

MEN WHO SHOULDN'T SAVE

There are four men who shouldn't save their money. We will tell you about the first man this week. Next week we will tell you about the second man and so on until we have told you about all four of them. These men will be designated as "Man Number One," "Man Number Two" etc.

MAN NUMBER ONE

The man who is dead sure of his job for life—dead sure beyond peradventure. Certain that his income will never be less, nor his needs greater than they are today; let this man spend his money as fast as he earns it and worry not. There are few though who have "life tenures" and you are not likely to be that man.

HOW ABOUT IT?

If you don't come in the Man Number One class wouldn't it be a wise move on your part to start saving now? We pay 4 per cent compounded semi-annually on savings accounts and you can start an account for

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

David Crow was in town for a short time during the week looking after business.

Born—Tuesday, March 23, to Mr. and Mrs. George B. Marsden, at Canyon City, a baby girl. She weighed 8 1/2 pounds and has been named Anna Luella.

Misses Leora and Helen Goodlow have returned from a visit to their grandparents at Denio. They arrived home Wednesday night and Miss Leora has again taken up her work in the telephone office and Helen resumed her work in the high school.

Mrs. A. Egli and her daughters, Misses Leila and Marie, arrived home from California last Saturday evening. Mrs. Egli had been in California for some time, having been called down because of the illness of her son Elsworth. Misses Leila and Marie went down the first of this month to join their mother and brother for a short vacation visit and to accompany her home. All are enjoying very good health. Miss Leila has resumed her place in the First National Bank and Marie has returned to her studies in the high school.

James and John Gearhart, Mr. Hayden and Jess Davis were all over from their home in the Calamity creek country this week on business. Calamity creek is not properly named as this paper has pointed out in the past, but the name sticks just the same. It is one of the real productive spots of Harney county and is more entitled to being called the "Land of Milk and Honey." Why the devil don't the fellows who live over there get together and give it a new name. The Times-Herald will make it a point to have a story about it every week for a month following the event in order to get the new name firmly established in the minds of the residents of Harney county.

Dewey Robinson was up from Crane Wednesday.

N. P. Nutter has been in from the Steins Mountain section for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Egli were over from the ranch for a short visit during the week, having come over to meet Mrs. Egli and the girls after they returned from California.

Mrs. Olie Robinson made a trip to Diamond last Saturday where she visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sevek. Upon her return she was accompanied by her little grandson, Paul Sevek.

Judge Grant Thompson, one of the directors of the Harney Valley Irrigation District, and C. T. Miller, a member of the board of commissioners of the same district, were up from their homes at Lawen during the week on business in connection with the duties of their respective offices in the organization.

Biologist Horn left the first of this week for other points to do demonstration work in the eradication of pests. He has a big territory to cover and will be kept on the go much of the time from now on during the season. He went from here to Redmond and from there he is scheduled for Prineville, then to Wasco, Morrow and Umatilla counties. Mr. Horn expects to be back here for the cattle and horse raisers convention in May.

A. B. Brown is in from his ranch.

Mrs. Frances Clark, school supt. was out visiting some of the schools during this week.

A quantity of furniture and household goods were received this week by Dr. and Mrs. Buerki.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLean were up from their home near Fields during the week on business.

C. A. Miller, P. L. S. Co. cattle foreman, was over from his headquarters in the Drewsey country yesterday.

Fred Smyth and his wife and his mother, Mrs. Cassie Smyth, were in from their home at Diamond during the week.

Fred Otley and his daughter, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley Thompson, were up from the Lawen neighborhood last Saturday.

J. W. McCulloch of the law firm of McCulloch & Duncan, came over from Ontario the first of this week and has since been consulting with Mr. Duncan and their clients.

D. E. Morgan has been sent to the southern part of the county again by the Census enumerator to do some special work in finishing up the enumerations in this county.

Rev. Wm. Baird, Sunday School Missionary, who has been looking after the outlying sections of this county for several years, is in town and will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.

Mrs. C. W. Lewis painfully injured her knee recently and has to use a crutch to get about her home. Their little daughter, Bettie, is also ill and had to be taken to the St. Joseph Hospital because her mother was not able to care for her.

L. J. Cole a Surveyor has arrived from Portland to subdivide the lands of the Pacific Live Stock Company which are to be sold this spring. Mr. Cole has had some difficulty locating the old Government corners but thinks he will be able to overcome this without any delay, as his instructions are to complete the work as quickly as possible.

William Renwick, the Pollyfarm stockman and merchant, was in the city the first of this week attending to some business matters. Mr. Renwick reports fine weather in his neighborhood but regrets it because of lack of moisture. He feels it will require a great amount of rainfall to keep the range in shape for stock during the grazing season.

Zoeth Houser, former U. S. Marshal of Oregon, is here from his home in Umatilla county to purchase a car load or more of mules to supply some of his neighbors in the grain fields of his county. Mr. Houser is quite well known to many of the citizens of this county as he formerly bought cattle in this territory to feed during the winter from his extensive alfalfa fields. Of later years Mr. Houser has developed a fine dairy herd and uses all the forage he raises.

C. A. Rice, Portland; City Superintendent R. L. Kirk, The Dalles; City Superintendent C. A. Briscoe, Ashland; Miss Winnifred Dennis, Miss Jesse McGregor, both of Portland, Miss Genevieve Gorrell, Hoff, Miss Alta Vita Black, Yamhill, and Miss Selma Johnson of Baker, representing elementary grade teachers.

The committee will submit detailed report in the near future which will be mailed to those receiving this communication.

Have your watch overhauled. Start the old clock ticking, get that old piece of jewelry in wearing order. Have your eyes fitted to Reading glasses, see C. M. SALISBURY jeweler, optician.

Recent rain and slight flurry of snow storms have been of vast benefit to the range.

Wm. Byram, the Canyon creek stock man, was registered at a local hotel the other day.

Rev. B. S. Hughes made a tour of the Happy Valley section of this county during the week.

J. W. Biggs arrived home this week from a business trip to his big ranches and stock ranges in the southern part of the county.

A. A. Reinaman arrived home this week from California where he had been spending the winter. He contemplates remaining here permanently now and will develop some of his land holdings.

Fred DeNeffe, at one time associated with Archie McGowan in business in this city, was up from Portland for several days during the week, leaving on his return Thursday morning. Mr. DeNeffe was here on business and renewing acquaintances. He has not lost his interest in the development of this big country and hopes yet to be a factor when the time comes for some big things.

J. W. Buchanan was over from the ranch Wednesday looking after some business but returned home the same day. He has gotten busy of late and keeps pretty close to home. Joe is interested in the coming stockmen convention and when discussing the problem of housing guests said that he and George could take care of a lot of people if it came to a "show down," but no doubt they would rather remain closer to Burns because of the evening entertainments.

The P. L. S. Co. offices are now located in the Masonic Building, having been moved up from the ranch during this week. With the placing of land on the market and the additional duties connected with the Harney Valley Irrigation District, of which Supt. Olsen is a member, it was found he could not do all that was necessary by keeping the offices at the Island Ranch. "Billie" Carroll, who has been a deputy in the county clerk's office for the past several years, has been put in charge of the company offices in this city. Mr. Carroll is an energetic, deserving young man and his friends are glad he has a permanent position that is congenial.

HOW OFTEN WE HEAR

the man who has saved nothing say "I had the chance of a lifetime—a few dollars was all I needed but—" The man whom opportunity favors is the one who is strong enough to save while others spend. He does without little things to have great ones.
