LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Frank King is ill at his home north of Burns suffering from an attack of spotted fever.

Eldon Johnson arrived this week from Seattle, Wash., and has gone to his Steins Mountain homestead to spend the summer.

J. W. McCulloch, of the law firm of Duncan & McCulloch, has been here from Ontario for the past week looking after legal business and consulting with Capt. Duncan.

Mrs. B. F. Smith has gone to Nampa, Idaho, to visit for a couple of weeks with her niece, Mrs. Grover Everett. She took the little daughters of Mrs. Asa Walkup with her. Dr. Smith is having to shift for himself during the absence of the family.

Tom Stephens is home for a short time. He has been down in Mexico and other parts following the races. Tom is now interested in a string of fine gallopers and says he has some world beaters. He has a partner in the string and the horses are now in the care of this man at Reno. They intend to ship four of the best horses east in the near future and race them over the big circuits in that part of the country. Tom confidentially expects to make a "cleanup" back there so the sporting pages will be watched with interest by his Burns friends during the time of the big races in New York and on the Atlantic coast.

Thos. Van Zandt was in from the Juniper ranch of the P. L. S. Co. during the week.

Charley Miller, P. L. S. Co. cattle foreman, was over from his headquarters in the Drewsey country Wednesday.

Rev. Wm. Baird, Presbyterian Sunday School Missionary, spent a day or two in this city during the week calling upon friends and advising with the local pastor, Rev. John H. Wicherson. Rev. Baird went from here to the southern part of this county visiting several places en route.

George Marsden and George Byram were here the first of the week on business in connection with the adjudication testimony in the water right of Silves River. This is the first trip Mr. Marsden has made to this vicinity for some time. He was agreeably surprised at some of the improvements. Mrs. George Marsden and little daughter, who had been visiting in this vicinity for several days previous, accompanied George home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Mattison were discovered on the Mrs. E. F. Schwartz lawn last Sunday morning upon the family rising. The visitors had arrived unexpectedly during the night in their car and having a bed and complete camp equipment with them, camped on the lawn. The Mattisons were on their way to the Atlantic coast, making the tour in their car. They expect to winter in Florida and return to Portland at their leisure next year.

Perk Nutter is over from his home in Diamond.

B. B. Clark was a business visitor to our city the other day.

Joe Morris was up from Narrows on a short business trip the other day.

Judge Wm. Farre left last Sunday for Portland to meet with the State Highway Commission in connection with the furthering of the highway between Lawen and Crane.

B. F. Steele, one of the prosperous ranchers of the Princeton section, was in town the other day. Frank says he had a good crop this season, the best for several years.

Joe Thompson, a member of the Burns Cash Store firm, left last Friday for Portland to take in buyers week. He will lay in a supply of goods during his trip and take in the sights.

Mrs. John Seethoff and daughter, Miss Marguerete, who had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Schmalz, took their departure for their home on the Deschutes Wednesday morning.

James McKee, who owns a valuable stock ranch in Diamond, was in town yesterday. He had just come over from Plush, in Lake county, on his way to Diamond to look after his business affairs there.

The family of Dr. W. C. Brown arrived home Tuesday evening from an extended visit with relatives and friends in the eastern part of this state and in Idaho. They report a delightful time. Lester Cawfield drove them over in their car.

O. L. James, father of Mrs. Joe Krumholz, arrived from his Southern California home the other day and is again installed as chief companion to the youngsters at the Krumholz home. Mr. James is happy in his new position.

The family of Roy Dwyer arrived here last Sunday from Southern California where they had been visiting for a time. They are domiciled in the brick adjoining Mr. Traugott's real estate office at present but expect to move to more convenient quarters.

Mrs. Henry Caldwell has been over from her Lake county home for the past several days visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity. She was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Brenton for a time and she has also visited at the home of her brother, Henry Jennings.

Charley Lutton was in town Thursday. He has recently installed a motion picture apparatus in his Ford and is preparing to give exhibitions in the neighboring towns. He was here to confer with the local producer in the hopes of lining up on service to the advantage of both.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cameron took their departure Tuesday morning for Eugene where they accompanied some relatives who had been visiting with them for a few weeks. The party expected to make the trip across the Cascades to their destination in one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oliver were over from their home on the John Day the fore part of this week, having come because of the hearing of additional testimony in the adjudication proceedings of the water of Silves River. While here the Oliviers were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cozad.

Judge Wm. Farre arrived home from Portland last night where he had been before the State Highway Commission on road matters. His success is shown in another column. Judge Farre says there were large delegations there from different counties and organizations but the Commission dealt with matters in a practical way, therefore numbers didn't count.

J. W. Buchanan was in town Thursday looking after some business affairs. He came in the day before with Rev. Wm. Baird and after attending to his business affairs had a little time to visit before returning in company with his neighbor, Lennie Vickers. Mr. Buchanan has had the best crops this year that he has harvested for several years. His second crop of Alfalfa will yield heavy, that is what the rabbits didn't get. The pests have taken a big lot of the second crop but he says they were not seen in his vicinity during the early part of the spring.

PLEASE RETURN—The party who borrowed the six-inch centrifugal pump from H. C. Levens is requested to return it to Mrs. Levens.

Ole Soderberg is in the city.

Allen Sitz was in town Wednesday.

Have you taken a "sky ride" yet?

Will Catterson was in town yesterday.

Fred Otley was among our visitors from Lawen during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sanders were registered at the Levens yesterday.

R. J. Williams was over from his Silver Creek home during the week.

M. H. Brenton has purchased the interests of the James Hicks estate in the partnership business of the firm.

Archie Weinstein of the Weinstein Mercantile Co. was up from Lawen Thursday.

Ranch Foreman Taylor of the P. L. S. Co. was in town yesterday consulting with Mr. Olsen.

J. E. Johnson was here yesterday. He left today for Prineville where he will visit for a few weeks.

Mrs. Anna Haines has been ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Leonard. She is improving at this time.

Edward F. Treadwell, the San Francisco attorney, was here during the week looking after the interest of clients in the water adjudication matters. He came up by auto and left immediately after the close of the testimony for his home.

Several of the young friends of Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman dropped in at the Holland home Thursday night and enjoyed an informal dance and a social good time, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Saurman. No candles appeared on the cake so her age was not disclosed.

There isn't enough excitement about being county judge in Harney county to tempt William Farre to seek votes for it. Judge Farre was recently appointed as county judge to fill the unexpired term of his predecessor, but the judge isn't making any effort to hold the place. For 14 years Judge Farre was in the land office at Burns. The judge was in Portland yesterday to see about having the highway commission let a contract for improving the road between Crane and Lawen. He got action, too—Oregonian.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL BACK FROM U. OF O.

Principal D. M. McDade of the Harney County High School arrived home Wednesday night from Eugene where he had spent the six weeks preceding in summer school preparing himself for his school tasks during the coming year. Mr. McDade returns full of encouragement and confidence of accomplishing good results during the coming school year. He will devote a portion of the time between now and the opening date of school on September 7, to consulting with students, preparing his school work, supervising further improvements on the building and grounds, etc.
