiar disease—an aesthetic craving for the luxuries of life.

Time was when if we had a good home, plenty to eat, and to wear, and means of recreation and enjoyment, we were contented and happy.

But not now. The more we get the more we want and the more we want the more feverish our efforts to get it.

We never have enough—are never satisfied.

If our neighbor has a car, we long for one just a little better.

If Jones has a house of beauty, Smith wants one of grandeur and magnificence.

If Mrs. Smith is at the head of the social whirl, Mrs. Jones is not satisfied until she has supplanted her.

If one man is termed our leading citizen, a dozen others will aspire to the honor.

An abundance of the necessities of life is not enough. We must have the luxuries, both for our own pleasure and to outshine other people. And the list of life's luxuries is so long and so varied that no man or woman has ever been known to reach the end.

Millions of people forego many of the necessities of life in order to bask in the limelight of luxury. They are lavish in adorning their persons and their surroundings at the expense of their stomachs. They enjoy the tinsel of life and endure the privations necessary in order to satisfy their vanity.

The age of sanity is disappearing. That of frivolity is here.

Modern day luxury is considered a blessing. In reality it is more of a curse, because we do not realize when economy ends and extravagance begins.

tribute quite liberally toward the necessary funds to provide for the entertainment of the stock men during their visit to our city. It is not expected that Burns will finance it entirely, however, as the stock men as individuals and also the associations of the county are going to help raise money for the purpose.

The Times-Herald is authorized to announce that the stockmen's convention will be made a special order of business at the meeting of the Commercial club on Friday night, March 26.

their honor by Freshmen. It promises to be quite an event, and we'll be there—full force.

The literary program committee have decided to present Robert W. Service as the topic of their program on April 2. As so many are great admirers of Service, it was thought that this would be quite suitable and appealing.

We want to call the Sophomore's attention to the spelling of the word "Sophomore." We thought that some member of the class would correct this, but realize that "a word unto the wise is sufficient."

(Consult Webster on the spelling of "Sophomore."—Ed.)

The bell rings at 8:30, 8:55, 12-12:40 and 3:15. This is Portland time and we are making an effort to have the school time adopted in Burns.

Among the visitors at last week's program were the Mesdames Frances Clark, A. Horton, J. C. Foley, May Eggleston, Purrington, Nate Franklin, C. H. Voegtly and J. Gemberling.

Commencing this week, tea will be served in the library after each program to patrons attending.

We are anxiously awaiting our new drinking fountain (if it ever gets here). With warmer weather near at hand and more time to play, the water bucket will be inadequate.

Tickets for the Senior dance have been on sale this week and from the 19th:

way they are going a large attendance is predicted. The music will commence at 9:00 sharp and "Home Sweet Home" at 1.—

A repair man from Boise gave the typewriters an overhauling this week we look for closer harmony now. Miss Whealdon has lost that worried air.

We are also planning our program and writing essays for it and, altogether, we are a busy class of Freshmen.

The Juniors, though handicapped because of their small number, gave a very creditable performance last Friday.

We have held two meetings this week and we appointed a committee to select a class motto for us.

Don't be a piker—we want Y-O-U to attend the H. C. H. S. dance.

Helen King, one of the members of the illustrious Junior class has left school.

The Juniors are planning to entertain the Seniors in April. We're waiting for Marie to come home to help us "pull off stunts" on the Seniors.

Notice to Sophomore girls. Please leave beaux on the High School corners.

The Sophomores think they're putting on a better programme than we Juniors, but we think it can't be done.

The Sophomore Program, Friday.

Introduction class History—Frank Loggan; Spring Song—Marjorie Byrd; Spring Poems—Ralph Swett; Essay on Spring—Jessie Shepard; Violon Solo—Hazel Owsley accompanist, Marjorie Byrd; Spring poems composed by Sophomores—Dency Swett; "In the Time of Roses" by mixed quartette—Ada Johnson; Rollin Gowan, June Dalton, Le Roy Johnson; School Notes—Rollin Gowan.

Lydia Tyler has been absent a part of this week because of illness.

The High school boys did not have their baseball game Sunday, as the weather would not permit it. They will play with the grade school boys on the first warm Sunday.

The volley ball net has recently been put up but no lines are marked off as yet.

Did you ever watch a girl run? If not, just compare the High School girls when they run, with other girls. We actually can run now without keeking to the sides. Physical Training has done it.
