

Of all the Holidays of the year, Christmas is the best.

It is a day of good cheer that touches the hearts of all, from the little tot hanging up the stocking on up to Grandfather and Grandmother.

It is due to the Christ spirit of "Peace on Earth good will to men," the unselfish desire to make others happy that on this one day at least there is a tug at the heart-strings of all humanity from the humblest to the highest.

It is in this spirit of peace and good will that this Bank wishes one and all a Merry, Merry Christmas.

First National Bank
BURNS, OREGON

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

J. H. Henderson was in town Wednesday.

E. L. Wallace of the Crane State Bank, was registered at a local hotel during the week.

Russell Ferguson took his departure for Portland Wednesday morning where he will spend the holidays.

Field is over from his farm near Van to spend the holidays with his family in Burns.

Walter Cross is down from his Trout Creek ranch to spend the holidays with the family here in town.

Mrs. John Gemberling arrived home last Saturday evening from Ontario where she had been visiting with her daughter.

Mrs. Mildred McCormack was in town during the week visiting with friends and doing some Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Roy Buchanan has been in this vicinity during the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Matney, and other relatives. She and her husband are now residing in Juntura.

County Agent McDaniel returned Tuesday night from Pendleton where he had been to a meeting of wool growers and also looking after the possibilities of stock for the sheep and pig club he has under consideration. He found stock offered cheap, but money is so scarce these days that he hesitates pushing the club organization. He will not do anything until he has a conference with parties interested.

We have experienced some rather cold weather twice during the month. Stockmen prefer cold freezing weather as stock do better in the feed lots.

Mr. and Mrs. Nils Elfving are here from Portland to spend the holidays with relatives and friends. Mrs. Elfving was formerly Miss Carmen Donegan.

Peter Haley was up from his home on the border of Malheur lake during this week looking after some business interests and greeting friends.

Miss Isola Ausmus was operated on the fore part of this week by Dr. Smith at the King hospital, having her tonsils removed. The patient is reported recovering nicely.

The snow continues to pile up from time to time. There isn't very much in the valley compared with the depth it has fallen, but more than for several years. Considerable has fallen in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Welcome are enjoying the company of their nephew, Alfred Welcome, who arrived home Saturday evening from Portland to spend the holiday vacation with them. He will return to school following the New Year.

Will Kirby, one of the young men of this community who works with stock, met with a serious and painful accident the fore part of this week when he got his hand caught in a rope and had it broken in two places and the thumb almost torn off.

Sam Goodman got his leg broke last week while working with stock, a horse falling with him. He was brought to Burns where his leg was set and he is now doing quite well at the King hospital.

Mrs. William Stirling took her departure this week for Portland where she will spend the holidays with her daughters. Mr. Stirling remained but expects to join her by Christmas time if business affairs will permit.

Glen Hught left Wednesday evening for Vancouver, Washington, where he goes to claim Miss Gertrude Lang as his bride. The young lady formerly taught school in this vicinity and is a charming girl.

George Franklin arrived in this city Tuesday evening with his bride. George formerly resided in this city where he was connected with one of the garages, going from here into Idaho but later locating at Vale where he has been residing until recently. He informs us he has returned to Burns to make his home.

Merry Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Porter arrived here Tuesday evening on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. L. E. Reed. The Porters formerly resided in this section and are well known to many of the pioneer residents of Burns. They have been living at Myrtle Point in the Rogue River country but lately have made Corvallis their headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Porter expect to remain here for perhaps a month.

J. P. McKenna, connected with a cattle loan concern in Portland, has been in this vicinity during the week. His company has considerable business in this section of the country and he is looking after some of the affairs. Mr. McKenna says the stock men are going to come out in time and there is really no concern as to the future of the business.

Married—Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian Manse, August Vella and Mrs. Clara Solomon were united in marriage by Rev. John H. Wicherson, the pastor. Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity where they have resided for the past few years. Mr. Vella has been in the employ of Phil Smith for some time at the saw mill. The Times-Herald extends its best wishes for a happy and prosperous life.

A shoddy dress is a poor mate to a dress suit.

Mr. and Mrs. David Craddock were down from their Sillies home for a few days during the week.

Alimony comes to those who gape—don't yawn in your husband's presence.

Mrs. Peter Christensen and little daughter, Mrs. Jerry Dillin and baby were up from Lawen last Saturday, having accompanied Archie Weinstein up.

One way to succeed with your husband is to get the manner of success.

Gus Sherz, the young man who was here in the interest of the Holt Manufacturing Co. in charge of the Caterpillar on the highway work during the summer, took his departure Sunday for outside points. He went to Portland where he met a representative of his company and from that place he did not know whether he would go into California or into Montana. Gus made a lot of friends while in this part of the country who hope to see him return at some future time.

If you wouldn't his fancy keep, try silk hose and trim shod feet.

The Ladies Friendly Aid Society of Crane gave a two-act comedy drama at Crane on last Saturday evening, entitled "Mr. Bob." It was well received and the cast may come to Burns with the play in the near future.

A dab of rouge on the cheek is worth two in the store. Be artistic!

You'll know you are on the wane if he spends his nights out.

If you hang back your husband will overtake another woman.

The books accounts and notes of J. W. Geary, M. D. are in the office of the undersigned for collection. All those knowing themselves indebted to the Doctor are requested to call and settle, as I shall not send out statements but bring suit in such cases where I consider it proper to do so. Kindly call and save costs.
