

MOTHERS DAY

About the name of mother clings a powerful indefinable fragrance—something that makes all men delight to honor her who bears it. As little children there is no substitute for the tender care and brooding love of MOTHER.

Her children, grown, are eager to repay her years of service and sacrifice and when "Dad" is gone they insist on caring for mother.

But that is not what mother wants. She craves—and surely deserves—a sense of financial independence—a home of her own.

Let every day be mother's day and let every household begin a savings account right now that will make Mother's last days free from financial worries when Dad's strong arm is no longer about her. "If we save consistently we have done the thing most needed to establish our prosperity."—Meredith (Secty. Agr.)

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

John Graves was up from Lawen yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown and son Harry were in town Wednesday from their ranch home.

G. R. Edmonds, territory representative of the Fisk Tire Co., with headquarters in Boise, was in Burns on business for a few days this week.

J. L. Lowe was down from his saw mill this week. He has recently acquired the Purington mill and machinery and is preparing for an active season.

Mrs. S. E. Foren was over from her home at Prineville for a few days during this week, looking after business matters and visiting with former neighbors and friends.

James Girard of the Fred Herrick Lumber Co. left Monday for Salt Lake on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Girard and Mrs. B. P. Smith.

R. A. Ford, candidate for representative, was over from his Grant county home during this week meeting with his friends and looking after his political interests.

Mrs. Wilbur Haines has been visiting with friends in this city during the week.

Charles Foley of the Fred Herrick Lumber Co. offices in this city is absent on a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Cassie Smyth was over from the ranch home at Diamond during the fore part of this week.

Sam Mothershead was summoned to Portland last Tuesday to be present as a witness in the federal court on Wednesday morning.

Alvin Baird of the Lancaster-Baird theatrical company, spent a few days in Burns this week preparing necessary billing for the coming of the players in the Liberty Theatre May 21, 22 and 24.

Rev. C. A. Waterhouse left Monday morning for Everett Wash. upon receipt of a message telling him his aged mother was very low and expected to pass away at any moment.

Robt. M. Duncan arrived home the first of this week from a trip to Portland and other outside points. Mr. Duncan attended the meeting before the interstate service commission in connection with the proposed building of the railroad line across central Oregon and took advantage of the opportunity to visit other places during the trip.

Mrs. Steve Seaward was a visitor to our city during the week, having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown in from the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cleveland were over from their ranch home near Van for a short visit during this week.

William Hanley went out yesterday with a shipment of cattle to Salt Lake and stated he would likely visit California before returning home.

W. R. Jones was up from his farm home in the Voltaga district the fore part of this week. Mr. Jones said he was fortunate in escaping from the big tale fire that raged in his neighborhood a couple of weeks ago.

Lee Caldwell is having a partition placed on the present quarters of the Harney County Abstract Co. office rooms and will use the south side of the building as a barber shop which he will open in the near future.

Dean Lansbury of the University of Oregon addressed former students and alumni members of the U. of O. at a dinner given at the Cole Hotel in this city last evening in the interest of the gift campaign now being conducted for the university.

V. G. Cozad was called to Portland the first of this week to appear as a witness before the federal court. He had intended to make a trip to the southern part of the county in the interest of his candidacy for district attorney, but the summons to court has prevented his making an active campaign.

County Commissioner C. T. Lillard came over from "The Valley of the Moon" ranch home Tuesday to attend the regular session of commissioner's court now in session. He was accompanied over by Mrs. Lillard who has been visiting with her many old time friends during her stay.

Lancaster and Baird's Comedians will present "Bought and Paid For" as one of their offerings while in Burns. "Bought and Paid For" was written by Geo. Broadhurst one of the foremost American playwrights. Among some of the well known players in the cast are: Dolly Daye, George Routh, Ben Dix, Dorothy Randall, Elmer White, Carl Caldwell, Alvin A Baird and Cliff Lancaster and Dorothy Davenport.

Mrs. R. S. Stringfellow, of Boise, was in Burns this week in the interest of St. Margaret's School, a protestant school for girls at Boise. This is an accredited school of high standing and with many advantages for girls where they have careful supervision and care. Mrs. Stringfellow was interviewing prospective students in this section for the opening of the fall term of the school, that being a very convenient and attractive place for girls wanting additional advantages in the way of music and such accomplishments in addition to the usual course.

Mrs. E. F. Schwartz left last Sunday for Portland and Seattle. She will spend a few weeks visiting with relatives and friends before returning to her home. Her daughter Miss Gene, is a student of the University of Washington and Mrs. Schwartz will spend some time with her and visit with her brother in Seattle.

Geo. L. Buchanan was among our out of town visitors on Tuesday. George was complaining that his democratic candidate friends had not been out to see him but that he was going to vote that ticket anyway as there were so many candidates on the republican ticket it would take too long a time away from his dairy herd. He and Mrs. Buchanan are milking a large number of cows this spring.
