

The Fourth Man

We have told you about three men who SHOULDN'T SAVE This week we describe:

MAN NUMBER FOUR

THE man who doesn't care. The world has its full quota of "don't care" people. Opportunity may knock, necessity arise, need come, but they do not seem to care. A Man who does not care is a tramp and the world has little use for him.

YOU

do care—therefore you should save money and practice thrift.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Wouldn't it be a wise move on your part to start saving now?

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Ira Mahon was calling upon friends in this city the first of this week.

Mrs. A. W. Hurburt was in town from the ranch for a few days during the week a great of relatives and friends.

J. H. Garrett is here from Missouri looking after some matters in connection with the estate of his late brother, John Garrett, who owned a big stock ranch on Emigrant creek.

Mrs. James Taylor arrived here Monday from Hillsboro to join her husband who is now in charge of the mechanical department of the Universal Garage. They will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hutton and their daughter, Miss Rotha Miller, were in from their home at Wagon-tire for a short visit during the present week. Miss Rotha recently returned from California where she had been employed at office work.

Hans Nelson was an arrival on the Bend stage Monday. He has gone out to the ranch with his father and may decide to remain here permanently. He has been making Portland his home for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Volmer arrived home Thursday evening from Paisley where they had been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Roy Parker, for a few weeks. Mr. Volmer informs us he is now "grandpa" as the Parkers had a little daughter born to them on April 5. Roy Parker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parker who formerly resided in this vicinity. Mr. Volmer informs us that the Parkers are bringing some of their stock over near Wagon-tire for summer range as they have been excluded from the forest range in that part of the country as have others.

E. E. Purlington is absent on business at outside points. He went first to Boise but later has visited in Pendleton and goes from there to Portland.

A. L. Hackney has recently purchased an acreage home at Nampa, Idaho, and informs this paper he contemplates removing there with his family soon.

Simon Lewis and Henry Vulgamore have recently bought the residence lots from Mrs. Will Cummins where her hospital formerly stood. This is an attractive property and we are informed by Mr. Lewis that a residence will soon be placed upon the property.

Mrs. F. R. Foren was over from Prineville for a short visit during the week to look after some business affairs. She reports that Mr. Foren has not been enjoying good health during the past winter but is now improved. She said they expected to return to this city soon to resume their residence.

Phil Smith has gone to his Emigrant creek saw mill to spend a few days in getting things in readiness for the spring work. Mr. Lazarus has been overhauling the plant and enlarging it during the winter months and is now about ready to begin active operations. This plant is situated in a fine body of timber and is equipped to do best work. The product will be on the market in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Story R. Sheridan were here from their home in Boise to attend the funeral of the late Judge H. C. Levens, Mrs. Sheridan being a sister to Judge Levens. These estimable people are not strangers to this community as they have made visits in former years. Mr. Sheridan is now the publisher and owner of the Boise Capital News. He formerly resided at Roseburg and was prominent in public affairs of this state for years. They remained for a few days leaving for their home on Wednesday evening.

Sam Midwinter was in town for a few days during the week.

This month has been very stormy and has brought much moisture to all parts of the country.

County Commissioner Haas has been confined to his home for the past week with an attack of mumps.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid will meet at the church on next Wednesday afternoon, April 28. All members are requested to be present.

John D. Daly, president of the First National Bank of this city, is over from his home at Boise for a meeting of the directors of the banking institution.

F. G. Kelly came up from Catlow Tuesday bringing Mrs. Kundert up for medical treatment. The lady was very ill and her physician, Dr. Smith, had her taken to King's hospital at once where she underwent an operation later.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caldwell arrived home this week from Ontario where they had spent the winter, Lee doing work in a barber shop. They are home now for the summer and will look after their ranch and stock interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ellis left Wednesday for outside points. Mr. Ellis has business before the circuit court in Malheur county and Mrs. Ellis has a sister living at Homedale, Idaho, where she will visit while her husband is looking after his legal business.

