LOCAL HAPPENINGS

C. A. Hawkins was over from his home at Diamond during the week on business.

Nick Voegtly was in town the other day renewing acquaintances and attending to some business matters.

A. R. Karr, son-in-law of P. S. Weittenhiller, is here from his home in Iowa. He is considering the proposition of moving to this part of the country and taking over the active management of the Weittenhiller land interests. The young man is a hustler and we hope he makes the move as we need such men to further the development of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown were over from their Diamond home during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown were in town for a few days during the week from their home over on the Malheur river near Venator.

Miss Ethel Turner arrived from her home near Andrews Tuesday evening with her mother, the latter being ill and coming here to consult a physician. The lady expects to remain in town for a couple of weeks or more under the care of her doctor who desires she remain near and under the attention of a nurse. Miss Ethel found a most hearty welcome from her many friends in this city upon her arrival. She has recently been employed in a bank at Nampa but came home because of the ill health of her mother.

THE MEAT WE SEND YOU will surely come up to your expectations. In fact if it is your first order the meat will prove a revelation to you in flavor, tenderness and juiciness. We don't ask you to take our word for it. Give us a trial order and you'll have the proof.

Cecil Irving is in town.

Thos. Hutton was in town Wednesday.

John Darsey was in town during the week on business.

Frank Clerf was registered at the Hotel Levens during the week.

Walter Sullivan is over from his headquarters in Boise looking after his customers in this city.

Mrs. Cassie Smyth was in town the fore part of the week accompanied by Prestley Smyth. They were here on business.

We may be able to do a little canning yet—sugar made another drop in price the other day. It is quoted at 15 cents a pound.

Archie McGowan has again assumed an active interest in the Burns Garage and will now be found as the manager. He is an old timer at the garage business and finds things coming along just as in former days—only faster.

Miss Sara Howell is again at her office in this city after making a special trip to Crane to aid a local doctor in some operations. While in Crane she inspected the school children. Miss Howell is devoting her time particularly to the schools at this time.

Miss Evelyn Byrd took her departure Wednesday morning by way of Crane. She went to Wallowa where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. L. F. Allen, for a short time before going on to Seattle where she will again enter the University of Washington for the coming school year.

Burt Oliver was making proof on his homestead Wednesday. Burt was one of the boys who went over seas to help tame the Hun and since receiving his discharge has spent a portion of the time in Washington and at outside points. He has been at the homestead for several months now, however.

O. L. James and wife, parents of Mrs. Joe Krumholz, left yesterday for their home at E. Center, California, after spending several weeks in this city the guest of their daughter. They will make the journey home by easy stages going out by way of Bend, visiting Crater Lake and other scenic points en route.

Mrs. Obil Shattuck has returned from Payette where she has been visiting her mother. The lady is recovering her strength rapidly after her recent operation. Mrs. Shattuck stated she had a good time and lots of fruit while out at her parents' home but she wanted to get back to her own home.

W. L. Lowe, the trapper who lives near Suxtex over on Silver creek, told the writer last Saturday night that he had secured 74 coyotes during that week—26 the day before. That certainly is getting coyotes at a rate that will exterminate them if we had a few more like him. Mr. Lowe makes up much of the fur he catches into robes, rugs, etc., which in addition to the bounty, makes him a good income.

Henry Hamilton, the old pioneer who is so widely known throughout this country, came in from Diamond the other day in company with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown and will likely remain in town for a short time—until after the fair, perhaps. Henry has abandoned the old mule he used to ride and makes the trips from place to place now in an automobile, but he doesn't really enjoy these rides as he did the back of his favorite mule.

D. W. Ritchie, the irrigation assistant who was with Supt. Shattuck at the Experiment Station for the season, left Monday morning for Corvallis. Mr. Ritchie has completed his course at the O. A. C. but may return to school for post graduate work during the coming school year, although he had not decided upon that course when he left here. Mr. Ritchie is an excellent young man and proved a good worker at the Station, giving conscientious service while there.

