

How To Live

Worry less and Work more
 Ride less and Walk more
 Frown less and Smile more
 Drink less and Breathe more
 Eat less and Chew more
 Preach less and Do more
 Spend less and Save more

The "Save" came last but that doesn't indicate it is the least important.

SAVING doesn't mean saving money alone.

We can and should save in many ways.

They are all worth while, but the Saving of Money is of great importance. It is the Visible Proof of our Ability to Save.

The man who Cannot Save is Beaten from the beginning.

Success is not in him.

WE can help YOU save by keeping your Savings in the bank and paying you interest thereon, at 4 per cent compounded twice each year.

Supt. A. R. Olsen of the P. L. S. Co. was a passenger out by way of Bend to Portland last Saturday evening.

Friends in this city have received a letter recently from Capt. A. W. Gowan stating he has recovered from his illness and that he and Mrs. Gowan will spend a few weeks in Walla Walla before returning home.

I. N. Hugbet was a business visitor Thursday from his home at Warm Springs. He reports his boys have just completed haying on the Potter Swamp place and will move to the home ranch for operation at once.

Miss Tillie Cheney is here from her San Francisco home on a visit with relatives and friends. She is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis this week. Miss Cheney reports her father, Pleas M. Cheney, is not enjoying good health this summer.

Mrs. Homer Reed and her daughter, Roselle, left Monday on the Bend stage for Salem and other points. They go to Salem to visit with Mrs. Reed's sister for a time. Homer expects to join them later when they will take in the sights in Portland and likely visit the seashore.

John and Allen Biggs and their wives arrived home Saturday night from Ontario where they had been to attend the wedding of Miss Rena Biggs to Clarence Wood. The bride is favorably remembered by many of the people of this city where she formerly resided with her mother and brother.

Link Hutton and wife and two daughters, Mrs. I. Foster and Tom Hutton were all in town Tuesday from their homes out at Wagonville. Miss Rotha Miller who accompanied them in remained in town for a short time to be near her physician. The young lady is enjoying much better health than she had for several months.

Ed. Egli was over from the ranch Wednesday looking after some business affairs and visiting with his mother and sisters. Ed reports he has a nice flock of antelope at his ranch. A few years ago there was but three but by carefully protecting the animals and looking after them the number has been increased to 16 at this time.

F. G. Kelly, the Catlow post master and U. S. Commissioner, was here Thursday for a short time on business. Mr. Kelly says his neighborhood is busy with crops and that Catlow valley is coming right along this season in the way of production. That community will have things to exhibit at the fair this fall and show to the outside world what it can do.

The Misses Campbell, two graduate nurses who are well known to many people in Burns where they have visited in the past, arrived here from Portland to spend a couple of weeks with friends in this vicinity during the warm weather. These young women are favorably known to many of the patients of Drs. Dickson, Coghlan & Davis, eye, ear, nose and throat specialists of Portland, as they have been associated with that firm for several years. The Misses Campbell are guests at the home of Mrs. William Hanley.

For a Greater Harney County BOYS

Every boy is a miniature business man. If he manages his little business affairs with credit to himself, he will be a good manager of big affairs later in life.

The best way in the world for a boy to become a good manager is to have a savings account, think twice before spending and keep the account growing.

This bank wants to be a "partner" in the affairs of every sturdy, sensible boy in Harney County by helping him to save.