John Nelson of Silver Lake and E. M. Brattain of Lakeview were in town during the week. The gentlemen had heard there were a number of cattle for sale cheap in this vicinity and came over expecting to make a purchase, but upon arriving they found cattle worth as much in Harney valley as elsewhere.

While in town the fore part of this week F. G. Kelly, postmaster and merchant of Catlow, reported there had been much moisture fall in that parts for good crops were never better part of the country recently and prosper. Kelly says his young heir and his mother will likely arrive from Weiser about the first of May.

Ernest Smith arrived here the fore part of this week from Northern Idaho. He came because of the illness of his father, W. E. Smith, one of the highly respected pioneer stock men of this section, and will remain until Mr. Smith has recovered. The patient is reported as some stronger at this time, although still confined to his home.

Tom G. Howser was down from the ranch the fore part of this week and instructed this office to change the address of their paper from Ontario back to this place. The family returned several days ago and have again taken up their residence on the ranch. The place had been leased for a time but now Tom is going to look after it himself. Their many friends are glad to welcome them home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Horton and Mr. and Mrs. D. Jameson arrived home this week from San Diego where they had spent the winter. They came north earlier than they had expected because of some business affairs demanding Dr. Horton's attention here. They all enjoyed their sojourn in the southern climate. The Hortons will remain here for a short time visiting before continuing on over to Bend where they are in business associated with Mervin Horton.

Have your watch overhauled. Start the old clock to ticking, get that old piece of jewelry in wearing order. Have your eyes fitted to Reading glasses, see C. M. SALISBURY Jeweler, optician.

Thos. Hutton was among our business visitors during the week.

J. O. Alberson was among our visitors from Crane during the week.

Ira Mahon returned Wednesday from a business visit to outside points

L. L. Nooncheester is here from Lakeview looking after his business interests.

O. O. Jetley is confined in the hospital with an attack of bronchial pneumonia.

The Times-Herald is informed that J. L. Gault has resigned his position with the Spokane Loan & Cattle Co. and is at present in Portland.

Nick and Margaret Sasu have opened the White Restaurant on the corner across the street from The Times-Herald office and are preparing to care for the eating public. They are experienced restaurant people and should receive a liberal patronage.

J. E. Loggan has gone to Boise with his son Frank for special care for his eyes. The boy had been attending high school and recently developed acute trouble, seeing double and his eyes had a tendency to cross. His father decided to have him examined by a specialist without delay.

YOUTH OF 18 BUYS BUSINESS FOR SELF

Not often is a boy of 18 in business for himself nor is it a usual thing to find one who has saved $1,200 while working for a salary, yet T. T. Sprague, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Sprague, of Bend, is and has done just that. From his own earnings Mr. Sprague has bought from L. F. Fredrickson the vulcanizing plant located at the head of Bond street. The plant was opened by Mr. Fredrickson a year ago.

MORE MOISTURE FALLING IN THE MOUNTAINS

This office is in receipt of a letter from John Hopper dated at Silvis on April 16 in which he states considerable moisture has fallen in that vicinity during the first part of April which was mostly in the form of snow, although some rain has fallen, but during the period from April 1 to the date of his writing there had been 21 inches of snow fallen. In most cases the snow melted almost as fast as it fell except in the higher mountains where it will soon melt and start the water toward this valley to aid in making crops.

OUR NEIGHBOR ENTITLED TO RELIEF

Crook county is asking the voters at the coming special election on primary day to approve her bonding for her indebtedness. While it might appear a bad precedent it is nevertheless just that Crook county should be granted the privilege of refunding her indebtedness in the manner suggested. It has not been through extravagance that our neighbor has gotten so far in debt so much as unfortunate circumstances. It must be remembered that Crook has had two counties carved out of her territory in the past few years and has been compelled to assume indebtedness of the larger area with a much reduced tax producing territory. These days a county must be in a position to do its part toward better roads and highways as well as other obligations and it is not right that they be handicapped as is our neighbor. The Times-Herald hopes the voters of Harney county will vote favorably to the bond issue asked by Crook county.
