

"CAPPY RICKS" — THE PLAY FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Great American Comedy-Drama Told in Real American Style—"Cappy" of the "Frisco Water Front" Most Delightful Character of the Modern Stage—Coming Third Night.

There is more to real humor than the things which make us laugh uproariously, as Chautauquans will realize when they see the famous comedy drama "Cappy Ricks," presented by that splendid organization, the Elias Day Players on the third night. The humor of "Cappy Ricks" is genuine because each character in it is reproduced from persons now living—most of them in San Francisco where Peter B. Kyne, author of the stories which ran in the Saturday Evening Post, studied human nature and gathered material for his successful series of character sketches. He transplanted them onto the printed page, and Edward Rose, the eminent playwright, has moved them from the story page to the center of the stage. Oliver Morosco first produced the play in New York where it had a phenomenal run of a whole year. Chicago claimed it for five consecutive months, and it has since won friends by the hundreds of thousands on the circuits of the big theaters.

Of course the frantically blunt, "I'm always right" old sea dog "Cappy" is the central figure, and Matt Pansley, the clean-cut, courageous young mate who beat "Cappy" at his own game, is his foil. "Cappy's" pretty daughter; Skinner, the efficient office manager whom "Cappy" bulldozes; old Aunt Lucy, the only person in captivity who is not afraid of the old man; a ne'er-do-well rich man's son and the office stenographer are the characters selected from the stories by the playwright for the stage version.

FORD CARS BY THE MILLION

Announcement of the Ford Motor Company that the 10,000,000th Ford car had been produced brings to light the interesting fact that these 10 million cars all are the famous Model T.

The company from its organization in June, 1903, until late in 1908 kept experimenting to determine upon a standard model. Approximately 25,000 Ford cars of different models were produced prior to the fall of 1908 when the now universally known Model T was developed and introduced to the motoring public. Popularity of the Ford Model T is best told in the following production record by millions:

Car No.	Date
1	Oct. 1, 1908
1,000,000	Dec. 10, 1915
2,000,000	June 14, 1917
3,000,000	Apr. 2, 1919
4,000,000	May 11, 1920
5,000,000	May 28, 1921
6,000,000	May 18, 1922
7,000,000	Jan. 12, 1923
8,000,000	July 11, 1923
9,000,000	Dec. 26, 1923
