LOCAL HAPPENINGS

E. N. Currey was up from Andrews this week.

Alva Springer and his son Ed were up from their ranch home Tuesday.

David Jones was over from his Silver creek ranch home for a short time during the week.

Rev. Mr. Stuart, of Emmett, Idaho is expected to occupy the pulpit in the local Nazarene church tomorrow.

John Kirk and Ed. Egli were over from their ranch homes in the Wagontire section for a day or two during this week.

Percy P. Locey, of Malheur county, was in this city during the week. Mr. Locey is a former O. A. C. football star and is well known to many of the students of that institution who reside in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garrett and their daughter Helen intend to leave today for their home at Winnemucca after spending a couple of weeks visiting with old friends and relatives in this city.

James Girard of the Fred Herrick Lumber Co., accompanied by his wife, left Monday morning for an auto trip to Portland and other outside points. Miss Annette Leonard accompanied them and will visit in Portland and Seattle during the vacation.

Byron and Gold Dunten, brothers to Bert Dunten, who was so badly hurt by a vicious bull, came in from Meridian, Idaho, upon being informed of the serious injury of their brother. The injured man had so far improved that the brothers left Thursday morning on their return home. Another brother, Charley, who lives neighbors to Bert, remained in town until Thursday evening.

Harry Riley, the auto dealer, has gone to Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson was up from the ranch home at Lawen Thursday.

Geo. M. Benson, federal game warden at the Malheur lake bird reserve, was in town during this week.

Chas. B. Foley of the Fred Herrick Lumber Co., spent a part of this week in Baker on legal business for his firm.

"Buck" Smith and wife, of Paisley were visitors to this city early this week. Mr. Smith is foreman on one of the large stock ranches in Lake county.

Telegraphic information was received here Monday by Mrs. Dell Dibble that her brother, Price Pennick, had died that day in Chico, California. Mr. Pennick was well known in this section where he resided for a number of years. He was Carl Fogly returned Wednesday from the Holy Rosary Hospital at Ontario where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. Although in a critical condition at that time he is now much improved. —Vale Enterprise.

Lester Tyel had his right shoulder dislocated one day last week when he was thrown from a horse. He is suffering considerable pain from the accident and it is feared the injured shoulder is not responding to treatment in staying in place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Goodman arrived home Thursday evening from their vacation which was spent in touring the northwest, going into Canada, and visiting with relatives and friends en route at Seattle, Edmunds and other points.

The date of holding the railroad celebration is still unsettled. Secretary Donegan has been receiving letters from different places asking for information as to the date and has informed the writers that he would advise them just as soon as it was set.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reineman came in the fore part of this week from southern California where they had been since last fall. They were accompanied up by their son Albert, who had gone down a few weeks ago to bring them back. The return trip was made by auto.

After the Field Day at the experiment station we have nothing to look forward to for a time in the way of entertainment and diversion until the railroad day celebration and the round-up. We'll have the weekend fishing trips and the swimmin' hole, though.

Supt. Obil Shattuck of the experiment station, arrived home Sunday morning from Klamath to which place he had taken his mother. He made the trip over from Bend in about five hours and arrived in time to bring Mrs. Shattuck in for the morning church service.

The working force on this paper will be among the first to move for a vacation of newspapers during a certain period of the summer—suspend publication for a week or so. That's not a bad idea. In fact we had one printer who lived in the south, tell us that the weekly newspapers of Virginia always suspended for Christmas holidays. We'd rather have ours in July.

John Kuhn was over from his Suplee ranch home for a few days during the week.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn and daughter were up from their homes near Narrows on Wednesday.

Born—Sunday, July 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hebenor, of Caslow valley, a son.

B. B. Clark was in town Wednesday from his ranch in the Happy valley section.

Reports from those who attended are to the effect that Andrews put on a big 4th of July celebration and that people came from all over that section to take part.

stricken with paralysis a few years ago and had since been an invalid. He is survived by his wife and two children. Interment was made at Chico on Wednesday.

The out of town attendance at Chautauqua this week was slim. It is a pity that work in the harvest fields has prevented several from attending the splendid programs that would have been enjoyed by them.

G. M. Kerr, of Washington, D. C., has been in this city during the week. He is connected with the U. S. Geological Survey and is a son of President J. W. Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Mrs. Verda Olsen has returned from a visit to her farm home in Catlow and told the newspaper man she found it intact after an absence of all winter and that further, crop conditions quite favorable for this dry season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Noonchester came over from Bend Thursday evening and are greeting their many friends in this city. Mr. Noonchester has a large alfalfa ranch not far from Bend and reports he will have a very good crop.

Peter Peterson was in from his ranch home in the Wagontire section on Monday for a short business trip, coming in particularly to get proper pipe fittings for a pump in a deep well he has recently had sunk. Mr. Peterson said the range had been good up to the present but it has begun to deteriorate with the continued drought.

Brad Berberger and Herbert Powell were over from Grant county the fore part of this week. Brad came over to consult the water master, J. C. Foley, respecting the use of water for his stock in Bear valley. Mr. Powell is one of the contractors on the highway from Canyon to Bear valley and was brought over by Brad as bailant and incidentally for company.
