LOCAL HAPPENINGS

W. T. Vanderveer was over from his home on Pine creek during the week.

Henry Dalton and John Gemberling left the other day for the mountains where they will camp and fish for a while and also hope to get a deer. They went up in the Myrtle Creek country.

Principal Sutton of the Burns public school requests that teachers and pupils of the district report at the school house from 9 to 10:30 only on Monday, Sept. 6, for enrollment and receive the list of books necessary for the school year.

Adam George was in town during the week.

E. H. Conser of the First National Bank has gone over to Lake county on a vacation trip and to look after some business affairs.

Ben Brown and Waldo Geer returned Wednesday from their outing trip to the Steins Mountain. They got plenty of fish but apparently were not successful for deer.

Mrs. E. F. Foren was over from Prineville for a short visit during the past week, looking after her property interests. Mrs. Foren stated to a representative of this paper that their places were not for sale as they contemplate returning here at some future time to again make their home. At present she finds it necessary to remain in Prineville with her aged mother.

REED BROTHERS

The Rexall Drug Store

A Venator is in the city on business.

H. Bang was a visitor to our city yesterday.

If your neighbor is full of faults let others tell them to you.

Born—Tuesday, Aug. 31, to Mr. and Mrs. August Bugman, at the Burns Maternity hospital, a son.

Born—Tuesday, Aug. 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bain, at the family home near Harney, a daughter.

Frank Welcome is confined to his home with an attack of rheumatism and a slight cold.

Vic G. Cozad is back from a short vacation visit over at Canyon and the Blue Mountain Springs. He is again on duty in the land office.

Mrs. Della Volmer took her departure Sunday morning for Vaughn, Washington, where she will visit for an indefinite time with her sister.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker took their departure the first of this week for Lakeview where they go to attend the Round-up. They expect to be home in time to begin school.

Miss Gene Schwartz took her departure yesterday morning for Portland where she will visit for a few weeks before going to Seattle where she will enter the State University for the coming school year.

There will be a meeting of those interested in the organization of a band at the Commercial Club rooms on Monday evening, Sept. 13, at 7:30 o'clock. Homer Reed will take an interest in the organization in the way of leading until such time as other arrangements can be made.

Mrs. C. V. Reed and the children left this morning for Portland where they will spend the winter, relatives having insisted they come down for the school year. Charles went back down to the hay ranch to finish stacking the hay and looks forward to a lonesome winter of batching.

Miss Francis Will, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Short, arrived from Portland one day this week to visit with them for an indefinite time. The young lady will be remembered by many of the younger girls and boys of this city as she was here for several months during her public school days and attended school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Davis are late arrivals in our city, coming from San Francisco to make their home in Burns. Mr. Davis at once assumed a position with the Farmers Exchange and he and Mrs. Davis have begun housekeeping in the Presbyterian manse, Rev. Wicherson retaining his rooms on the second floor only.

The new plate glass display windows for the front of the Burns Cash Store have arrived and are now in place. This makes a decided improvement in the place and will permit a greater display of goods. This modern establishment is adding new features for the benefit of the store and its customers that are appreciated.

M. M. Doan and wife and little son were up from the Doan ranch on Trout creek for a few days during the week. They started on their return yesterday afternoon as they desired to be at Fields tonight when the neighbors gather for a big dance and to meet several speakers in connection with the organization of a Farm Bureau.

Albert Swain of this office has been confined to his home for the week from a fever of some character. We are working short handed all the time but with this additional vacancy and considerable rush job work the shop is more or less "awamped." A good country printer is needed here about as bad as one could realize but none seen available at a salary that the business justifies.

Mrs. E. F. Schwartz has arranged with a wholesale house in Portland to have a representative at her store for next Tuesday and Wednesday with a display of ladies and misses wearing apparel consisting of coats, suits, dress silk and wool, waists, childrens coats and a complete line of skirts. —Adv.

Mrs. Millar is again at her place of business where she is prepared to furnish the trade with suitable millinery. She has a nice lot of things appropriate for the school children. —Adv.

New goods arriving frequently at Mrs. E. F. Schwartz.—Adv. 8-31

STOCK RANCHES WANTED

We will soon have a number of buyers for some first class stock ranches reasonably priced. Come in and list your property—Harney County Abstract Co.

James J. Donegan has returned from a business trip to Portland and Southern Oregon.

Born—Tuesday, August 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Price, at the Burns Maternity hospital, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams were over from their home on Calamity creek during the week, guests of relatives and friends.

Joe Lillard and a friend were over from the "Valley of the Moon" ranch during the week. Joe hurried back as he had more harvesting to do.

Dr. Buerki removed the appendix of little Evelyn Christensen on last Saturday afternoon. The patient is recovering nicely at the St. Joseph hospital.

Miss Agnes Stirling left yesterday for Portland after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stirling, at the Bell A ranch. Miss Stirling returns to resume her library work.

E. N. Mathews is preparing to leave for Prosser, Washington, where he is called because of the serious illness of a brother. The latter has not been well since being discharged from the service.

The Burns Chapter O. E. S. will resume regular meeting on Monday, September 13. All members are urged to be present on this evening. A program is being arranged and refreshments will be served.

Dr. J. W. Geary and family left Thursday morning for Portland driving through in their car. It is the intention to remain in the metropolis for the coming school year, at least the family will remain there but Dr. Geary may return to Burns.

Louise Lewis, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lewis, arrived home this week from Klamath where she had been visiting with relatives for a few weeks. The little lady made the return trip alone, coming by way of Bend where she visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sprague for a few days.

Miss Pearl Ellis is enrolled in a Household Arts course at the State Normal school at San Diego, California, according to a letter received at this office last week. The young lady is pleasantly located and enjoys the study she is engaged in but she wants to hear from her home people and asks The Times-Herald be sent to her.

The community spirit manifested at the Commercial Club luncheon yesterday is worthy of the town. Let's keep the good work up. Let's move along with our enthusiasm and show an interest in public affairs. The fair is going to be the success we all make it—just as was shown yesterday. If the entire bunch who were at lunch together yesterday turn out at the fair grounds Monday it will be a different looking place by that evening. Come on!
