

JUST PLAIN FOLKS.

There is no cause for any of us to become stiff-necked and haughty.

We are all just plain, common folks traveling along together, animated by the same hopes, desires and ambitions.

The grocer isn't necessarily fat simply because he has so many things to eat on sale, he may owe for the stock he is selling. The butcher may get along on soup bones in order to sell the choice steaks to the other fellow.

The banker isn't necessarily rich because he handles money—mostly other people's money.

We are all doing the best we can.

The small depositor is treated as fairly as the big financier at our Bank.

Kindness, courtesy, sympathy, fairness service, these are the things that count among sensible people everywhere.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Dorothy Leonard has been sick during the past week.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. V. Cawfield, Nov. 10, a son.

I. Weinstein was in town yesterday on business.

C. H. Voegtly is reported very ill at his home suffering from pneumonia.

H. Hotchkiss, who has been in ill health for several weeks, is reported not so well at this time.

Oscar Downs and Tom Nelson were in from their homes at the head of Clallam Valley the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Davies were in from their ranch home during the week visiting with friends and looking after some business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hutton were in from their ranch home during the week, renewing acquaintances and looking after some business affairs.

Rev. Father O'Connor is here looking after the church affairs of Rev. Father Frances during the latter's absence.

P. G. Smith was down from the saw mill for a few days during the week.

A. A. Traugott and family arrived home Wednesday evening. Mrs. Traugott and the boys had been visiting in San Francisco for some time and Mr. Traugott went down while out on some business matters and accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Marsden and their little daughter were down from the Bear Valley ranch for a short visit during the week. They were guests of friends in this city for a couple of days.

E. H. Conser of the First National Bank and Jake Welcome made a hurried trip to Lake county the fore part of this week returning home Monday. They experienced some rain and mud but made the trip without incident.

Fred Otley was in town yesterday. He and Mrs. Otley recently returned from Portland where they had been for several weeks to consult with a specialist in regard to Mrs. Otley's health. We are pleased to report that the lady returns in much better health.

A large number of cattle were sold by Harney county growers recently and were delivered at Lakeview the first of this week. The prices were not what they should be but the best that had been offered. We understand local buyers are making propositions that are somewhat attractive at this time.

Miss Helen Anderson, one of the high school instructors, took her departure yesterday morning for Portland where she was called hurriedly on some important business matters. She will return to her work next week.

Earl Graham of the Reed Brothers Drug Store, took his departure the other day for Portland where he goes for a short visit and for the purpose of attending the big football game at Corvallis today between O. A. C. and Oregon.

BIG LOT OF MOISTURE FALLS

Two and .18 inches of rain has fallen at this place during the seven days ending last night. This is the record at the court house according to Jay Gould who takes care of the weather in this part of the country. It isn't often Mr. Gould deals out the kind of weather most suited—and even this week, which was very welcome, was not entirely satisfactory to everybody—but most of the people were pleased. Sunshine today for a change.

Senator George E. Chamberlain is mentioned as a possibility for Secretary of War in President-elect Harding's cabinet, according to the Oregon Journal. Senator Chamberlain has been chairman of the Military Affairs committee of the senate for a number of years, and is peculiarly fitted for the position. Harding would follow the precedents of other republican presidents in naming a democrat on his cabinet, and he and Chamberlain are known to be close personal friends. It is understood that strong republican friends of Chamberlain will urge upon Mr. Harding his selection.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends who were so considerate during the trying time through which we have just passed.

Every normal young man has a desire for matrimony, but only a few have the ability to start married life with the flourish demanded by the average American girl of today. Bachelorhood and spinsterhood is the natural result.
