THIRTY YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The following items are taken from the files of this paper dated June 18, 1890:

Ed Stauffer of Crane creek is in Burns this week.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. George Sizemore, Saturday, the 14th, an 8 pound boy.

Lou Bosenburg, of Drewsey, is visiting our town this week. He tells us he is thinking of moving to Burns and opening a saloon.

The old saw mill of John Sayer is cutting timber in sufficient quantities to supply the demand.

The items now in the hands of W. R. Graden. We wish him all the success that is possible for newspaper men to expect.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. McCoe will not suffer so much from the depredations of the grasshoppers as was feared. They are leaving after destroying about one-third of her crop. The part not destroyed we understand is looking splendid.

We are authorized to advertise that Burns will give a 4th of July celebration surpassing in grandeur and style anything that has ever been attempted in the town.

The band boys are having their band wagon nicely painted. The B. B. B. now numbers 18 members; they make fine music. One of the features of our 4th of July celebration, so we are informed, will be the band wagon nicely decorated, the boys all uniformed. 16 head of nicely comparisoned horses hitched to the wagon, 8 black and 8 white, making 8 span a black and white horse to each span.

Born—Thursday, June 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Col. Beebe, at Yakima, Wash., a daughter. Mrs. Beebe was formerly Miss Myra King.

James Keycraft and family have moved into their new home this week. Capt. Robt. M. Duncan and family, who were occupying this residence have moved to the C. T. Miller house.

W. B. Parker and family, who have been visiting with relatives and friends in this community for the past few weeks, took their departure yesterday morning for their home at Palstey.

Melba Parker and Paul Finke arrived home Thursday night from a tour of Alberta and British Columbia in general. We have not had an opportunity to learn what the boys think of that territory.

Miss Sara Howell, the community nurse made a trip to Denio the fore part of the week. She is covering the county as well as she can and getting acquainted with the people and conditions. She will be a valuable acquisition when the school starts this fall.

Prof. W. L. Powers of the O. A. C. was here for a day or two this week making observations at the Experiment Station. Prof. Powers has charge of irrigation at the Agricultural College and makes frequent trips to this region. He went on out to Malheur county yesterday.

Dot L. Davis arrived in town Thursday evening for a short visit with relatives and friends. Dot now resides at Yakima Washington where he has a small acreage tract and where he raises lots of fruit. He is very much in love with his new home as he is doing well and the surroundings are congenial. Mr. Davis has been shearing sheep for the past few weeks and being in this part of the country decided to come in and see us.

Chas. Dunten and family were over from their home near Drewsey for a few days during this week attending to some business affairs and visiting with friends.

John L. Garrett left last Monday for Washington where he will remain during the vacation period. He went first to Spokane where he will visit with Ernest Shields and family for a short time and will then go to Twisp where he will likely spend the summer with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller.

Roy L. Dwyer arrived here this week to look after his business interests in Burns. Mr. Dwyer is the active head of the Electric Light & Power Co. of this city but the business has been under the management of Leland Fry for the last year or more. We have not ascertained whether Mr. Dwyer expects to remain here or not.

Mrs. G. M. Bordeaux, of Seattle, sister to Mrs. Charles W. Ellis of this city, arrived last week and is spending a few weeks with relatives in this vicinity. She was accompanied in by her father, Mr. W. W. Haines, who is ninety years of age, yet a very robust active man for that age. Mr. Haines is known to many of our citizens in this county as he has visited here frequently.

WAYSIDE OBSERVATIONS

about better conditions.

A male quartet consisting of Julian Byrd, Platt Randall, Dr. W. C. Brown and C. A. Byrd, sang "Just a Song at Twilight."

Geo. S. Sizemore in a short address paid his respects to the pioneer women in their part in the early history of this country.

Mrs. Nollie Reed sang "Annie Laurie" with much expression and to the delight of her hearers.

J. C. Foley told some interesting incidents of the early history of Harney county. His remarks were more or less personal and brought forth much amusement as he discussed individuals who were present also the old time entertainment and dress. One amusing reference made by Mr. Foley was to the effect that he never heard of one of the old pioneer women having appendicitis, but they did have children. Mr. Foley came in 1883 and told of the way Harney valley looked the day he came over Sage Hen hill and saw one vast green meadow. He pictured in glowing terms the paradise it was for stock at that time.

Gladys Byrd gave a violin solo and Julian Byrd read a few items taken from the paper of thirty years ago.

Mrs. C. C. Griffith sang "Believe Me of All Those Endearing Young Charms" in a very effective manner. Mrs. Griffith sings exceptionally well and the rare occasions on which her friends are privileged to hear her are thoroughly enjoyed.

Homer Reed rendered a saxophone solo that captivated the pioneers as this is a modern instrument and it was indeed, a treat.

The entire gathering joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne" which was followed by the picnic dinner. This feast proved the crowning feature of the day for there was everything possible to secure on the tables. In fact it wasn't only on the table but under the table and all over the yard for there wasn't room on the tables for the good things the pioneer ladies brought in. Everybody was welcome and they showed they had good appetites. Cakes, pies, salads, fried chicken, boiled ham, good bread and butter with a quantity of coffee—was awarded the prize of a fine box just everything. It took some time to feed the "multitude" but after it was finally over "Mother" Whiting called for a business session for the purpose of taking care of the business of the organization and elect secretary leaving town immediately after. The Pioneer dance is now a permanent fixture in connection with the annual reunion. It was made an event. Mr. Howser, over eighty, started the ball off and until 12 o'clock the old people had the floor just as much to themselves as they could desire. Old fashioned dances were the order of the evening and it wasn't until just before the dance closed that the younger people were even permitted the floor let one a modern dance. Music was furnished by several of the pioneers among them being Sheriff and Mrs. Goodman, Lee Caldwell and his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Garrett; Clarence Luckey helped, as did C. A. Byrd, Mr. Hankins, Mrs. L. E. McDaniels, who by the way is not a pioneer but who showed her appreciation of the occasion by volunteering her services. Homer Reed also contributed with his saxophone just before the close of the dance Homer played modern music and the old folks seemed to "tucker to it" as they asked him to repeat and repeat. The callers were C. A. Sweek, Dell Dibble, H. C. Smith, C. A. Byrd, and Clarence Luckey. The reunion will be held next year in Burns on the second Saturday in June and there is going to be an effort made to have Chautauqua week immediately with this event either just before or follow it. The pioneers insist they had the best time of their "young" lives and want more of the same sort of entertainment next year.
