

'READ 'EM AND WEEP'

Theatre News.

(Continued from page two) could have stolen the money? "Surely not 'Fatty'." "But how could he have bought such a costly ring for the widow's daughter on such a meager salary?" The village tongues begin to wag and the finger of mistrust is pointed at "Fatty." But the widow will not believe it, though the constable is insistent; nor will the postmaster, who, having seen "Fatty's" letter, wires the mail order company for full particulars.

"Fatty," however, ignorant of it all, is as playful as a porpoise and the night of the ball he is the life of the party. His mail order suit causes no end of envious comment. Still, in the eyes of the village gossips, it is only further proof of his sudden prosperity and adds another wallop to the solar plexus of his innocence. But the fiddler fiddles and the dance goes on, only to be interrupted by the concert, where local talent shines and "Fatty" fairly scintillates.

But the constable kicks a hole in "Fatty's" hopes by openly accusing him of the theft and it is not until the clerk gains sufficient courage to "squeal" on the constable and return the widow's money that "Fatty" is set right in the eyes of his sweetheart and the community—thus furnishing a happy ending to two reels of furious fun.

In "The Hayseed," Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, ably assisted by his famous canine friend "Luke," has made "Slapstick" an art!

See it at the Liberty next Wednesday Night.

BOBBY'S LAST LAUGH

None of the baseball experts could "see" Bobby Wilbert, the Brooklyn Dodgers as National League pennant winners the season opened last April. The Dodgers are out in front, breezing along toward their pennant—the other being about the same unexpected 1916.

Things are beginning to look just a little shaky for us rich bloods. But we'll let the clerks and the messengers do the worrying.

Now that they have attained the eminence of political sovereignty will the ladies remove their hats in the presence of gentlemen?

FACE COURT IN BASEBALL'S BIGGEST SCANDAL

The greatest scandal of the baseball world has been partly uncovered in the confession of a number of the champion Chicago White Sox, eight of whom are indicted charged with accepting bribes to "throw" games in the 1919 world series with Cincinnati. "Chick" Gandil, who was formerly with the team, is named as the chief flier, Joe Jackson (left) and Ed Cicotte (right), the first two to have confessed. Claude Williams, "Buck" Weaver, "Hap" Felsch, Charles Rarberg and Fred McMullin are the other five so far named.

'Tis said that an amicable settlement of the Irish question is a possibility of the future. Quite future, we presume.

HESSIAN FLY HITS WHEAT

A Hessian fly invasion is reported by George Kable, agricultural agent of Benton county. "Plow deep and early and plant late," is given as the only known control. If present the fly can be found by pulling up the stubble and stripping down the leaves to the roots, where it may be seen as a little brown cocoon that looks like a flax seed.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan with electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires all around, is the ideal family car because of its all-around utility, and refined and comfortable equipment. Finely upholstered. Plate glass windows. An open car in the spring, summer, and early fall. A closed car in inclement weather and winter. For theatre parties, for social visiting, for touring, and for taking the children to school, it is just what you want. The low cost of operation and maintenance is not the least of its charms. A regular Ford car, simple in design, strong in construction, and durable in service. Won't you come in and look it over? The comforts of an electric car with the economy of the Ford.

A Tip to the Men Folk

How would you like golden brown pancakes or puffy waffles every morning? Then try bringing home a package OLYMPIC Pancake Flour. Suggest it be mixed with equal parts water or milk and put on the griddle. You'll be surprised—so will every one else. Takes but a jiffy to make a royal batch of pancakes.

Once the Pancake Flour gets in your pantry it makes way for OLYMPIC Flour and OLYMPIC Wheat Hearts, too.

The OLYMPIC line also includes the following scientifically prepared stock and poultry feeds:
