I am a liberal and not a reactionary or radical; and especially so as to public expenditures. Economy should mean thriftiness. Public expenditures demand a reasonable promise of material and social benefit. Irrigation and drainage unde special assessments; good roads; pro-tection of grazing lands and of the public range for the good of the livestock interest as a whole; betterment of mail service; improvement of fa-cilities of branch line railroads; are among the important local needs. Roads and postal service in country districts are the only visible returns didata for the office of sheriff of from taxation, and the burden of taxation should be fairly equalized
