LOCAL AND PERSONAL

C. H. Leonard was a passenger out on yesterday morning's train en route to Ogden where he has gone on professional business.

Judge and Mrs. A. I. Johnson are now living in Burns, having leased a residence here where the judge is always available when needed in an official capacity.

Fred Lunaburg left yesterday morning, going out by train, en route to Southern California where he will spend several weeks as has been his custom each winter for several years.

Friends in Burns have received the information by letter that George B. Marsden has been quite seriously ill at the home of his mother in Whittier, California, suffering from pneumonia. The letter arrived several days ago and it is hoped since nothing further has been received that the patient is improved, otherwise some word would have been received.

The two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Reed left Thursday morning on the train to meet their aunt at Ontario and return to Missouri where they are spending the winter with her, attending school and where they have the advantage of music lessons in addition. They spent the Christmas time with their parents and while their stay was short it was none the less enjoyable.

Miss June Dalton left yesterday morning for Los Angeles where she goes to be with her mother and sisters. Miss June conducted a kindergarten here for several weeks previous to the holidays and also kept house for her father. Evidently the young lady grew tired of the extreme cold weather of the past few weeks and decided to go where it was milder.

Capt. A. W. Gowan expects to leave Monday morning by train for Salem where he goes to cast his ballot for President Coolidge, he being one of the presidential electors for this state. The electoral college meets the same day as the Oregon legislature opens but Capt. Gowan says he doesn't intend to mingle very much with the legislators.

Prestley Smyth was among our out of town visitors during the week spending a portion of the holidays with friends in this city.

Miss Hattie Fordyce, of Portland, has been a guest of Miss Hill at the Valley View hospital during the holiday period.

PUBLIC SCHOOL REPORT

The monthly report of the public school of Burns at the closing for the holiday vacation shows the average attendance is well kept up. Very few have been dropped from the total registered for the year, and the absent and tardy pupils are negligible. The average daily attendance being 297.

The severe cold weather just preceding the vacation was responsible for several of the first graders remaining at home, but the general health for the school year has been fine.

WEINSTEIN MAKES CHANGE IN PERSONNEL

Some changes have been made in the personnel of the Weinstein stores in Burns with the first of the New Year. Mrs. James L. McCulloch takes the place of Mrs. Goyt at the books and the telephone in the office at the grocery department, and Mrs. Goyt has taken active charge of the dry goods department, succeeding Mrs. Chas. Loggan who has resigned.

Mr. Weinstein leaves next Monday morning for an extended buying trip to outside points where he will lay in an increased stock in some lines, especially ladies furnishings and dry goods. It is the intention to increase the line of ladies goods materially and save to this class of trade.

WELL KNOWN PUBLISHER DIES

C. S. Jackson, owner and publisher of the Oregon Journal, of Portland, died last Saturday in his 65th year. Mr. Jackson was a Virginian by birth but came west as a young man and located at Pendleton where in 1881 he became interested in the East Oregonian. He went to Portland in 1902 and acquired the control of the Journal. He was a well known newspaper man and was a success.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday School at 10 A. M. Make the Sunday School and Church Service the center and circumference of all the Sunday's thoughts and activities. Take God into your business and make Christ your daily companion. Incline your thoughts and activities. Take God your hearts to a greater appreciation of the world's true need. May there not be some undiscovered riches for each of us that will lessen our worries and add to our peace and contentment?

"Is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah said, There is." There will be a Union Service in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning at 11 A. M.

A prominent representative of the Near East Relief will speak of the Armenians and their present condition and needs.

There will be no morning service in the Presbyterian Church Sunday, so that the opportunity may be given to attend the Union Service; it is hoped and expected that there will be a large attendance to greet the speaker.

Samuel Harris, Minister UNION SERVICES

Union services at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Mrs. W. E. Rambo will speak on Near East Relief. There are thousands of children in need and we must do our bit or some will perish before Spring. Come and hear an interesting talk on an important subject. Special music.

BLONDE BESS OPINES

"It's all right to consult your mother about marriage, but it seems the modern girl has made it pay a little more by waiting a little longer—and consulting a lawyer."