Misses Jean Cook and Annette Leonard, Jo Cook and Taylor Huston expect to leave next Monday by way of Bend en route to Seattle where they will enter the University of Washington for the coming school year. Miss Cook will enter the senior class having been at the university for the past three years. Miss Leonard will also enter her senior year, although up to this year she has been a student of the U. of O. The party will be joined in Portland by Miss Jean Schwartz who goes to the Washington school as a freshman the same as Jo and Taylor. Evelyn Byrd will also join the party at Portland and goes back to Washington for her junior year.

Born—Friday, Sept. 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Clemens, a daughter.

D. H. Smyth and his son Rye were in town Sunday from their home in the Happy Valley country.

J. O. Butler was over from Catlow on some land business during the week.

Miss Helen King took her departure yesterday morning for Corvallis where she will enter the O. A. C. taking a pharmacy course.

Dr. B. F. Smith has gone to the mountains for an outing and hunt. During his absence Dr. C. C. Griffith will be found at his office during afternoons.

Oscar Downs is in from his Catlow Valley farm. He came over to buy a Ford. The last time we visited Oscar he intimated he needed a cook. Wonder if the Ford goes with a cook.

R. A. Smith and wife went to Bend one day this week to which point they took his mother who is returning home after a visit of several weeks with his family and friends in this section.

Dr. H. Denman was up from Crane for a day or two during this week, having brought Miss Howell, the community nurse up after she had made an inspection of the schools of Crane and assisted Dr. Denman in some tonsil operations.

Hugh Tudor, one of the sheep men of the Alberson territory, was a business visitor to our city during the first part of this week. Mr. Tudor recently took a train load of sheep to the Chicago market and although he didn't get a big price, he said it wasn't so bad.

W. B. Parker and his son Ross were in town Wednesday looking after some business affairs. Miss Lydia Tyler came in with them, she having gone over with the Parkers a short time ago to Paisley on a visit. Miss Tyler has taken up her studies in the high school.

Mrs. Ruth McHarge is over from her home in Barron Valley on a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. McHarge is a sister to Mrs. W. A. Goodman, Chas. Lloyd and Eldon Johnson. She is over to join with the family while the other sister, Mrs. Stonewall Mothershead, is here from her home up in Washington.

Telegraphic advice Thursday from Portland announced that Mrs. Eugenia Rembold was seriously ill. Further information from the same source yesterday stated she was not improved. Her sister, Mrs. Platt Randall, left for her bedside last night, making the trip to Bond by auto in order to catch the morning train for Portland.

FARM BUREAU'S TO FEDERATE

The county farm bureaus of Oregon will federate into a state bureau if the recommendations of the farm bureau officials who recently met in conventions are followed, says Paul V. Maris, extension director. A committee of three members was appointed for western Oregon and three for eastern Oregon to prepare plans and submit them to a general convention to be held later. George A. Mansfield, president of the Jackson county bureau, P. O. Powell, president of the Polk county bureau, and O. R. Dougherty, president of the Clackamas county bureau, are the committee for western Oregon. J. H. Dobbin, president of the Wallowa county bureau, Albert Hunter, president of the Union county bureau and W. W. Harrah, member of the executive committee of the Umatilla county bureau, are the committee for eastern Oregon.

Joy reigns in the heart of the American housewife.

She is mightily pleased—even tickled—and all because of sugar.

Every day she reads in the daily papers of how the falling sugar market is squeezing the profiteering gamblers who loaded up on that staple and have been withholding it from the market in order to compel her to pay exorbitant prices and clean up fortunes for themselves in a few months time.

She reads that many of these gambling boarders have lost large sums of money through the slump in price, others are in financial distress, and some are on the verge of ruin.

Their frantic wails are as sweet to her ears as is the taste of honey to a hungry bear.

And she smiles.
Joy be with you, sister. Laugh on, and laugh heartily.
We laugh with you.
