

Dramatic Element Predominates in Delightful Program of McAllister Trio

Kathleen and DeRoss McAllister, With Miss Jordan Assisting, to Be Heard Here in High-Class Entertainment.

Kathleen McAllister and De Ross McAllister, assisted by Miss Irma Jordan, cellist and accompanist, present one of the most popular and artistic programs in lyciums. It is a program in which the dramatic element predominates. Operatic arias in costume are artistically presented. Vocal, piano and cello numbers together with high class dramatic readings also are featured in this unusual entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. McAllister are well known residents of Boston. They have beautiful voices and show splendid musical foundation.

A reader wants to know if we can give a correct definition of the modern girl. We can, but we don't.

Never squeal when you get stung in a horse trade. It only advertises the horse sense you do not possess.

No, sister, the rocky road to matrimony is not rocky—if he has plenty of "rocks."

When people laugh at what you say, it is a joke. But when they laugh at you, you are the joke.

Wise and Otherwise

A dealer in Bloomington, Ill., was so worried over his inability to secure coal for his customers that he committed suicide. That, however, may not be so bad. It saves him the annoyance of freezing to death later on.

Our sincere regrets to dear old Mexico. We plumb forgot to chronicle the fact that General Obregon was duly and properly elected president a few weeks ago and is still above ground.

No, Algernon, it is not necessary to apologize for wearing your starw hat into the closed season. It was inconsiderate of the season to close.

We suspect that some of our brother editors are sizing up the future possibilities of running for public office. They are saying some mighty nice things about the ladies.

An Illinois vegetable peddler dropped dead when a housewife asked the price of lima beans. Apparently well versed in the correct thing to do.

The women voted in large numbers, thank you—an some of our distinguished politicians can mournfully testify in the midst of their extinction.

Shalor Eldridge, of Portland, a member of the Independence Creamery Co. has been in this city for a few days. Mr. Eldridge is here looking over the field as to the future of business along his line. The young man is a friend of C. E. Dillman.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cleveland were over from their home on Calamity creek yesterday looking after some business affairs and visiting with relatives and friends. Their occasional visits to this part of the country are greatly enjoyed by their many friends.

Will Fiser, U. of O. athlete and former football player, of Crane, has been secured to referee the football games between the Harney county high school and the Grant county teams. The first game is to be played on next Saturday and another the following Saturday.

Joaquin Berdugo and wife and A. E. Smith were in from the Callow valley country yesterday on business before the land office. Mr. Smith is the merchant and post master at Blitzen and reports business quite brisk at that point. "Chino" has sold a few mules lately and says he has more to dispose of when a buyer comes along with the right price. "Chino" used to be foreman for Peter French at the P Ranch and is well known to the stock men of the entire country.

J. W. Biggs has gone to Portland on a hurried business errand. He is expected home this evening.

Have your watch overhauled. Start the old clock to ticking, get that old piece of jewelry in wearing order. Have your eyes fitted to Reading glasses, see C. M. SALISBURY Jeweler, optician.

THE MEAT WE SEND YOU will surely come up to your expectations. In fact if it is your first order the meat will prove a revelation to you in flavor, tenderness and juiciness. We don't ask you to take our word for it. Give us a trial order and you'll have the proof.
