

WALLACE REID HAS SPLENDID ROLE IN "TOO MANY MILLIONS"

At First a Starving Book Agent Then Millionaire Who Has Many Adventures

Wallace Reid has the part to which he is best suited in his latest Paramount Picture, "Too Many Millions" which will be shown at the Liberty theatre next Wednesday. As Walsingham Van Dorn, he is first shown as a poor young man trying to make a living selling books. Then comes a bolt from the blue. Two wealthy exuberant uncles of his are suddenly killed in a motor accident and Walsingham finds himself the possessor of a cool forty millions of dollars by the terms of their will.

The cool forty millions, however, make things warm for Walsingham. In the first place a beautiful young woman, Miss Desiree Lane, shows up and tells him that two millions of the money belongs to her, that his uncles robbed her father of it and caused his death. The next thing to happen is the discovery that Van Dorn's confidential agent, Wilkins, has fled with the forty millions.

Taking the girl, Van Dorn goes in pursuit of him in a motor car. They stop for gasoline and while they are at a garage officers take the care away from them. He and Desiree go to a nearby inn for the night, and at dawn the inn catches fire and they barely escape with their lives. Then Van Dorn and Desiree marry and the bridegroom takes a job in the garage to pay for the gasoline.

They like the life so well that they live on in the little village quite happily for two years with no money except what Van Dorn earns. Then

COWBOYS GREET ELSIE FERGUSON: BANG! GO PISTOLS Star of "Heart of the Wilds" is Hostess at Barbecue in Wyoming

Elsie Ferguson, star of "Heart of the Wilds" her latest Aircraft vehicle which will be shown for the first time in this city at the Liberty theatre next Sunday, Aug 1, was hostess to two hundred or more cowboys at a barbecue given in their honor by Director Marshall Neilan, during the filming of that photoplay at Cody, Wyo., and vicinity recently.

The appearance of the famous star caused a sensation among the residents, and she was accorded a big popular ovation. Mr. Neilan gave a barbecue at which Miss Ferguson was hostess. Speeches were called for and Miss Ferguson made an address in which she exhorted her hearers to stand firm for world democracy. At velous stunts which impressed Miss Ferguson so favorably that she purchased "Prince" at a fancy price and shipped the pony to New York where the popular actress will exercise the animal during her leisure hours. Miss Ferguson is a daring and expert horsewoman with few equals in this country.

"Heart of the Wilds" affords Miss Ferguson a delightful role, that of a girl living on the Canadian border who has thrilling adventures. The picture is based upon Edgar Selwyn's play "Pierre of the Plains," Miss Ferguson is excellently supported, her leading man being Thomas Meighan.

Wise and Otherwise

Never ask a woman her age. It is unbecoming to invite her to tell a lie.

The civilized world of today and the donkeys within it are safely akin. Both are experts at progressing backward.

A few paltry dollars can cause untold misery, but not all of the wealth of the world can alone purchase one hour of unalloyed happiness.

Some people live to learn, others learn as they live, but a few neither live nor learn. Their ambition soars no higher than a mere existence.

Mrs. Elbina D. Binkley, of Reinholds Station, Pa., is eighty-nine years old and hoes potatoes in her garden. Can any one in this community beat that record? Speak up and let us publish the names. Such people deserve all of the honor and publicity we can give them.

It is encouraging to note that both political parties are taking a wallop at the cause of the high cost of living, but it would be more satisfactory to the goats if a few shots were taken at the men behind the cause. You can't scare a ravenous beast with a windy "hoo."
