THIS

AD.

The best stand-bys in the business world are the rough-rimmed comrades, called dollars, who give you strength and confidence.

It costs nothing to save, but it may cost you success if you do not save.

The issue is before every young man and woman.

This bank affords you the opportunity.

We will be glad to welcome you among our depositors.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Asa Walkup is taking her annual vacation from her duties at the telephone office. She has gone to Payette to visit with relatives for a time.

Miss Emma Peterson is in from her home near Wagonville on a visit with friends in this city.

Ed. Howard and family were over from their home near Drewsey the first part of the week. Ed. is suffering from an attack of rheumatism and was not the same jovial fellow one generally greets upon meeting him. He is better though, he says.

G. W. Clevenger arrived home the fore part of the week from a trip to Vale and other outside points.

P. Minkler, father of Mrs. B. F. Smith, is here from his home at Portland on a visit to his daughter. He will remain for a short time only.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luckey have gone to the Denio country where they will remain for the greater part of the irrigation season, Clarence being a deputy water master.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Buchanan were among our visitors Pioneer day, they having recently returned from California where they had been for the winter. Roe's health is quite improved and he states he is feeling fine.

Attorneys J. W. McCulloch and Robt. M. Duncann arrived home from Lakeview the latter part of last week where they had been attending a session of the circuit court. Mr. McCulloch later went on over to his home at Ontario.

Charles B. Foley arrived home Tuesday night from Notre Dame, Ind., where he had been attending school since last fall. This was Charley's second year in that school where he is taking a law course. His many young friends are pleased to welcome him home.

Mrs. Mary Griffin was a pleasant caller at this office last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Griffin has closed her term of school and contemplates touring the county during the vacation period in the interest of her candidacy for school superintendent. She expressed her intention of coming to Burns for the entire session of the Chautauqua next week.

Andrew Irwin arrived here from Baker last Saturday and expects to remain for a few weeks. Mr. Irwin came back on request of Mrs. C. F. McKinney who had urged him to return during a few weeks this summer to take care of Mr. McKinney. Mr. Irwin states he left his son Andrew at work in a drug store and Mrs. Irwin and Margaret en route to Idaho on a visit with relatives and friends.

A. B. Whitney, Geo. Roycraft and Guy Schaver were in town Wednesday on business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Whitney was making proof on some land in the Valley View section. Mr. Roycraft sold a representative of this paper that he was making preparations to ship his herd of Holsteins to outside markets for sale, as he found he could not handle them with profit the way he is situated and thought they would bring more money out where feed is plentiful for dairy stock.

I. S. Geer returned this week from a trip to Portland on business.

Charley Ward was in town this week.

J. M. McDade and Geo. Miller came up from the Trout Creek ranch near Denio last Sunday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williams were over from their Silver Creek home for a short visit during the week, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis.

O. L. James, father-in-law of Joe Krumholz, left the fore part of the week for El Centro, California, where he goes to look after some business interests. Mrs. James remained here as her husband will be gone but a short time.

Miss Leola Fisher, of Portland, who has been teaching in this county, came up from Crane Sunday with friends and has since been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dalton. The young lady will proceed to Portland in a short time.

Ernest Shields and his family are expected down from their home at Spokane some time next week to visit with the folks for a short time. They will spend some time with his parents on Silver Creek but will also spend some time in this city.

Wesley Welcome and Alfred Welcome arrived home Friday night from Portland where they had been attending Columbia College. Both boys have grown in stature since last fall and surprised their relatives and friends. It is their intention to return to that school for the coming year.

Miss Esther Hugbet arrived home Saturday from Portland where she had been in school taking a course as a trained nurse. She was accompanied in by her aunt, Miss Ford, and a niece. They will visit at the Hugbet ranch for a short time. Miss Esther met many of her old time friends at the Pioneer reunion.

Bert Dunten and his son Montie were over from their home above Drewsey last Monday. The boy had some teeth broken by a horse throwing his head up and striking him in the face. The wound was giving him much pain and he came over to have the broken teeth removed. Bert says he is working without sufficient help and therefore had to get right back to irrigating his hay field.

For a Greater Harney County COMMON SENSE and a savings account here.

Ninety per cent of financial worries are caused by the habit of walking on the edges of incomes; by failure to leave a margin between the income and the outgo.

Those who leave the creation of this margin to an increase of income will probably continue to have financial worries.

For putting by a surplus, you can't beat common sense and a savings account at 4 per cent interest—supervised by the United States Government.
