LOCAL HAPPENINGS

C. A. Demaris was a business visit the other day.

Paul Blume was down from the mountain place the other day to meet his cousin, Paul Finke, and take him up to the ranch.

Jerry Merritt spent a few days in this vicinity during the week visiting with his daughter, Mrs. R. D. Baker, and also looking after some business affairs.

O. O. Jetley was in town Tuesday. This is the first visit since going out to the ranch following his severe illness preceding primary election. Mr. Jetley is recovering his health rapidly but finds he is still rather weak and "lacks wind." He says it is a convenience at times as he makes the boys do the hard work but he really would like to be able to navigate without it being him so much.

J. G. Nicholson, formerly county surveyor, was up from his home near Crane for a short time during this week.

Miss Edith Stauber was in town last week for a few days visiting with friends following the closing of her school in the Denio section. She has gone to her home in Idaho for a vacation visit.

A considerable number of the Welsh family were in town for a day or two this week on land business. They consisted of Bill, J. M., and John, all brothers, stockmen of Grant County.

Ernest Shields and family are in the country. They arrived recently from their home at Spokane and visited for a short time with the W. A. Robertsons in the Drewsey country, coming on over to Burns Tuesday and going on out to Silver creek to visit with the Shields and other relatives there for a few days. They will be in town again before the close of Chautauqua to meet their many friends here.

Mrs. Anna Pearce and her children have moved to town for the present.

Mrs. Ray Smith and her daughters, Marie and Maries, are here from Boise taking in the Chautauqua and visiting with home folks. They are enjoying every minute of their time with old time friends and relatives.

E. R. Cryder was in from his Silver creek home during the fore part of this week looking after some business affairs. He doesn't come in very often therefore finds considerable to do when he does come.

Mrs. Dave McLaren left last week for California where she will visit a few weeks with relatives. Dave drove over as far as Juntura with her where she took the train and he visited with his father and brother for a few days.

Misses Arlie Robertson and Helen Broyle are guests at the home of Mrs. Eunice Thompson in this city during Chautauqua. Miss Robertson is a niece of Mrs. Thompson, being the daughter of W. A. Robertson of Drewsey. Miss Broyle resides in Boise but is out spending the summer vacation with her school friend.

Mrs. Linton arrived on the Bend stage Monday evening in company with her granddaughter, Miss Gwendolyn Lampshire. The latter a daughter of Mrs. James Lampshire, has been attending school in Eugene and during the time was a member of the household of her grandmother. Both Mrs. Linton and her granddaughter found a hearty welcome.

Rev. L. S. Tracy, Pastor of the Church of The Nazarene, returned last week from Nampa, Idaho, where he went to attend the District Assembly. He was accompanied home by his wife and three children. Rev. Tracy was given a unanimous call as Pastor for the coming year, which he accepted. The Church extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend our services.

Lee Wilson and his wife, accompanied by their little daughter, arrived here from Big Eddy, Oregon, the fore part of this week to make proof on some land. They formerly resided in the vicinity of Narrows and had desert claims which they had not fully established their claim to. Mr. Wilson is in the employ of the government at Big Eddy, being one of those in charge of the canal and locks along the Columbia River. After looking after some business affairs in this section they will return to their work.

Misses Jean Cook and Agnes Foley arrived home Monday night from Seattle where they had been attending school since last fall, the former in the University of Washington, the latter taking a special course in Holy Names preparatory to fitting herself for teaching. Mrs. Nell T. Smith and her little son "Pat" were also incoming passengers the same evening, they having spent a month with relatives and friends in Seattle. Little Frances Barbee came in with the party, coming down from her mother to spend the vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Sutton.

J. M. Dakon and family started for California the other day but upon reaching Silver creek they had the misfortune to break the car and had to return home. It required some delay to get the broken part in as it had to come from outside points therefore they decided to wait until after the Chautauqua before starting, especially since the delay would prevent Mr. Dakon reaching San Francisco before the democratic national convention. Some time next week they will take their departure for a visit of several weeks in the southern state where they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Johnson for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Craddock were down from their Silver home during the week.

Frank Matney left the fore part of this week for Southern Oregon in response to a telegram that his mother had died.

The Burns Garage and Lampshire Garage have found a way to overcome the shortage of gas by sending about 50 barrels out to Idaho for a supply. These barrels will be kept going and coming until the shortage is relieved.

Mrs. Robt. Irving was in to see us the other day. She was looking for a suitable domicile in which to move as she is determined to live in Burns during the coming school year in order to take advantage of our exceptional schools. She has not yet found what she desires but we are sure she will.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Poujade and the younger children arrived home this week from Medford where they had spent the winter. The Poujades are pioneer people of this section and own valuable land-property and stock but they decided to take a vacation from hard work last summer and "hotfooted it" over to Mr. Poujade's former haunts of his younger days.

Mrs. Anna Haines, with her little daughter and her son Wilbur and Miss Mary Jenkins are among the out of town visitors to the Chautauqua. Miss Jenkins with her mother and other members of the family recently returned to the ranch home from Boise where they reside during the school year. The young lady has finished her high school course and now contemplates entering college the coming year.

Mrs. Minnie Fireoved, who has conducted the Fireoved Maternity Hospital in this city for the past few years, has gone to Denver, Colorado where she expects to remain permanently. Mrs. Fireoved formerly resided there. The lady has many friends in this vicinity who regret her departure but who nevertheless wish her happiness and contentment in her new home. She will be missed by many mothers and little babies in this community.

For a Greater Harney County COMMON SENSE and a savings account here.

Ninety per cent of financial worries are caused by the habit of walking on the edges of incomes; by failure to leave a margin between the income and the outgo.

Those who leave the creation of this margin to an increase of income will probably continue to have financial worries.

For putting by a surplus, you can't beat common sense and a savings account at 4 per cent interest—supervised by the United States Government.
