

Ring Out The Old Ring In The New

This is the dawn of a NEW LEAR —a day to make new resolutions—to turn over a new leaf.

Nothing is finer at this season than for us to study our faults and determine to overcome them.

Are we getting ahead? If not—Why? Surely we can locate some pet extravagance that is a material cause in "Keeping us down."

To save is hard—but only the man who does so—WINS.

"DON'T COUNT THE ENEMY—CONQUER HIM."

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

R. J. Williams was over from his Silver creek ranch home Thursday.

Dr. Homan has returned from his visit to his former home during the holidays.

Ivor Williams and Dick Williams were business visitors during this week.

Dr. Ward was called to Wagonfire last Sunday to see C. J. Wolter, one of the stockmen of that region.
He found Mr. Wolter quite ill and the patient was brought to town and after an examination left for Seattle where he will undergo an operation.

Born—Dec. 30, at Yakima, to Mr. and Mrs. Col. V. L. Beebe, a son.
This information came in a telegram on Wednesday to Mrs. Arthur Turner.
Mrs. Beebe was formerly Myra King and is well known in this vicinity where she lived during her girlhood.

The Times-Herald is informed that the past severe cold weather has been very hard on China pheasants.
The game is deep and the cold has killed several in this neighborhood.
The Indians boys report they are feeding a large flock of pheasants at their place and keep with this extra feed some of them have died.

Raymond Vestley, one of the Harney county boys who is attending the U. of O. came in for the holiday vacation with several of his school mates, but unfortunately was stricken with an attack of flu shortly after arriving home and was confined to his bed for a greater portion of the time he was here.

The Stockgrowers National Farm Economic Association will hold its regular annual meeting at the office of the secretary, V. G. Cozad, in the Tosawama Building on January 13.
Mr. Cozad states there are several matters of particular importance to come before the meeting and he hopes for a big attendance especially as the matters are of vital importance to the local members of the association.

Fred Hamilton was here from Diamond during the week.

County Commissioners Buchanan and James were in town Thursday for a short conference with Judge Johnson on county affairs.

Bill Frazier was among the passengers out on the train yesterday morning after spending the Christmas holidays with friends in this city. He was returning to his home in Bend.

Miss Frances Donegan left yesterday morning for Bend where she goes to be in readiness to resume her place in the schools following the Christmas holiday vacation which she spent with her parents in this city.

Burns McGowan was the only one of the several students home for the holiday vacation who braved the trip across to Bend by auto stage.
He is returning to the U. of O. All the other students went out by train by way of Ontario.

Wee Welcome left with the bunch of young people yesterday morning on the outgoing train, after spending the holidays with his parents and other relatives. Wee goes to Portland where he reports for duty with the Standard Oil Co.

Alm Martin and his family were among the passengers to arrive here on Thursday's train from Minnesota.
Mr. Martin is a mill man and said he came to Burns because he had been informed there were two big mills being erected here and that one was just ready for the installation of the machinery.

Mrs. Chas. Wilson had the misfortune to have her leg broken Wednesday by stepping on a piece of round wood while in the woodshed at her home. The fracture has been reduced by her physician and she is doing as well as possible. Mrs. Wilson has been right hand "man" to her husband for the past several months following an illness that left him incapacitated temporarily, and this misfortune was most ill-timed.
However, the Wilsons are cheerful people who make the best of things as they come and the present crisis will be overcome as those in the past.

W. E. Marshall was up from his ranch home in the Voltage district during the week.

Mrs. Mary Evans was up from Crane to spend a portion of the holidays, being a guest at the Levens.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lazarus were passengers out on the train Wednesday morning en route to Boise after spending the holidays with relatives and friends in Burns.

Jack Darst has been down from his mining property in the mountains during the holiday period, spending the time with Mrs. Darst and renewing acquaintances.

The two little tons of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Culp, "Pat and Birdie," each had their tonsils removed at the Valley View hospital last Saturday and were able to return to their home the following day.

Some changes are being made at the court house to provide another office room which will be at the disposal of the district attorney. It is being cut from an anti room and a portion of the assessor's office.

John Franklin Pelham and Mrs.
Violet Fowler were married Monday evening December 29 at the Nazarene parsonage. Rev. J. W. Stuart officiating. They will make their home in Burns.

Leatha Stuart, oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Stuart left for Nampa, Idaho Monday morning on the early Burns train, after a 10 days' vacation, where she will resume her studies in the Nazarene College.

Mrs. Jeanette McCoy, who has been visiting with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. W. Gowan, took her departure last Monday for her home at Spokane, going out on the train.

Bill Stewart writes from Whitney, Nebraska, that he survived Christmas and is looking forward to enjoying the coming year. His general health has been good ever since he left and he has been driving a plow team up until the middle of December when it froze up but very little snow is evident in his neighborhood.
Bill sent a check to keep this great religious weekly coming to him as he says it's just like a big long letter from home each week.

Judge R. T. Hugnet was a passenger out on yesterday's train en route to Portland.

Miss Vella Parker, linotype operator at this office, is confined to her home with a bad throat and cold, thus handicapping the force to that extent.
