

OUR INTENTIONS WERE GOOD

We had in mind the writing of a rhetorical effusion this week on the virtues of our particular choice for this presidency.

But we didn't.

We were too engrossed in the delightful task of earning three meals a day to consume time on a subject more foreign to the demands of our stomach.

You were too busy accumulating huge stores of the coin of the realm to waste time in reading of something upon which your mind is already set.

But we sovereign citizens should not forget that there is to be an election. And there will be one, for at least the candidates will take time to vote.

You may vote, too, if you think of it, and have consumed a good dinner.

We shall, because it is necessary to go to the polls to see if there are any dog fights or other explosions, and if the judges and clerks keep awake.

Least you forget, we will gently remind you that the election will occur on the—say, when is that darned mill to be pulled off, anyway?

BACK TO FARM? NO!
"BACK TO KITCHEN"

Theme of New Paramount-Mack Bennett Comedy Strong.

We hear a lot about back to the farm but back to the kitchen might not be generally accepted as being so popular—however, it is the title of a new Paramount-Mack Bennett comedy which comes to the Liberty theatre on Wednesday next and as such it is sure to be extremely popular with those who love to be amused, whatever the motif.

Louise Fazenda, as the hired girl, is the foremost figure, while Billy Armstrong and Myrtle Lind, with a lot of the other famous funmakers of the Bennett galaxy are in the cast.

The trouble is the result of Louise having too many sweethearts. There is also a jealous husband and a burglar and a baby and everything else that can be thought of to add to the ludicrous situations and scenes.

Beauty and fun mixed in equal doses renders this one of the most laughable scorch comedies in a month of Sundays.

Fifty-ninth Annual Oregon State Fair, Salem, September 27 to October 2,—splendid agricultural, livestock, and industrial exhibits, a superb horseshow, excellent races, high class amusement,—greater and better than ever before.

Honesty wins its own reward, but often it falls of delivery.

If you would be one of the "elect" in the next world, first see that you are deserving of election in this one.

No, Elmer, the public highways were not made for your convenience alone. Generosity concedes an inch to the other fellow.

Captain Schroeder, holder of the world's altitude record, has been sent with the new speed plane, designed by Alfred Verville, to race in France Sept. 27 for the Gordon Bennett cup. The speed of the machine is held secret, but it is expected to make over 200 miles an hour.

D.W. GRIFFITH
Presents
The Girl Who Stayed At Home
An ARICRAFT Picture

GEN. E. H. CROWDER

Famous Provost Marshal in "The Girl Who Stayed at Home."

The faces of the world's celebrities are fast becoming familiar to the average newspaper reader and the playgoer. Many of them, however, are shy about this publicity attached to being in high position and many refuse to allow the weeklies the privilege of showing them at their real work.

With the production of "The Girl

Who Stayed at Home," which will be shown at the Liberty theatre tomorrow Mr. Griffith shows us some of our own celebrities in surroundings not familiar, either to the newspaper reader or to the playgoer. For instance, Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder, whose name is known at least to everyone who was in the draft age, will be seen in this picture at his own desk in his own office in Washington, a picture released to any news agency or paper, but posed for the Griffith camera that the correct detail might be given the film. Others to be shown are Secretary of War Baker and General March, both in their own offices at work.

While an enclosed car with permanent top, it has large windows, and may in a minute be changed to a most delightful open car with always a top protecting against the sun. In inclement weather it is a closed car, dust-proof, water-proof, cold-proof. Finely upholstered. Equipped with electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires all around. A real family car. Anybody can safely drive it. It has all the conveniences of an electric car with the economy which goes with Ford cars, low cost of purchase price, small cost of operation and maintenance. Won't you come in and look at it?
