Harney county, reports that the dairy industry in that vicinity has made marked advances in recent months. It is estimated that about $800 a week revenue is derived by local dairymen from their raw material and, while not all of this is taken care of by the local creamery, that institution has enjoyed a gradually increasing business. Several carloads of dairy cows have been shipped into the vicinity of Burns during the last season and there is still a strong demand for them. Local dairymen have come also to understand the difference between just plain cow and a milk producer. They are weeding out the boarders and getting cows that will pay dividends. Dairy cows should do well in Harney county. There is ready sale now for their product, and as the Times-Herald point out, added transportation facilities that will be afforded by the extension of the railroad to Burns and up into the mountains to the Bear valley timber will stimulate the demand materially, especially with the enlarged home markets for the product that building of a sawmill and kindred enterprises will bring. Contemplated developments in irrigation that are sure to follow directly upon completion of the railroad traversing the valley also are expected to stimulate dairying, which ultimately must occupy an important place in the economic scheme of things if Harney county agriculture is to attain its highest plane.—Oregon Farmer.

HOME POINTERS

(From O. A. C. Home Economics Department)
Boil cabbage in an uncovered kettle, taking care to have the kitchen windows open a few inches both top and bottom, and the odor will be very slight.

Celery tops make a very ornamental garnish, and are delicious when chopped up in salad. They may also be dried and rubbed to a powder, to be saved for use in seasoning soups and stews.

A wire hair brush is the best implement for removing thread and hairs from the brush of the carpet sweeper.

Prevent cheese from moulding by wrapping it in a cloth wrung from vinegar. Repeat as often as the cloth becomes dry.

The chocolate which is usually vended by sticking to the container in which it is melted can be saved by greasing the pan thoroughly before putting in the chocolate.

Keep an apple in the cake box to keep the cake from drying, changing it whenever it becomes withered or shows signs of decay.

To remove chocolate stains from fabrics soak for half an hour in strong cold borax water, pour water through the stain, and wash in the usual manner. Sponge with chloroform when the stains are on non-washable fabrics.

On the eve of the future development of Burns and the community the united support of every individual and organization is necessary for success. There is no enterprise more interested than the churches of the city and none more worthy of moral and financial support and none that can be depended upon more fully than they for every moral advancement. Every citizen is urged to attend and support the various churches in their work. Your attendance and co-operation in the past is such support has been greatly appreciated by the Baptist folks, and we invite your continued interest. We are planning largely for the future welfare of every resident now here and for the new people who are soon to locate here. The Sunday School under the leadership of Mr. M. B. Gilbert has perfected many new plans and innovations, which are now in practice, while the preaching services are being conducted on the highest plane, which we are sure you will enjoy each service. Your attendance and co-operation just at this time will be greatly appreciated and we feel sure much good can be accomplished if every one will attend, at least one service each Sunday.

"DADDY" LANCASTER DIED SATURDAY
W. R. Lancaster, familiarly known as "Daddy" died in this city on Saturday night after an illness covering several weeks. He had been up and around town until just a short time before his death. He was suffering from kidney and bladder trouble and had suffered much.
Little is known of his relatives. He had a son and one daughter in Ogden, it is understood, and other children in California, but it appears he had not been in close communication with them for years. He came to this section several years ago and for a time worked at his trade of carpentering, but of recent years he worked at days wages and during the winter trapped. He was 79 years old but quite active up to a few weeks ago. He was buried Sunday afternoon from the Clevenger undertaking establishment interment being made in the Burns cemetery. "Daddy" Lancaster had many good friends in this community he was well thought of.

CHARLES W. ELLIS MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY
Charles W. Ellis, present incumbent, has announced his intention as a candidate for State Senator of this district. He served his constituents in that capacity during the past four years and his record is open for inspection. Senator Ellis was consistent in his efforts to aid the people of Oregon and this particular district during the terms of the legislature in which he sat and was an energetic worker for legislation that tended to keep down extravagance. His familiarity with conditions of this district and his standing among the members of the legislature make him a strong man to succeed himself. His knowledge of the stock industry and his stand on all measures affecting it, is now a matter of record. He is a safe man in the legislature.
