LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Herman Ruh was in town the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter are in town today.

Dr. L. E. Standard is over from Huntington on a visit with friends in this city.

Dorsey E. Dent left this week by way of Bend for Salem where he will resume his studies in the Willamette University.

A. K. Richardson and Ira Davis came back from the mountains Sunday with two bucks. Their friends have been feasting since.

Paul Finke was down from his mountain home during the week.

Walter T. Clay, superintendent of schools of Grant county, was a visitor to our city yesterday.

Alex C. Rea, the expert accountant of Portland, was here for a time recently, leaving the fore part of this week for his home.

Dr. C. von Radesky arrived in town yesterday to again look after the needs of the Indians of this vicinity. He found most of them out hunting and picking huckleberries.

F. C. Petersen and little daughter have returned from Portland where they spent a portion of the vacation period because of the health of the daughter. She was in the hospital for several weeks and returns home greatly improved.

Dorman Leonard is visiting with friends out at Diamond.

Henry Trowbridge is in town from John Day.

A. A. Traugott made a trip to Prineville Thursday.

Geo. Buchanan and his son-in-law, Harold Johanson, were in from the Buchanan home during the week.

Miss Martha Hanley took her departure Wednesday for Portland for an indefinite stay.

R. H. Brown and wife were among those from a distance in town for a short visit during the week.

Fred Taylor has opened the barber shop formerly conducted by Ira Davis.

A. E. Brown and one of the boys were in for a short business visit the latter part of last week.

Frank Welome has recovered his health sufficiently to open his place of business, but still requires crutches.

J. W. Biggs took his departure yesterday morning for Vale where he was called on business. He expects to return today.

Mrs. J. G. Harvey has returned to her farm home from the hospital after an operation. She is slowly recovering her strength.

Mrs. P. E. Short, a sister to G. W. Clevenger, arrived here from her home at Payette Thursday evening. She was met at Crane by her niece, Mrs. Asal Walkup.

J. M. Dalton made a trip to Prineville this week to take his daughter, Mrs. Alma Davis, home after a short visit with relatives and friends in this city.

Charley Bardwell, a brother to W. G. of this city and Mrs. A. W. Hurlburt who resides near Harney Lake, is up from Portland on a visit with relatives. His mother is also at the Hurlburt home.

Platt Randall and his two boys, James Raycraft and his son and Allen Biggs arrived home late Saturday night from their camping trip to the Steins Mountain. They were successful in securing deer and the fishing was just the best ever. Jim Raycraft has the thanks of the manager for a nice piece of deer.

The Harney County National Bank is offering a special premium for the county fair. At the time the premium lists were printed Mr. Brown, the cashier of the bank, was absent. This week his attention was called to it and he immediately responded by offering a cash prize of $10 for the best female Holstein exhibited at the fair by an out of town owner.

Judge Wm. Farre, Com. Jap McKinnion and Road Master McGee made a tour of the southern part of the county the fore part of this week to look over the roads. They found another cloud burst caused much damage and the roads are in a bad shape. Judge Farre says immediate steps will be taken to put them in as good repair as possible before the winter weather sets in.

Geo. McClaren was in to see us Thursday afternoon. He and Harry Gouldin and the latter's two children, have just returned from a visit to Coos Bay where they visited Harry's mother. The trip was at the expense of William Hanley for whom both men have worked for years. In fact Mr. McClaren has been with Mr. Hanley for more than a quarter of a century. They had the experience of a steamer trip on the Pacific ocean from Portland to Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Blott had the pleasure of entertaining several relatives during the latter part of last week, the party leaving on Monday. They were N. H. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith, uncles and aunt of Mrs. Blott, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davidson, the latter being the daughter of Mr. Elliott. They came from Terrebonne, on the Deschutes, for a short vacation trip. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were out from the east on a tour and visit with relatives and were joined at Terrebonne for the trip to see Mrs. Blot here.

Mrs. Millar is again at her place of business where she is prepared to furnish the trade with suitable millinery. She has a nice lot of things appropriate for the school children. —Adv.

Ira Mahon was registered at a local hotel during the week.

Wm. Catterson was a business visitor the other day.

Capt. A. W. Gowan is opening offices in the Rounseville Building

Lloyd Johnson was among our visitors from the Lawen section during the week.

E. T. Haley was a business visitor from his ranch near Malheur lake on last Monday.

C. H. Leonard left Sunday on the Bend stage for Portland to be absent a week on business.

Earl Graham and Harry Z. Smith left yesterday for Steins Mountain where they hope to land a deer and some trout before returning.

Harold Cawfield is again at his place of business in the barber shop at the Burns hotel. He and Mrs. Cawfield spent several weeks on the ranch during the haying season.

Judge Grant Thompson was up from his Lawen place during the week. He first came up to meet with the executive committee of the State Cattle and Horse Growers Association and later he brought up a neighbor boy to see his physician. Mrs. Thompson has been in town with her daughters for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Hayes are in town today looking for a house for the school year. They had not intended coming to Burns for the winter as Bailey wanted to spend the winter months at some outside point, but after visiting Boise, Caldwell, Ontario and other places they decided to return and remain here for the winter. Miss Lulu Hayes expects to go to Monmouth for post graduate work during the coming year.

The partnership of the O. & W. Cash Market has recently been dissolved, Mr. Oltman buying the interests of Mrs. Lillian Withers and is now in full charge of the business. Perhaps this statement should be qualified, as Bill has done more. He and Miss Susie Lowe went to Portland last month and were married without saying a word about it to this paper, nor have they since their return—the information was secured second hand. Bill dissolved partnership with his sister but formed another which we hope will not be found necessary to dissolve.

Mrs. S. J. Mothershead arrived here the latter part of last week from her home at Edmunds, Wash., on a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Mothershead was formerly Ada Johnson and is a sister to Mrs. W. A. Goodman, Chas., Lloyd and Eldon Johnson. She is well known to many of the older residents of this vicinity who are enjoying her visit very much. She has gone out to Steins Mountain with Mr. and Mrs. Goodman in quest of the annual deer the latter two always manage to get. Stonewall Mothershead formerly lived here and is well remembered. It had been expected he would also come down on a visit but was detained. He is post master in his home town.
