Mrs. W. E. Huston's brother was over from his home in Malheur county during the week looking after some stray mules of which he got track through the classified columns of this paper—it pays to advertise.

The owner of the green silk parasol which was recently left in the Liberty, has called at this office and recovered her property, but the black velvet neck piece is still here to which was added this week a purse belonging to some girl, evidently, with some change in it. No name or anything from which to identify the purse was found with it. The owner should call and get the article.

Judge Grant Thompson was in town during the week looking after some business affairs.

Presley Smyth was over from his home at Diamond during the week on business.

FOREMAN TELLS ABOUT TROUBLE

Says Taulac Was a Blessing to Both Himself and Wife—Rheumatism Now Gone.

"Taulac has proved a blessing to both my wife and myself," said A. J. Davis, of 3109 South Nineteenth street, Tacoma, Wash., foreman for the Puget Sound Electric Co.

"For four years I had suffered from indigestion and also had rheumatism in my shoulders and ankles. My appetite was very poor and no matter what I ate I was sure to suffer from it. After every meal my food began to sour and ferment almost at once. I had a disagreeable burning feeling in my stomach, would blast up with gas until I could hardly breathe and have a peculiar pressing sensation around my heart.

"I often had severe headaches and at times became so dizzy I had to catch hold of something to steady myself. I had lots of trouble getting around and was never free from pain on account of the rheumatism. My kidneys worried me a great deal and I suffered from intense pain in the middle of my back nearly all of the time.

"My nerves were in such bad shape I could not sleep well and would lie awake the greater part of every night. I lost weight and felt tired and worn out all the time.

"Since taking Taulac I have a fine appetite, eat anything I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. The rheumatism has left me entirely. I never have a headache or get dizzy any more and my nerves are in such good condition I always get a good night's sleep. I have also gained several pounds in weight, and that tired, worn out feeling is all gone.

"My wife also was in a badly run-down condition, had no appetite and was extremely nervous. She began taking Taulac, too, and today the improvement in her condition is simply wonderful. Her appetite has returned, she has regained her lost strength, and her nerves are in
