HERE'S A HOW D'YE DO! GIRL IS KIDNAPED AND WEDDED TO A HERMIT!

Billie Burke is Heroine of New Photoplay, "Good Gracious, Annabelle!"

When a sixteen year old girl is kidnaped by a man she neither knows nor cares for and is forced to marry him and thereafter leaves her husband without even knowing his name, it is to be expected that interesting developments will occur. This is amply proved by the story of "Good Gracious, Annabelle!" in which Billie Burke, the dainty Paramount star, will appear at the Liberty theatre Sunday, October 3.

This picture story is one of the best in which Miss Burke has been seen since her entrance into the silent drama. It is a picturization of the eminently successful play written by Clare Kummer, a young playwright of New York and it was produced at the Republic Theatre, New York City, October 31, 1917, with gratifying results, to the author and theatre management.

The story has a Western atmosphere which later changes to the East, whither Annabelle Leigh, the heroine, goes and subsequently after a lapse of seven years is followed by her husband, a hermit miner who has become enormously wealthy, with the result that they meet in peculiar circumstances. When their relationship is established, they find happiness in their mutual love.

The picture was directed by George Melford, and many notable players appear in the cast, the leading man being Herbert Rawlinson. Other players in Miss Burke's support are Gilbert Douglas, Craufurd Kent, Frank Losee, Belle Duncan, Olga Downs and Billie Weston, all players of ability and reputation.

Wise and Otherwise

The old practice of going about with a chip on one's shoulder has about died out. Too much danger of profiteers getting the chips.

A beautiful woman never has to angle for admiration, but a good one often fails to command respect.

Don't slip through life at too strenuous a pace. You may slip a cog and slip out at the same speed.

It is not always wise to judge a stranger to be a fool because he acts like one. He may be leading you on in order to sting you in the end.

A wise man never speaks of his wisdom, but the fool seldom fails to advertise his own folly.

Try a test that seldom fails. Run over your list of acquaintances and you will find that those who are liked by cats and dogs invariably have many friends.

An exchange avers that "jazz music is dying out." But why call it music?
