

Attempting Big Things

Big things are only accomplished by those who try them. No obstacle is too big to be overcome by the fellow who tries.

A big bank account may be one of the results of your efforts.

Joe Aurpeck, father of Mrs. Joe Hugman, took his departure Thursday morning for Pennsylvania.

We are informed that School Supt. Mary Griffin has purchased the Platt Randall residence property and will soon take possession.

So far there are no "casualties" in the expected scrap between Governor Pierce and the legislature but it's apt to break most any time according to the Portland papers.

E. D. Aspinwall of the Standard Oil Co. was in town Friday and reports the flood situation improved as they have made an entree for the melting snow.

We can find no authority for the statement that Burns is soon to have a daily train service, but the story is going around. We won't object in the least to such a service.

H. E. Topp of the Skaggs store in this city, arrived home Thursday night from Portland where he had been attending a convention of men connected with the Skaggs chain stores.

It is reported there is sufficient snow in the mountains to insure a good crop season the coming year. Let's hope it doesn't run off too early since we have no impounding dam to save it for use when it is really needed.

Sheriff Clarence Young arrived home Monday evening from Portland where he had been attending the convention of northwest peace officers. He reports a successful meeting and believes as a result of this gathering that much good may be accomplished toward better observance of laws and their enforcement.

"The Lass of Limerick Town," a dramatic comic opera, is now being rehearsed under the direction of Mrs. E. Dillman to be given as a benefit to the Burns Public Library in the near future. The affair is under the auspices of the Library Club of which Mrs. Dillman is president.

County Judge Johnson arrived home from a trip to Portland and Salem. During his absence the judge announced he conferred with men of high authority in matters pertaining to county affairs. He also made the statement that negotiations were under way for a settlement with the Eastern Oregon Live Stock Co. on their delinquent taxes. Judge Johnson was asked the status of the bill introduced in the legislature as a cure for the tax situation in this county and replied that it was not meeting entire approval, but he believes there will be ways provided out of the difficulty.

On Friday night about 15 members of the Baptist church choir motored out to the Station, to practice for the Revival meetings soon to be held.

Mrs. Leiah Miller arrived home this week from an extended visit to outside points. She spent a portion of the time in Portland also was in Boise with Mrs. C. C. Griffith for a while. Mrs. Miller will have some millinery soon.

The story of the man who tells of having been on a jury with eleven of the "contracted" men he ever saw really has merit. There are just such fellows and they some times make it very disagreeable in a neighborhood.

The vocal pupils of Mrs. A. C. Welcomes and piano pupils of Mrs. Samuel Harris were presented in recital at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. The affair was well attended, the church being crowded to the very doors and a representative of this paper who arrived late was unable to gain entrance thus missing a most enjoyable hour, he is sure.
