

A SCRAP OF PAPER.

A treaty may sometimes be considered only a scrap of paper, but a bank check is something more than that. Even after it is a receipt that can't be dodged.

A bank check is better than the cash because if lost a new check may be issued.

If money is lost it is gone for good.

A checking account is the modern way of doing business, the best, safest, most convenient way or something better would have taken its place.

We invite you to open an account at our Bank, where every courtesy will be extended to you.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Phil Smith, Jack Scarf, Lee Thornburg and others of the saw mill crew were down Tuesday to vote.

James Street was in town for a few days this week to consult with his physician, he having an attack of rheumatism.

Chapo Bermudez was in this week making proof on his land.

Frank Dibble and Buck Bauer were over from Silver creek for a few days during this week.

Joe Lillard came over with Jeff Cawfield from Calamity following the election. Jeff said he did the best he could for Cox, as his precinct went for him.

Mrs. Frances Clark states that she did not receive all the books from the state library that should have come and for that reason some of the schools have not received their quota.

Joe and Geo. Buchanan were in town the day following election. Mrs. Buchanan was with them. The boys didn't get their man for president but said they had the rabbit bounty to help them out during the coming administration.

Miss Harriett Hill has accepted a position with the Universal Garage Co.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Suffield evangelists, arrived in Burns Thursday to take charge of a series of Revival meetings in the Nazarene church. The series begin Friday night the 5th and continue over Sunday the 21st.

W. C. Cecil was in from Silver Creek the other day to condole with his friends on the election results.

Mrs. Fred Otley Jr. and two of her children were up from Lawen for a few days during the week while she was having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown were in town for a few days this week. Elsie was pleased with the election returns and was joking the poor newspaper man who lost his man, but this big prosperity business can't be one sided, so if others prosper the newspaper man is going to get a little of it.

Frank Williamson was in from the southern part of the county for a few days during the week, leaving yesterday for outside points where he will likely spend the winter. He goes first to Heppner where he has a sister residing and will later go to Portland. Mr. Williamson has disposed of his interests in this county but still makes it his home. He formerly engaged in the sheep business with Bill Jones.

E. Stone a resident of the Andrews section, was among our out of town visitors during the week.

M. M. Doan, one of the pioneer stockmen of the Trout Creek valley near Fields, is in the city on business.

Mrs. R. H. Blaire, accompanied by her sister-in-law and another lady friend, was up from the Andrews country during the week on business.

The fine long flag pole for the high school was brought down by Frank Bennett recently and is being prepared to be raised and placed in position.

Lester Long came up from Portland the other day to make proof on his land. He has been working on the street car line ever since he went to Portland a year ago last May.

Miss Ethel Thompson was up from Crane yesterday having driven up to bring her uncle, Will Gray, who was here on land business. Mr. Gray now resides in Idaho.

Capt. Robt. M. Duncan has been enjoying a visit from his father for the past several weeks. Mr. Duncan Sr. will leave tomorrow for his home in Marion county.

No more South American beef now. Stanfield will attend to that—we'll get mutton. Of course wool will double at once and suits will be cut in half—so will wages, perhaps, else how can it be done?

W. B. Johnson is over from his Silver creek home today. He states that Mrs. Johnson's health is not good and they may find it necessary to go to Southern California for the winter on that account.

W. B. Howard has purchased the Harney Valley Lumber Co. lumber yard in this city and will conduct it in future. Mr. Purlington found he had considerable to take care of and didn't want to bother with the yard so disposed of it to Mr. Howard.

Frank Matney had the misfortune to fall from a hay stack the other day and break some ribs and also injure his kidneys in such a manner as it has laid him up for a time. He is not seriously hurt but it is very painful.

Wm. Strode and wife and little daughter were in town yesterday for a short visit. They were accompanied in by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smyth. Will Byram, the Shorthorn breeder of Canyon Creek, was in town yesterday looking after some business affairs.

L. N. Stallard, newly elected county commissioner, was over from his home on Otis Creek Wednesday sitting with the court, as he had been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of R. L. Hass. Mr. Stallard served as commissioner for one term and is familiar with the duties of the office. Mr. Stallard had no opposition for the office at the election, getting the unanimous vote for the entire county.

W. Duhaime was the victim of a runaway Wednesday in which he broke his wrist. He was starting to the mountains with a four-horse team when he met a boy on a bicycle which frightened his leaders and they turned in the road and started to run. One line was broken when he tried to keep them straight and Mr. Duhaime was thrown out with the result of a fracture. He came to Burns and his physician fixed him up but he is not going to be able to haul any wood for a while.

The Times-Herald regrets to learn that Mrs. Kudlata, a highly respected old lady formerly residing in Catlow, but who has been making her home at the Summit hotel for some time, is seriously ill. Her son, Frank, arrived here recently from Idaho and yesterday her daughter, Mrs. Johnson, arrived from Sand Point, Idaho, to be with her.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Drinkwater were in town for a few days during the week. Mr. Drinkwater is not enjoying very good health and was here to consult a physician. He is one of the old pioneers of this county and his many friends hope he will get relief as he has had many afflictions during his life and should be relieved of further suffering in his declining days. The Drinkwaters came up by way of Harney where they stopped for a short visit with friends. They had dinner one day with Mrs. M. E. Bower and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bunyard were also guests at the same time. In discussing ages it was found Mr. Drinkwater was 75, Mrs. Bower was 76 and Mr. Bunyard 77.

MISS ANNA HENDRICKSON

BRIDE OF WESTERN MAN

A wedding which will be received with much surprise in Marcus was solemnized last evening when Miss Anna Hendrickson became the bride of Mr. Frank L. Clark of Alberson, Oregon. The interesting event took place in the First Methodist Episcopal church in Cherokee, Wednesday evening, October 27, and the marriage service was read by Rev. George R. Gilbert of Aurella. The bride was customed in a traveling suit of midnight blue Trice Pina with hat and gloves to match which was worn with a set of beaver furs, the gift of the groom.

A wedding dinner was served at the Lewis hotel at seven o'clock and the decorations and menu were in pink and white. The color scheme was attractively carried out in pink and white roses and amilies and place cards. Covers were laid for eighteen guests.

The bride and groom met last Thanksgiving when the bride spent the winter on the coast. While Mr. Clark is not known in Marcus, he is reputed to have many good qualities and is an industrious and prosperous young man who owns a tract of land near Alberson, Oregon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clark the former being superintendent of a large ranching company of that vicinity. The bride has lived nearly all her life in Marcus and is one of our finest ladies, and the groom is to be congratulated upon winning her for a life companion.

The couple left on a short honeymoon trip in an automobile and after November 1 they will be at home to their many friends in Marcus, Iowa, and if the groom likes Iowa as well as his bride they will engage in farming here.

The Marcus News extends every good wish to Mr. and Mrs. Clark.—Marcus (Iowa) News.
