

Harney, the Land of Sunshine.

Mrs. Bertha Griffith and little son... in Tuesday from their new home at Boise.

E. W. Barnes left Thursday in company with A. K. Richardson, going out by way of Canyon City to get on to Portland but will visit by points en route.

The river is reported rising but is not likely to overflow its banks according to information about the amount of snow in the mountains to melt and come down. In fact no flood of water is possible this season.

C. W. Brown, the Canyon City stage man, came in yesterday afternoon on the stage for the purpose of taking back a Chevrolet which he secured through the Service Garage of this place.

The high school sets a good example in clean-up by taking the initiative in the move. Mr. McDade and boys and girls are always on the job in making the school grounds attractive.

C. A. Brittingham has been busy a week preparing poisoned grain for the court house with which to supply farmers who desire it to destroy the sage rats. The troublesome pests are very plentiful and the farmers have come to realize the necessity of coping with them as they destroy much of the farm and range produce every year.

Let's not forget about next week's clean-up week. Not because city authorities require it, but because of our pride and desire to make our town more presentable and the satisfaction of seeing untidy things removed for our own good. Easter Sunday should see us in spring attire and ready for parties by home-seekers.

Post Master Newt Williamson and his Combs, of Prineville, returned earlier evening from Denton, where they had gone to attend the funeral of Frank Williamson. They found necessary to continue their journey to Winnemucca, Nevada, to look after some business matters connected with the estate of the deceased. A gentleman spent yesterday in Denton where they met several of his old time friends.

E. C. Shankland, an insurance adjuster with headquarters in Portland, was here during the week attending the loss of the store and mercantile stock of Alfred Marshall and his wife at Voltaire. As near as can be ascertained the fire which caused the loss was from a defective flue. It was a severe loss and handicaps Marshall in resuming business. The insurance will not nearly cover the loss, especially as there is no insurance on the fixtures.

The annual Easter sale by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will be held next Saturday, April 19, in the building recently occupied by Frank Brown adjoining the post office. A special event is one of the attractive features at Easter time as the ladies have appropriate features for the season, including Easter bonnets, floral flowers, candy, fancy soaps, music, candy and other articles which have always been popular and whose appeal resemble a new article.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES

Worship—H. A. M. Theme of week, "The Reversal of Human Nature." Everybody welcome to the services of the church. Sunday School—10 A. M. Young People's Meeting—2:30 P. M.

Word has been received from the Rev. J. C. Yonkington that he cannot fulfill his appointment here as announced and his trip to Burns has been postponed indefinitely.

The Ladies' Aid, of the Presbyterian Church met Wednesday with Mrs. Yonkington. The attendance was large and a most pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies, finishing up plans for the Easter Bazaar. Mrs. Yonkington served dainty, original refreshments, which were much enjoyed. Mrs. Gemberling presided at the business meeting, in the absence of Mrs. Farro. The date set for the bazaar is April 19th. Keep this in mind. This is your chance to obtain flowers and cats for your Easter dinner. Cut flowers, fancy work, cooked food, all of the best, will be on display. Watch for further announcements.

Rev. Mr. Ellis spent the week end in Burns, working in the interests of the College at Albany. Mr. Ellis occupied the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday morning, giving a splendid address and also explaining many interesting points about Albany College, and the standards of this worthy institution. The school is running a program of self-help, giving boys and girls of limited means the opportunity to obtain a college education.

"E" FOR THE PUPIL A school girl was required to write 200 words about a motor car. She submitted the following: "My uncle bought a motor car. He was riding in the country and it stopped while going up a hill. The other 190 words are what my uncle said when he was walking back to town, but I know that you wouldn't want me to repeat them here." INFORMATION, PLEASE Orator (at school commencement) "Success is earned. In no other way can it be had. There is no such thing as luck. Instead, it is PLUCK—PLUCK—PLUCK!!" Intensely Interested Graduate: "Yes, sir; but whom and when shall we pluck?"
