

JUST PLAIN FOLRS.

There is no cause for any of us to become stiff-necked and haughty.

We are all just plain, common folks traveling along together, animated by the same hopes, desires and ambitions.

The grocer isn't necessarily fat simply because he has so many things to eat on sale, he may owe for the stock he is selling. The butcher may get along on soup bones in order to sell the choice steaks to the other fellow.

The banker isn't necessarily rich because he handles money—mostly other people's money.

We are all doing the best we can.

The small depositor is treated as fairly as the big financier at our Bank.

Kindness, courtesy, sympathy, fairness service, these are the things that count among sensible people everywhere.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Will Fiser was the guest of friends in this city yesterday.

I. M. Davis was a visitor from the Drewsey section during the week.

Dewey Robinson was among our visitors from Crane on Armistice Day.

M. W. Bullard was over from Crane the fore part of this week on business.

Glen and Harry Brown were among the out of town boys here to take part in the American Legion festivities of Armistice Day.

Robt. Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lowe, arrived home Sunday evening on a furlough. Robert is still in the navy where he volunteered at the time the United States entered the war. The young man will remain here but a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Potter arrived home the fore part of this week. They have been in California and after a short stay in this vicinity looking after some business affairs and visiting with home folks, they will likely again go to a lower altitude because of the health of Mr. Potter.

J. E. Sizemore was in town for a short visit during the week.

Virgil Shields was over from his Silver creek home to attend the American Legion exercises and dance on Armistice Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McGowan of the Burns Garage made a business trip to Diamond during the week and returned via Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark came in late Thursday evening from their home at Andrews. They came in primarily to have some dental work done but also to take part in the Armistice Day exercises and festivities, but they were too late for the program in the afternoon and the banquet. They did attend the dance, however, and spent a portion of yesterday visiting with friends in this city before returning home. They came in with Hugh Tudor.

Dr. R. C. Buerki has interested himself in seeing what can be done toward an ice skating rink for the winter. He has gotten permission from the owners of the vacant lots to the north of the Levens Building and is arranging to have it leveled and scraped for the purpose of pumping water on to form the ice. Several have contributed toward this movement and the Doctor says he will have a surveyor make the necessary calculations and get men busy at once.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred W. Sufield are conducting a series of revival meetings in the Church of the Nazarene in Burns. Though this is their first trip to Burns, they are well known in the western part of Oregon as well as in Idaho, California and Washington. They have been successful evangelists in the eastern states and in Scotland. Mr. Sufield's preaching is clear, forceful, convincing and interesting. Mrs. Sufield was trained for a concert player and singer but since she was saved has consecrated her talent, both as a composer and as a musician to the service of the Lord. The congregations at the church have been increasing since the meetings began on the fifth and it is expected that they will continue to increase, and the meeting will develop in power and blessing to a great climax on the 21st.

Grover Gould arrived home a short time ago and this week his wife arrived.

J. T. Garrett and family contemplate leaving the first of the coming week for San Diego, California, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. G. Merrigoli was in from her home in Catlow Valley for a couple of days this week. In addition to her farm and stock Mrs. Merrigoli is doing some trapping in her neighborhood and is quite successful. She brought in several coyote pelts and will dispose of the furs.

Miss Gladys McKinnon, formerly of this city, the daughter of Robt. J. McKinnon, Jr. was married at San Jose, California, on October 30 to Herbert Hoque. Gladys formerly worked on the local switchboard of the Telephone company in this city and is favorably remembered by many of our citizens and the younger people.

George Minor is the latest acquisition to this shop. He arrived from Seattle on last Monday evening and at once took up his work in the composing department of The Times-Herald and has been kept quite busy since. The young man is of a retiring disposition, but we find him a "good scut" and invite the young people of Burns to call and meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Scott and their little daughter were here from their California home for a short visit during the week. Mrs. Scott was formerly Miss Lena Harkey, one of the successful teachers of this section and also the owner of some valuable farm land in this vicinity. They visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Harkey in this city and had the pleasure of meeting many old time friends.

The books accounts and notes of J. W. Geary, M. D. are in the office of the undersigned for collection. All those knowing themselves indebted to the Doctor are requested to call and settle, as I shall not send out statements but bring suit in such cases where I consider it proper to do so.
